

Obstructions on Track.

Guy Hagnewood, A. Sweringer and Waverly Colvin, three young men of the Ione section, are in the custody of Sheriff Hayes at the county jail, awaiting preliminary hearing for putting obstructions on the railroad track just below Ione several days ago. One other young fellow is wanted on the same charge, and the hearing will be had when this party is brought in from somewhere in the Willamette valley. They placed a steel rail across the track, tore up some signboards, the property of the railroad company, and obstructed the track in such a manner that the branch train could have been badly wrecked, and what object they could have had in doing the job is not manifest. They will doubtless have to pay the fiddler for their fun, as the charge is a serious one.

Dr. Winnard departed for Portland Monday morning to attend the meeting of the State Medical Association which convenes there this week. Many of the most prominent speakers from the national gathering which was just closed at Los Angeles will be present and take part in this state gathering, and it will be one of much profit to the physicians attending.

Sherwin Williams sheep marking ink can be had at Gilliam & Bisbee.

W. B. Finley was in town on Friday. He states that the prolonged dry spell was a little too much for his crop and as a result it is cut pretty short. What a blessing to all those in his section when the West Umatilla irrigation project in extended and the water turned in. This will be a great boon to the northenders.

J. H. Wyland came in on Wednesday with a bunch of beef from his Hardman ranch. Jim poses as a shepherd these days, and as such is quite a success. His herder was gone for several days the past week, and during his absence James had charge of the sheep. One of the main points of a successful herder is his ability to loose sheep on the range, and in this he stands at the head of the class, as he lost 600 head the first day and chased his legs almost off before he found them again. If you want pointers on how to herd successfully, call on James.

In the Wrong Church.

A Cleveland man recently told this story of the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, famous New York divine of a generation ago:

A wealthy man came to him and said he wanted to rent one of the most expensive pews in the church. "But," he added, "I'll only take it on one condition—you mustn't expect me to do any church work."

The eminent rector smiled. "My friend," he replied, "you have come to the wrong church. You belong four blocks down the street, in the Church of the Heavenly Rest." — Cleveland Leader.

A Legal Holiday.

"Bindsworth seems to rather look upon his wife with awe."

"Yes, I met him yesterday, and he wanted to borrow $5 from me. I asked him why he didn't go to his bank for it, and he replied with surprise that he was unable to conceal:

"Why, bless me! I'd forgotten that the banks were open today, just the same. You see, this is my wife's birthday." — Chicago Record-Herald.
