GEO. J. CURRIN, Local Agent,

Sherman Shaw moved his household effects to the mountains Monday and will put in the summer up there making wood and posts.

Dr. M. A. Leach returned Saturday evening from a trip to La Grande, where he went on business before the United States land office.

Heppner Steam Laundry for good work. Don't forget that our wagon calls for your laundry three times a week and also makes deliveries promptly. Patronize home industry. tf.

G. A. Bleakman is making regular trips with the auto stage again, after a vacation of several weeks. Since getting the machine properly adjusted it seems to be giving good satisfaction.

Mrs. Salena Scharff arrived on Tuesday evening from Oregon City with her children, and they departed on Wednesday morning for the old home at Monument, to visit friends and relatives.

Frank McCabe was in from Big Butter creek Monday and states that his hay crop is not so good this season, for want of proper moisture, but since the rains the range has improved a great deal.

The families of Dr. Boyden and Dr. Metzler departed for the mountains with their camping outfits yesterday morning and will spend a few days rusticating along the banks of upper Willow creek.

The moving picture show has closed down for the summer season and the proprietors have gone to work at something else. The boys were giving a good show but patronage was not sufficient to keep up expenses.

W. J. Wattenburger was in Heppner yesterday, the first time in many months. He is now living with his family in Echo, where he has a five acre tract, and is enjoying life. He still owns his Butter creek ranches.

Maurice Smead has returned from school at Corvallis, and is as busy as a bee. He expects to cover all the farmers with insurance inside the next few weeks and we doubt not that he will succeed in a large measure.

A strict rule, and one followed by all publications, is to withold from print any communication, the author of which does not make his name known to the editor. Will the writer of "A Card of Appreciation," send in his name so that our rule may be observed, and the article published.

F. M. Holmes, former Morrow county farmer, but who now resides at Lents Oregon, was a visitor a few days ago to the old farm in the Gooseberry section. Like many others, Frank finds it impossible to keep house without the Gazette, so he left his order for a years' supply before returning home.

Joseph J. Hughes left on Saturday morning for Hood River where he will have charge of a switch engine in the yards. Joe has been in the employ of the railroad at Heppner for some time, having charge of the roundhouse here, and his promotion comes as a reward for faithful service.

D. S. Barlow and wife and W. L. Barlow and wife were visitors from Eight Mile on Monday. Dan has just returned from a visit to the Spokane country where he has been for several weeks. He saw lots of good grain up that way, but so long as he has to farm, he prefers Morrow county.

Rev. M. R. Thompson returned from Portland on Tuesday evening. He spent the past week down there attending the big international convention of the Christian church, and pronounces it a grand affair and one that stirred the religious element of the metropolis.

Heading will commence quite generally over Morrow county this week. R. A. Thompson brought down his outfit from the big foothill ranch, and begun work at Oscar Minor's place on Monday. He will start in on the Dutton field for Jess Hall right away.

Hansom Hughs returned on Monday from a visit to Portland and other cities along the line. He states that conditions at Heppner are as good, if not better than many of the places he visited, and we seem to have as little to kick about as any of them.

In a card to friends here, P. O. Borg states that he is having the time of his life at the beautiful resort of Pasadena, Calif. He and his wife are taking in the scenes of Southern California and enjoying themselves to the full.
