THURSDAY, Sept. 28, 1911

According to the figures of the Purebred Livestock Association, Oregon is rapidly increasing the value of its cattle, horses, hogs and sheep. The report made at the annual meeting of this organization stated that last year horses and mules raised in the state brought the breeders $18,000,000, cattle $11,000,000, sheep and goats $9,500,000 and hogs $600,000.

The overwhelming defeat of the Reciprocity program in the Canadian election last week, was considerably of a surprise. The bigness of their victory was equally surprising to the Conservatives. They won by a political trick, clouding the issue with declarations that Reciprocity was the entering wedge of an attempt to annex Canada to the United States. On learning the rejection of his overtures President Taft admitted his disappointment, but proved himself a good loser. He said that he now hoped the day would not be far distant when all the customs houses on the Canadian border would be abolished, making trade absolutely free between both countries.

A farm on wheels is practically what the O. R. & N. special demonstration train to Morrow, Sherman and Gilliam counties will be next month. It has been termed the "Hog and Field Pea Special," and one car will be fitted up to represent the best ideas in raising hogs. Another car will be a miniature poultry yard, while a third will show methods of raising and feeding field peas. Several instructors from the Oregon Agricultural College will be on board to deliver lectures to the farmers along the way and give demonstrations of the best methods. When the train reaches Arlington, a convention of the Tri-County Development Congress will be held.

Chapel Car Coming.

St. Anthony's Chapel Car will visit Heppner this week. It is a novelty in the shape of a miniature Catholic Church in a Pullman car. The chaplain, Rev. Thos. Brady, will give a mission in the Catholic church, commencing Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. The evening services will be at 8:30 p. m. Non Catholics are cordially invited to visit the car and to attend the services in the church. A question box will be used for the purpose of answering inquiries made by non Catholics attending the services. Mr. George Hennessy, superintendent of the Chapel Car will be in charge of the musical portion of the services.

Party to Freshmen.

A party was tendered the "rookies" of the High School at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. VanVactor on Saturday evening, sixteen of the class being present. This is the first class party of the season and puts the "freshies" in the lead in the social swirl. It was not on the program, of course, to entertain outsiders but the class above, however it became necessary to take care of a number of the "sophas" and Seniors who called at the house unbidden. Regardless of the uninvited guests, however, the party was a complete success and the Freshmen were made to enjoy themselves immensely because of the entertainment furnished them by the hostess. From reports, the other fellows felt a little small over the part they played, tho they try to get some little consolation out of the fact that they hazed a couple of the "freshies" and in a measure evened up with them for something they did not do. "Class spirit" may be alright but sometimes it goes just a little too far.

Another Pioneer Called.

"Uncle" Charley Kirk, as he was so familiarly known, was taken ill about ten days ago at the home of his son, George, at Hardman and brought to town where he could receive proper attention. He had suffered a stroke of paralysis, and on account of advanced years he was unable to rally, and gradually grew weaker and peacefully went to sleep at about 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning, surrounded by a number of his children and grand children.

Funeral services were held on yesterday afternoon at the M. E. church South, Rev. E. P. Warren preaching the sermon, and the remains were buried beside those of his wife, the Masts of Heppner performing the last sad rites.

Charles S. Kirk, was born June 10, 1830, at Louisville in the State of Kentucky, and died at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Mack T. Gentry, in Heppner, on Tuesday morning, September 26, 1911, at the advanced age of 81 years, 3 months and 16 days.

When quite a young man he removed to the state of Missouri and settled at Kirksville. He was married June 14, 1850, at Kirksville, to Caroline Withrow, who was born in 1832 in the state of Pennsylvania and died at the old home on Rhea creek in this county, October 7, 1890. In 1865, with his family, he crossed the plains by ox team to Oregon, Eugene being their destination. There was 109 wagons in the train. He came east of the Cascades in 1875 and settled on Rhea creek, south of Heppner, where he engaged in stockraising and ranching for a number of years, selling out and retiring from the business in 1902.

He was the father of fourteen children, eight of whom are now living. These are Jesse Kirk, of Heppner; Mildred A. Lee of Junction, Ore.; Fannie A. Howard of Junction, Ore.; Leahy J. Hedrix of Copperfield, Ore.; Lydia M. Dodson of Joseph, Ore.; John T. Kirk of Waterman, Ore.; Geo. W. Kirk of Hardman, Ore.; and James L. Kirk of Heppner. Besides these he leaves 42 grand children and 26 great grand children.

He was a member of Heppner Lodge No. 69, A. F. & A. M. and had been a Mason for a long number of years, having joined in Missouri.

Victor R. Anderson.

Victor Robert Anderson was born in Paxi county, Kansas, January 11, 1883 and was brought to Morrow county, Oregon, the same year by his parents, both of whom preceded him across the mystic river. He died at the family home on Eight Mile, September 17, 1911, after an illness of more than three years with a loathsome disease.

Victor was a noble Christian young man with many charming graces, having been brought up in a Christian home, the grandest institution of earth. He was baptized in infancy, and was confirmed in the Lutheran church at the age of 16. He was a firm believer in the Christian life, and patiently suffered the will of God to the day of his demise.

Everything possible was done for his comfort and to bring about a recovery.

The funeral services were conducted last Wednesday at the Swedish Lutheran church by Rev. E. P. Warren of Heppner, in the presence of a large concourse of people. The church was beautifully decorated; there was a rich profusion of flowers in evidence, prepared by kind and loving friends. The services were short and impressive.

He was laid to sleep beside his father and mother in the silent city of the dead.

"We shall sleep but not forever; There will be a glorious dawn. We shall meet to part no never On the Resurrection morn."
