Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers, of Parkers Mill, were passengers for Portland, Saturday, where they go to combine business with pleasure. They will of course take in the Rose Festival this week and enjoy the pleasures of that season along with numerous other visitors from this section. Some weeks ago the Gazette made the statement that these people were preparing to leave Morrow county and take on their abode in Portland, but in this the editor was mistaken, as Mr. and Mrs. Ayers have no such idea. Morrow County suits them all right, and they do not expect to leave.

Will Happner celebrate? Both Hardman and Ions are preparing for celebrations, so we are informed, the former to have three days of jollifying and the latter at least one day. Heppner should not be wagging the tail end in this matter. Get together and at least pull a few feathers from the tail of the American eagle; it is not too late to make an interesting time.
