Unique Undertaking.

Running a store on the "honesty system" is to be undertaken by the farmers of Stony Ford Grange Middleton, N. Y. A stock will be supplied and when a member wishes to obtain anything therefrom he will be entrusted with the key of the storeroom and whatever he takes he will make a note of and leave the price. If he takes more than he leaves the member he will not be trusted.

It is a common thing that the man with the strongest will is the man who yields the most quickly to opposition. He saves all his strength to throw it into the line of least resistance. He is a good general and does not waste himself battering away at an impregnable position, but makes a flank movement at once.

"Don't you desire to be famous?" "No," replied Mr. Groucher. "I don't care to have my name in the encyclopedia along with those of whom I do not approve in the slightest."

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism

The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 14 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's." Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfil the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Sold at druggists in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

Bad Price, Bad Work.

Craftsmanship used to be the keynote of labor. The aim was to produce an excellent thing, to sell at a good price. The modern business man tries to produce quickly a rotten and fantastic article, so as to be able to sell at a bad price in enormous quantities. So far is this paradox true that a real economist nearly always buys the most expensive things, and the cheapjack is as often as not a millionaire.—R. R. Buckley, in London T. P.'s Weekly.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Old Grouch's Idea.

"Marriage," said the serious man, "is an education in itself." "Yes," commented old Grouch, "it teaches you what not to do after you've done it."

Under Colored Glass.

A Swiss professor of agriculture has been experimenting with cultivation under colored glass, and finds, according to the Review Scientific, that ordinary transparent glass gives the best results. Orange glass forces the plants, but hurts the fruit; violet glass increases the quantity of fruit, but lowers the quality; red, blue and green glass are positively injurious.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good, but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and black-heads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets." Fred C. Witten, 76 Elm St., Newark, N. J.

HUMAN NATURE.

Pat was being shown an incubator by one of his friends who had recently removed to the suburbs. He took great interest in all the details and examined everything with great care. Which Spells Success.

Study the world and its forces. Your strength lies in co-operation with them. Study men; leadership consists in knowing how to run with them. Observed M.

A friend of mine had a lot of hens and wanted to raise some chickens, but his hens wouldn't sit on the eggs. So one night he went into the coop, grabbed one of them and put it on a nest and held it there all night. In the morning, when the light broke into the place, he found that he had grabbed the rooster by mistake. He was arrested by the federal authorities for illegal use of the male.

Intentional Blinding.

Intentional blinding to escape conscription for the army is still met in Egypt. The means employed are either the placing of a hot needle on the cornea, producing a dense white leucoma, or a puncture aimed involving the lens, or by the introduction of lime or an irritant vegetable juice in the eye.

THE GOLD MINER'S GARDEN.

Housewives who cannot be happy without their little gardens had better make a wide detour of the Nevada desert. Nothing grows in the treasure hills and vales of the Great Basin save the Joshua-tree, a shabby variety of the yucca-palm; sagebrush and the greasewood bush. A writer in Good Housekeeping tells of one at tempt at gardening, which proved not only expensive, but useless.

In Goldfield there was the wife of a bonanza mine operator who pined for a little lawn. Her husband freighted down from the Washoe range a thousand dollar carload of sod. It was carefully laid out before the tiny cottage by an expert gardener, borrowed from a garden estate in southern California and it was generously sprinkled with water bought by the gallon.

For a day or two the liberally watered sod looked fresh, and a few blades of grass raised their heads proudly. Hundreds came from miles round to feast their eyes on this little patch of verdant green.

The gold miner's wife was overjoyed and sent to Sacramento for a box of rose bushes. She would have a little oasis of her own.

Alas! one shimmering afternoon it began to blow. Spirals of sand rose up on the hill slopes and danced down the trails and into the camp, gaining velocity and volume with every revolution.

First came one little sandpout, which tripped a sprightly saraband on the little lawn. Then came another, a trifle larger, and danced like a mad dervish from corner to corner of the square of sod.

Presently a very ballet of sandpoints were performing their bewildering evolutions about the cottage, merging at last one into the other, and becoming a prodigious whirlblast of alkaline dust.

When this cruel visitation had passed the little lawn had vanished. Although deluged with a reckless waste of water, not a solitary blade of grass could be brought to raise its head. The poisonous dust had killed swiftly and thoroughly.

FASHION HINTS

The Power of Potemkin.

Potemkin, the great Russian general and statesman, once desired that the word "impossible" be erased from his dictionary. Just how near he came to fulfilling this extraordinary ambition, the following anecdote shows:

The favor and power bestowed on him by the Empress Catherine the Great had accustomed Prince Potemkin to satisfy his slightest wish. Some one, speaking before him one day of the height of one of his aides-de-camp, said that an officer whom he named, in the Russian army, was even taller. When a discussion arose, Potemkin sent an express with an order to bring back the officer in question, who was then about a thousand miles away.

When the officer heard that he was sent for by the prince his joy was extreme; he felt assured that he was going to be appointed to a superior grade. One can, however, imagine his disappointment when, on his arrival at the camp, he learned that it was only that he might be measured against the aide-de-camp of Potemkin, and that he was expected to return at once without any other result than the fatigue of a very long journey.

Pitchers Will Be Pitchers.

Mr. Falfan (immersed in the game, fiercely)—If that pitcher would only settle down!

Mrs. Falfan (inexpressibly shocked)

—Dear me! You don't tell me! Is he as wild as all that, George??

Her Unconsciousness Siam.

Mr. Bjinks—I hunted deer with a dog last season.

Mrs. Phuff—Let's see, that was when you went up into the woods with my husband, wasn't it?—St. Louis Star.

To Relieve a Burn.

A free application of soft soap to a fresh burn almost instantly removes the fire from the flesh. If the injury is severe, as soon as the pain ceases apply linseed oil and then dust over with fine flour. When this covering dries hard repeat the oil and flour dressing until a good coating is obtained. When the latter dries allow it to stand until it cracks and falls off, as it will in a day or two, and a new skin will be found to have formed where the skin was burned.

The Cattle Were Saved.

While a ferryboat was taking cattle across the Trent two animals jumped on board, in addition to three that were being carried. When in midstream all the animals crowded on one side of the boat, which capsized and the ferryman was drowned. The cattle got safely ashore.

All Her Own.

"Did the audience weep while I was singing?" asked the temperamental soprano. "No," replied the music director, "you were making that noise all by yourself."

A Modern Question.

A mother in Hackensack engaged a young woman as nurse for her baby. After she had wheeled the youngster about the yard for a half-hour, she came into the house and asked: "Do you mind, ma'am, if I smoke cigarettes?" There is a vacancy in Hackensack.

Knew What It Was.

A Wyoming cowboy called to see Owen Wister in Philadelphia, and was permitted to inspect the author's city outfit. As he casually examined an opera hat it sprang open. "A self-cocking hat!" said the cowpuncher, admiringly. "Now don't that beat hell!"—Everybody's.

The Little Corporal.

Napoleon complained of being hampered. "Rope," he exclaimed, "all I want is rope!" "Yes, sire, Eu-rope," responded his generals.
