Simple Dresses

TWO charmingly simple dresses are shown here, both suitable for cotton or soft woolen materials.

The first has a panel of trimming, either braiding or broderie Anglaise, according to material used; the foot of skirt is trimmed to match. The yoke of the Magyar bodice is of finely tucked material edged with a shaped piece of trimming, the material being gathered to this, and shaped plastron is arranged beneath; the belt is of trimming, so are the sleeve bands. Hat of straw edged with a frill of lace and trimmed with roses and foliage.

Materials required: Five yards 46 inches wide, if braided material forms trimming, four yards, if not, 2½ yards broderie Anglaise 18 inches wide, if used.

The second costume is in thistle mauve cashmere; it has the skirt trimmed down sides with panels of chene silk edged with narrow satin bands. The over-bodice is entirely of the cashmere, edged with satin, while chene silk is used for the under-slip, which is finished off at neck and elbows by narrow lace frills. A belt of satin encircles the waist. Hat of thistle mauve straw, trimmed with black wings.

Materials required: Four yards cashmere 44 inches wide, one yard satin, 2½ yards silk 22 inches wide.

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alterative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Collinsonia Canadensis), Bloodroot (Sanguinaria Canadensis), Golden Seal root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Queen's root (Stillingia Sylvatica), Black Cherrybark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandrake root (Podophyllum Peltatum), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anæmic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.

DR. A. G. SMITH 334 MORRISON ST., COR. SECOND PORTLAND, OREGON

FOR THE TIME OF SORROW

Proper Way to Extend Condolences to One's Friends Who Are in Grief.

There are persons who never take notice of another's sorrow. They wait until the bereaved one is met.

Sometimes this attitude is from fear of intrusion, again it is from fear of not saying the right thing, too often it is from procrastination. Whatever the reason it is a mistake. There are some few who dislike outside sympathy in sorrow, the majority are hurt if it is not given. They never quite feel the same toward the friend who they think was neglectful of their trouble.

The visiting card with a few words of sympathy is sufficient, save among close friends. A married woman incloses the card of her husband.

Never make a note of condolence stilted. It should express you, and not be an essay on grief. Also be brief. A few sincere sentences count more than pages of rambling platitudes.

It is customary to send the note to the member of the family you know best, including the others in your expressions of sympathy.

It is customary now to have engraved forms of acknowledgment on black-edged cards. These are sent out in the name of the head of the family, and are sent to all who offered sympathy. They can be had in a few days on a rush order.

There are many who think such a card too formal, and in any case intimate friends should have personal notes. Flowers always require a note in the first person from some member of the family, or in case the note is written by a friend it should say: "Mrs. Blank has asked me to thank you for the flowers," etc.

When one is a Catholic, with these acknowledgments are sometimes inclosed small, black-edged engraved cards asking for prayers for the deceased. Occasionally a small portrait of the deceased is used on the inner fold of the card, with the date of death beneath.

Novelty Wraps.

Many novelty wraps of voile, chiffon and marquisette are being shown by the large department stores, says the Dry Goods Economist. These are usually left unlined and look particularly attractive over evening or lingerie gowns. Some of these are made like the fashionably-cut coat, with peasant sleeves, pointed collars, large revers, etc. Others are cape-wraps which can be readily slipped on or off. These coats are shown in black, cerise, purple, Holland blue, Empire green and other fashionable colorings.

Neckband Again.

The mode of the low-necked dress and the collarless frock has called out the black velvet neckband once more. This band is about an inch in width. When last worn this was merely a band, fastening in back or front under a buckle or pretty pin. Now, however, it is fastened in the back in the manner of 30 or 40 years ago, with the long ends hanging down the back.

ONE-PIECE BLOUSE.

This is a one-piece blouse, quite simple but rather novel in style. It is finely tucked at the upper part, the tucks being quite short on the shoulders, and getting longer towards center of front. A piece of wide insertion or passementerie is taken round blouse under arms, also trims sleeves, which are finished off by narrow material frills to match the neck.

Hat of straw, trimmed with a tulle ruche.

Materials required: One and one-half yard 44 inches wide, 1½ yard trimming.

Tailored Suits.

In tailored suit skirts fullness has been introduced through plaited sections, set into rather close fitting skirts as broken panels and also through the use of plaited panels overhanging in tunic form.

In the former style is an interesting skirt model which has as a back panel two deep, closely plaited flounces, which divide their width to form the skirt length, with the exception of a few inches, which are taken by the shallow hip yoke.

Of similar type is another skirt with the plaited flounces on either side of the flat center panel. Both of these models were much admired. These designs offer an accepted solution of a gradual break away from the inconveniently close fitting skirt still shown by many Paris houses.

The Fabric Gloves.

Chamois finished lisle are coming into popularity.

The fine suede lisle is the kind of glove which, having made friends, keeps them.

The silk glove is cool, but makes the band look larger.

The cotton glove does not wear very well.

Several pairs should be possessed to admit of frequent washing.

The washable glove, which is not allowed to get very dirty, wears the longest.

Useful Goat.

A good many of the goats of history have been made to look like sheep in the modern commentaries, and the tribe of the goat was considerably exalted the other day when a venerable creature was seen leading to safety 75 sheep whose lives were endangered in a stock yards fire at Kansas City.

Don't cringe—don't flinch,
Should fortune pinch
And all seem lost;
With might and main,
TRY, TRY again
At any cost.

MUNYON.

I AM taking the above text for the reason that I want to instill into the people self-reliance, self-nobility, self-sovereignty. I want every person to feel that they are above deception, hatred, selfishness, jealousy, envy or revenge.

I want the person who is pinched by poverty, who has suffered great reverses, who is weighted down with some great sorrow to become acquainted with the redeeming power of Hope. I want them to take Hope as a companion, as a counsellor, as a light, as a medicine, for Hope is an ambassador from God. It is a teacher that shows us the beautiful. It fills our souls with songs and our tongues with praise.

To be hopeful one must be well, and to be well one must be hopeful.

That the lower bowel is responsible for most bodily ills is now being recognized by the leading physicians throughout the world. There is no further excuse for being bilious, for having headaches, for suffering with dyspepsia or indigestion, for putting up with a sluggish or lazy liver, for poisoning the blood as a result of constipation, for Munyon's Paw Paw Laxative Pills are positively correcting all these ailments. They assist in digesting everything that is put into the stomach. They stimulate the liver into activity. They start the secretions of the stomach, which carry off all the bile and poisonous matters through the bowels. They strengthen the lower bowel, so that it empties itself naturally, without the aid of cathartics or foreign substances.
