One Reason Enough.
"Why do we favor the election of United States senators by popular vote?" is one of the questions given by the national lecturer for discussion in the granges in April. Why? Because the people would like to get a chance to keep such men out of the senate as some there have been shown to be, and they would do it too.

Musical History Club.
The pupils of Miss Lena Mertz met last Thursday evening and formed a club for the purpose of studying musical history, biographies of the great composers, etc., during the summer vacation. The plan of the club, which is known as the "Monsiko Circle," is to meet each Thursday afternoon at the teacher's home for the purpose of studying, and on the fourth Thursday of each month a musical program will be rendered by the members, and light refreshments served. The officers elected were as follows: Miss Lena Mertz, president; Miss Hope Nettleton, vice president; Miss Ruth Johnson, secretary; Miss Mignon Martin, treasurer.
The motto chosen was "Train your minds as well as your fingers." The colors are cardinal red and silver, and the flower red carnation. Anyone not a member of the class is cordially invited to join the Circle.

No. 15 of the Delachmut little homes changed ownership last week. Real estate is holding its own here and promises to boom before long.

ROCKWOOD.
ROCKWOOD, OR., August 1, 1906—On Sunday, July 29th, we organized a Sunday school with Mrs. Eva Crockett as superintendent, May Lovelace, secretary; Dora Stockton, treasurer; Miriam Brown, librarian, and Vern Covert as organist. A sum of $1.50 was raised and a committee appointed to raise the balance of the money needed to secure Sunday school supplies which will be forthcoming and ready for use on next Sunday at 10 a. m., the time fixed by the school as the hour for the school each Sabbath. There will be preaching each alternate Sunday immediately following the Sunday school. To all these services the community is cordially invited. We wish the parents could have seen the thirty or more happy children who greeted us on the 29th. Come and help in shaping the destiny of your dear ones.

LUSTEDS.
The farmers are nearly through haying in this vicinity.
Geo. Lusted and family spent Tuesday visiting friends in Gresham.
Will Phelps, who for several years was the superintendent of the Bull Run head works, spent his vacation at Mr. and Mrs. George Lusted's.
A very pretty wedding took place at Ivy Home at high noon on July 29th when Miss Ethel Long and Mr. Ormsby were united in marriage, Reverend Nuttley officiating. After a sumptuous wedding dinner the young couple departed for their future home in Washington county.
J. B. Lent and family returned to Portland after a two-weeks' visit on their farm. They will remain in Portland a few days and then return to Junction City where he is engaged as principal of the school.
Mrs. Johns was visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Altman on Sunday.
Max Davies was a pleasant caller at E. D. Hamilton's Saturday evening.
C. Altman and wife were guests of his brother, B. C. Altman, last week.
Mrs. J. Lent and daughter, Jean, and Mrs. E. Hamilton paid Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Altman a pleasant call recently.
The Multnomah Grange, No. 71, will give a picnic on the 25th of August.
Grangers are expected to be present, and invite their friends. They will meet at the Pleasant Home Hall and go from their to the grove.

TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT.
Bon Ton Tailoring Company
Lease Woodward's Hall.

A custom tailoring establishment on a large scale is assured to Montavilla.
The Bon Ton Tailoring Company has secured a three-year lease, with an option of five years, on the three-story building known as Woodward's Hall, and operations will be begun within twenty days. A reporter for The Herald interviewed Manager Rybke and he confirmed the report. He stated that the new concern would employ eighty men and forty women and girls, and that upwards of two hundred and twenty-five agencies would be established on the coast. These agencies would simply take orders for suits, and when a sufficient number of orders had accumulated at a given point an expert cutter and fitter would be sent direct from the house to take the measurements, and this man would do the cutting.
Mr. Rybke said that it was practically impossible for one man to do a good fitting job from another man's measurement, as every tailor has certain marks and signs that would be intelligible only to himself. They expect to compete with eastern houses, and by reason of their greater facilities, to do better and cheaper work.
In answer as to whether or not the company would operate a boarding house for its employees Mr. Rybke said, "Assuredly not. Our married employees will seek homes of their own, and it will be up to Montavilla to take care of the single ones. We will use every endeavor to have our workmen who have families buy their own homes in the Villa, as by that means they would be less likely to shift about, and we could better depend on their staying with us. We consider Montavilla an ideal location for our plant for more reasons than one, and do not believe we will have occasion to regret our choice."

Additional Montavilla Items

V. Herman, who is working in the shirt factory of Fleischner & Mayer, was laid off last Monday together with the other 300 employees on account of an accident to the electric motors.
Messrs. Clyde Henderson, Raymond Daniels and A. E. Herman and Misses Rocky, Day and Butler enjoyed an excursion on Clear Creek last Sunday.

