Morrow Warehouse Milling Co.

James Thomson and family went to Collins Springs, Monday, for a short outing.

W. L. Barlow and family were in the city, Tuesday, from the Eight Mile country.

Mrs. R. Donaldson, of Portland, was an incoming passenger Tuesday evening, on her way to visit Mrs. R. F. Wigglesworth on Butter creek.

The Pacific Lodging house is now under new management. Mrs. P. H. Pickett has taken over this house and you will find everything nice and clean. See add in another column.

Pap Simons is rusticating in the mountains this week. He is at the Archer camp at Herren's Mill. Pap says he has never picked a pint of huckleberries in his life and thinks he never will unless the bushes come to him.

Waldo Vincent and wife and Mrs. F. C. Adkins and family are the latest to join the throng of campers in the mountains. They left yesterday morning for some point beyond the Ditch creek camp, where fish and game are more plentiful.

H. A. Duncan returned from an extended visit in Eastern states, Saturday evening. As a delegate to the grand lodge of Elks at Atlantic city he had a most enjoyable trip, both en route and at the convention. From Atlantic City he went to Philadelphia, then on to New York for a stay of ten days. Buffalo and Niagara Falls were visited. After taking in St. Paul and Minneapolis the return trip was made over the Canadian Pacific to Seattle.

There was a general exodus of Heppner citizens for the various camps in the mountains last Saturday afternoon. Some went to be with their families, while others packed up camping outfits and went out for a little outing wherever they could find good camping places. Among those who wended their way up the long mountain road we noted S. W. Spencer and wife, T. J. Mahoney, Clyde Brock and Judge Patterson, D. C. Wells and family and H. Vance and wife, and Celeus Keithley.

Fred Rader and A. J. Myers, stockmen of Long Creek, were transacting business in Heppner last Friday.

"It Could Not Suit Me Better If It Had Been Built to Order for Me."

This is a common expression where the Royal Standard Typewriter is used. Court Reporters, Telegraph Operators and Expert Stenographers in all lines of business find in the Royal those "built-to-order" qualities that represent to them the ideal writing machine. You will say the same when you have become the owner of a
