

ANSWER IT HONESTLY.

Are The Statements of Heppner Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Heppner. It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Heppner citizen speaks here, speaks for the welfare of Heppner. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

A. S. Burch, farmer, of Heppner, Oregon, says: "For about five years I had gravel and kidney trouble. There was much pain through my kidneys and at one time I was laid up for two weeks. The doctor's treatment helped me slightly but it was not until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills that I received any great benefit. This preparation has done so much for me that I gladly recommend it to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c.

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED.

How times have changed since I was young!

When I was a youngster in the old, old home

We lived in log cabins with puncheon floors.

Wooden latches sufficed—no locks on the doors.

We were healthy then, with plenty to eat.

Lots of corn dodgers, potatoes and meat.

Maple syrup, dried pumpkin and much garden "sass."

And we drank out of gourds instead of a glass.

We were happy, too, we dreamed not of care.

No doctors, no lawyers, and preachers were rare.

But when they did preach, 'twas from the book of the Lord.

'Twas no patent sermon; they could prove every word.

People met as commanded, to praise and to pray.

The gospel was theirs—they had nothing to pay.

But now it is bought and paid for in gold.

In receptions and festivals—'twas not so of old.

The people were honest in those good old days.

No fraud or deceit mixed up in their ways.

You could not buy a principle with all the cash coined.

A man's simple word was as good as his bond.

The Government, too, was run on the square.

No hypocritical state-crafts're entered there.

While such men as Washington and Jackson took care of the fold;

Their successors are bought with millions of gold.

There was plenty and peace in those days, long past.

No craven fear entered in any one's breast;

No priest-craft, no bigots, no millionaires come

With guilt-laden souls to darken our home.

God save our dear people from the ruthless clan.

Monopolies and gold bugs who infect our fair land.

From the infamous monsters who would sell their own souls.

And barter our liberty for their love of gold!

Oh, for the good old days once more.

With quiet and peace, as in days of yore.

When people will live as in times of old.

With no thought of greed—of silver and gold!