Fred Granger, V. L. and Alvin Stone, Earl Bryson, Roscoe Yarnell, Ed Diller and V. Herman spent Saturday night and Sunday at the junction of Eagle Creek and Clackamas River, where they spent an enjoyable time fishing and at target practice.

Mrs. Feida Nephus, daughter and sister, Miss Feltman, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. E. A. Herman last Sunday.

E. A. Herman came home with a long face Monday noon. The engine broke down at the gravel pit, and in consequence thereof a number of the men were laid off.

O. L. Connor, Montavilla's popular barber, gave us a surprise last Monday.
Ask him what it was.

Ed Littlepage of Gresham and John Larson of Pleasant Home were guests at Hotel Herman last Monday.

Barringer is trying his best to wear the new bottom of his chair out.

Montavilla is very fortunate in having an up-to-date millinery store. Burbank and Schumann have built up a large business and are now arranging to enlarge the business this fall.

HULBURT.
The three-year-old son of C. C. La Valley is quite sick.
Mrs. Glen Vandever is helping her sister Constance with the house work.
Their mother was injured from falling out of a cherry tree, but is recovering.
F. Emily has sufficiently recovered from his hunting trip to be up again.
A. P. Hill left for Portland Monday to attend business again. His wife and daughter will stay up a couple of weeks longer.
H. B. Perkins is much improved.
His daughter, Mrs. Jackson, of Fairview, visited with them last week.
Miss Mary Perkins is at home.

Improvement League Meeting.

The Improvement League held its regular weekly meeting at the office of the secretary on Monday evening.
Routine business was transacted and reports of committees heard. The committee on railroad station reported that it had been decided to circulate a petition and that the same was being done.
The committee on improvement of Hibbard street reported that a petition asking the city council to improve the same by grading, sidewalk and surfacing with screened gravel had been signed by a majority of the property owners, and would be presented to the council at its meeting on August 1st.

The committee on improvement of Villa avenue reported progress, and asked for further time, which was granted.
The question of what had become of "clean up day" was talked over, but no suggestion as to what the proper method of rousing it from its lethargy was advanced.

Montavilla Tent Dwellers.

The "tent fever" has struck Montavilla full force. There have been a few pioneers who have been enjoying the fresh air afforded by tents as sleeping apartments for some months past, but now they are to be seen everywhere.
Nineteen were counted in a radius of only four or five blocks. They are of all types,—large tents and small ones, "boughten" and home-made, canvas and sheeting, white, striped and brown.
Even the youngsters have caught the fever, and pieces of carpets, matting and gunny sacks are brought into requisition to enable them to follow the fad of their elders. Naturally the "cold chilly winds of November" will drive the majority of the tent-dwellers back to the warmth of plastered walls, but there are several who have become so infatuated with out-door life that they have announced their intention of remaining right along through the winter months.

David Lemerson has bought two lots on Alberta and Nineteenth streets at Alberta where he will build a home.

W. J. Smith, captain of the Portland Cricketer Club, will, with his team, leave for Victoria, B. C., on the 18th where they will compete with teams from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia.

Arthur Vorheese is ill.

C. E. Rider's mother, sister and family, of Chicago, are visiting with him this week.

Albert Nelson is expecting a visit from his eldest son of Minnesota.

Those pictures cost but a few cents when you trade at McCaslin's, the Central Store.

Ed Larson is building a new bungalow on Hibbard street near Villa avenue.

Dr. Deveny has managed to secure a fine set of double court tennis for the girls of Montavilla.

Mrs. Janie Brown, of Coburg, Ore., is having her house papered and painted. J. F. Lyons & Son, of Coburg, are doing the work.

Miss Martha Weeks is assisting with the work at the hotel.

F. E. Dougherty is suffering from a bone felon on his thumb.

The barn of Arthur Gray, on the Base Line road, burned down last Thursday night. The barn was filled with hay and was a total loss.

Miss Anna Metzger returned home Sunday after a few days' visit with Miss Pearl Lindsey at Gresham.

Miss Anna Shannon Monroe of Chicago and Miss E. Monroe, daughters of Mrs. J. P. Farmer, are visiting with their mother who is recreating at Seaside, Ore.

F. A. Willard and daughters are taking an outing at Seaside for a few days.

At the M. E. Church next Sunday Rev. J. P. Farmer will preach at 11 a. m. The subject will be "The Religion that Saves and the Religion that Unsavies." In the evening his subject will be "The Peacemaker of the Plain." A vesper service will constitute part of the program for the evening.
