Willow Lodge No. 66, I. O. O. F., conferred the 3rd degree of Oddfellowship on seven candidates last evening. They also tendered a farewell to J. C. Borchers, who leaves Tuesday for the Oddfellows Home at Portland. Chris has been a member of the order for 28 years, having been made an oddfellow in Heppner lodge, and he was voted a veteran's jewel to be paid for out of the funds of the lodge. Mr. Borchers has been a familiar figure around Heppner all these years and he will be missed.

C. W. Ryehard, formerly a resident of Heppner, is reported to be dying at his home in Springfield, Oregon. "Cash" will be remembered by many old Heppnerites. He has been living at Springfield several years, being a prosperous merchant of that town. We regret to chronicle his serious illness, and would wish for his recovery, which at this time is pronounced impossible. From later report it is learned that Mr. Ryehard died on Saturday at his home in Springfield.

M. S. McGillivray and T. S. Johnson, of Portland, two timber cruisers, came in Monday from Willow creek basin, where they have been at work the past month cruising the timber on the land of Heppner Railroad and Coal Company. They "hoofed" it to town with their packs and snowshoes on their backs, and had the appearance of men who have been on a long hike. During their stay in the mountains their travelling was done principally on snowshoes.

While searching for eggs in a machine shed on their Social Ridge farm, Mrs. W. T. Campbell met with a very painful accident last Friday. She climbed up on a seed-er to see if there was a nest hid overhead, and missing her footing, fell. She was struck about the eye by a lever on the machine, causing that member to swell shut. After considerable treatment the swelling was reduced, and at last report she was doing nicely.

That was certainly a lively bunch of young hoodlums that made night hideous for a few hours Saturday evening. Its funny how drunk some of the young boys can get in a "home rule" town when the bootleggers are all out of business. Where do they get the stuff? The good people of Heppner should be spared such disturbances as mentioned above, now that there is no inducement offered anyone to fall off of the "water wagon."

J. E. Brink and C. T. McRobbin, of Kelso, Wash., are in Heppner and will attempt the organization of a Lodge of Owls at this place. They have succeeded in finding a time when there is not a meeting of some one of the numerous other lodges, so we presume there is room for one more.

GOOD GOODS Heppner Oregon

Ladies Footwear--

Inasmuch as the narrow, short skirt is to be more than ever the vogue this spring, it means an increased demand for walking shoes that possess every possible bit of character---shoes strictly in keeping with the natty tailored costumes. Pumps in Russian calf, patent colt and gun metal and in most cases with straps, are proclaimed the more correct in style. In Oxfords, the three-button effect is a promising favorite. Rather high shapely heels, vamps cut extremely low and a gracefully lined arch, are the characteristic points that one cannot help but admire in all of these newer spring footwear styles.

Our present assortment of styles and leathers is more complete than ever before at this time of year, so that we are ready to show them to you at any time convenient to yourself.

We have a popular assortment of Ladies' Pumps and Oxfords at from $2.00 to $4.50.

Men's Shoes and oxfords—We have both high and low cut shoes this season which are sure to please. Styles that are exclusive with us. Men's oxfords in patent, gun metal, Russian calf, and vici, from $3.75 to $5.00.

Warning to Railroad Men.

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad work. George E. Bell, 639 Third St., Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. "Twenty years of railroad work left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." For Sale by all Druggists.
