ANOTHER STOCKING BANK.

Forgetting that she had concealed $257, the savings of many years in her stocking, Miss Ora York, a waitress at Cedar Point, the Ohio summer resort, put that article of apparel in her laundry package and sent it to the washerwoman. She remembered about it the next day and made a hurry-up trip to the washerwoman's home, the woman said she never saw the money. Miss York put the matter in the hands of the police, who have been unable to recover the money.

At the same resort a few days previous Mrs. Taylor with her several grown daughters on leaving the hotel went to the clerk to pay for the rooms which they had occupied and on opening her wallet was astonished to find that some sneak thief had taken $300 in greenbacks for which she could not hold the hotel responsible. Miss York should have had her money in the bank at that place helping her to earn more. Mrs. Taylor should have left all her money with her home bank and carried a travelers cheque which the sneak thief would have been as particular to leave as was he the wallet.

The FIRST STATE BANK pays 4 per cent interest on time deposits and sells travelers cheques which will be cashed for their face by any bank, hotel, railroad, or express office, steamship company, in this country or abroad. If you are going away from home or travel you should have a supply before you start. Bear in mind these cheques will be cashed by entire strangers with on identification other than your signature.
