Oscar Schafer and J. J. simas, two of the Monument sheepmen, were in Heppner several days the past week attending wool sales and looking after other business matters.

Welcome B. McAlister, the little son of Ray McAlester, had the misfortune to fall from a wagon on Saturday while the vehicle was in motion, and he now suffers from a fracture of the collar bone.

S. W. Floren made this office a pleasant call on Tuesday and left his measure for another year of the Gazette. He states that it is pretty dry out his way, but the warmer weather is beginning to make everything grow better.

Frank Turner finished his labor at the Whetstone shearing plant on last Thursday and departed on Friday for Lavinia, Montana, to put in a month or six weeks with the plant at that point. Mrs. Turner accompanied him as far as the junction and will go to her people in Grant county by way of Baker City, and will remain there until Frank returns from his Montana trip.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hill died yesterday at the home of its parents in Heppner. The little one had been suffering some time with the whoopingcough, which culminated in pneumonia and caused the child's death. The baby was one year old, and death claimed her on the first anniversary of her birth. Funeral services were held to-day at the M. E. church, South, conducted by Rev. E. P. Warren.

Mrs. John T. McMillan, of Lexington, departed for the Willamette Valley, Saturday morning and will be absent for a couple of months. She goes to be with her husband who is at Hopewell, Yamhill county taking treatment for cancer. Uncle John is reported to be doing as well as could be expected, but has not been under treatment long enough for his disease to show signs of yielding. It will require several months to effect a cure as his cancer is of a very malignant form.
