Henry Blahm has returned to Morrow County to live. He left here for the Walla Walla country a few months ago, and after buying property there and trying to make a living he decided he could do better in the Heppner country so he is back, fully convinced that a man can do better here than there.

M. S. Maxwell made this office a pleasant call on Monday, having come down from Hardman on his way to Roseburg, where he now resides. Milt has purchased a small fruit farm down there and is going into the apple business. He left for his new home yesterday morning.

John Olden is now the owner of a fine imported Shire stallion. The horse was purchased from A. C. Ruby and arrived at Heppner on Saturday evening. It is a fine animal, weighs 1960 pounds, and was just recently imported from England by Rubys. John took the animal to his ranch Monday morning.

That bunch of Heppner boosters that traveled up to Hardman on last Friday were entertained at the hotel where Gene Chapel is landlord. They all appreciated the good dinner; and promised to say nothing about the scandalous manner in which Joe Wilkins and Ed Brown acted. They actually ate up all the beans and pie in sight, and if you don't believe it, ask Pole Thomson.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

The Same Thing.

The Ex-widow—You can't say I ever ran after you. Percival. The Second Helping—Very true. Hypatia. The trap never runs after the rat, but it gathers him in, all the same.—London Tatler.

The Restorative.

"How's your wife's cold this morning?" asked a neighbor. "Much better, thank you. There's a dance tomorrow evening that she wants to go to."—Detroit Free Press.

When a man sits down and hopes for the best he is apt to get the worst of it.

Return Home Through the Sunny South.

When you arrange your eastern trip be sure to include the Sunset Route through New Orleans, El Paso, Los Angeles and San Francisco for return. It is a splendid educational journey, warm and comfortable. Every mile is through the sunny southland—the rice and cotton fields of Louisiana and Texas, the vast mirage meses of New Mexico and Arizona, now spread with bright green, the orange groves and semi-tropic charm of California, miles and miles along the ocean shore and several of the most interesting cities on the continent. Ask your local railroad agent all about it.
