Morrow Warehouse Milling Co.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Scott, of Lexington, returned home Sunday evening from a visit with relatives at Pilot Rock. That section of country will harvest a very poor crop this year, in fact it appears to be far behind what will be turned off in this county. Pilot Rock does not happen to be located in the wheat producing belt of Umatilla county, but is surrounded by a mighty good stockraising section, and like much of this county should have perhaps never been used for anything but stockraising.

A. W. Gammell was in town from the Carmichael farm northeast of Lexington on Monday. He was looking up some harvest hands. Heading has been on for a week on his way, and there will be a lot of good grain threshed and hauled to the warehouses in Lexington from that section. Some of the very best crops in the county will be harvested in the strip of country lying north of Lexington and reaching to the base line.

Rev. J. V. Crawford returned on Monday evening from his visit to Portland and the international convention of the Christian church. On his way home he visited for a few days at Hood River. He departed on Tuesday morning for Waitsburg, Wash., to attend the funeral of one of the oldest pioneers of that place, Mr. G. W. Loundagin, which was held on Wednesday.

Mrs. R. F. Hynd and children departed Friday morning for Portland, and Mr. Hynd left today to join them. Their new home will be in Piedmont addition. Heppner is sorry, indeed, to lose these excellent people and they will be gladly welcomed by the Morrow county colony now residing in the metropolis.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Since Pastor Thompson returned recently from the great International Convention of Christian Churches held in Portland, both of the Methodist pastors have offered to have another union meeting held in this church building next Sunday evening, when our pastor will tell some of the choicest things he heard at the convention. Several members of other churches have expressed a desire to hear this account. The young people who meet with us are asked to yield 15 minutes of their time and all are urged to come together promptly at 7:45 to give time for the report. Elder J. V. Crawford will conduct the morning services at 11:00. Other meetings as usual.
