Emmet Welling Celebrates Birthday

Master Emmet Welling entertained a number of little friends last Thursday, August 23d, in honor of his eighth birthday. Blowing soap bubbles was one of the much enjoyed games and each little one received a pipe at the end of the game. A birthday cake with candles was an interesting feature of the dinner. Animal cakes and other refreshments made the party one long to be remembered.

Ralph Neibauer Kills Bear.

About four weeks ago Ralph Neibauer of Orient discovered that a good-sized bear was stealing large quantities of fruit from his orchard, thereby breaking a number of his trees down. From that time on Mr. Neibauer, with gun loaded, commenced a tiresome vigil for

Mr. Bruin. Bruin, however, had ideas of his own and concluded that it was not safe to be in the orchard when man and gun were in evidence so stayed mostly in the woods until last Thursday when about dusk he again showed up in the orchard to his own downfall, and the entire satisfaction of Mr. Neibauer, who received a goodly sum for the dressed carcass of her bearskin in Portland the next day.

Louis Weinhard Fined.

Louis Weinhard was arrested last Monday night by Marshal G. W. Metzger and arraigned before Recorder H. L. St. Clair on a charge of retailing liquor without a license for same. The defendant waived examination and was placed under $100 bail for his appearance at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, August 22. The attorney for defendant, not putting in an appearance, the case was adjourned to Thursday morning at 10:30, at which time it was again adjourned until 1 p. m. of that day, when the case came on for hearing. The town of Gresham was represented by Timothy Brownhill, and Dufur and Riddell, of Portland, H. H. Riddell taking active charge of the case. The defendant was represented by attorney Beck of Portland. After a complete review of the case by the two attorneys, the recorder decided that defendant was guilty as charged and fined him $20.

The above case was the outcome of L. Weinhard refusing to obey the edict of the town council who had refused to permit him to retail liquor in the Wirtz building because of the remonstrance signed by many citizens requesting that the case be kept out of the residence district of the town.

SWEDISH LUTHERANS HOLD A CONVENTION

Will Be Attended By Leading Ministers From Three States.

Location of Proposed College Will Be One of the Main Subjects.

The Columbia Conference of the Swedish Lutheran Augustana Synod of North America will meet at Gresham, Oregon, during Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, August 29th to Sept. 1st inclusive. This conference represents the Swedish Lutherans in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and British Columbia. The following named preachers are expected to be present at this conference meeting: Rev. Martin L. Larson, of Seattle, president; Rev. G. E. Rydquist, of Astoria, secretary; Rev. C. J. Reinhard, of Portland, treasurer; Rev. J. Jaspersen, of Spokane, Rev. N. J. W. Nelson, of Moscow, Idaho, vice president; Rev. Rupert Swanson, of Vancouver, B. C., Dr. G. A. Anderson, of Mt. Vernon, Wash., Rev. G. Bergman, of Bellingham, Wash., Rev. V. N. Thoren, of Everett, Wash., Rev. C. E. Frisk, of Tacoma, Rev. S. C. Hawkins, of Olympia, Wash., Rev. B. F. Bington, of Marshfield, Ore., B. S. Nystrom, of Hockinson, Wash., and Stuart F. Olson, of Portland. A number of lay delegates are expected to be present.

The convention is called to discuss our mission interests within our territory. The question of special interest at this meeting is the location of a college for the Swedish Lutherans of the above mentioned territory. There has been several bids for this college. Tacoma offered 10 acres of land and $3000, Moscow, Idaho, six acres of land and $3000, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, 10 acres of land and $25000 on condition that the conference shall raise $75000. A wealthy man has offered $100,000 to the conference on the condition that the college shall bear his name.

The conference has three centers of Swedish Lutherans, Seattle, Spokane and Portland. The Seattle territory has a majority of ministers, the Portland has a majority of laymen, but Spokane has the most grit. It will be of interest to know how the question of locating and building the college shall be decided, of course the Portland and Seattle centers will object to have our school located so far east. If we had a bid of some importance from the neighborhood of Portland, the college would most probably be located there, especially if the $100,000 would be available for the one place as well as the other. The lay delegates will most probably have to decide this question. Meetings will be held in the Swedish Lutheran Church, east of Gresham, Sp. m. August 29th, 9:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. on August 30, 31, and Sept. 1st. Our meetings are open to all our friends in this community. The proceedings of the conference meetings will be reported to the Beaver State Herald.

Death of Maud M. Embury.

The funeral of Maud M. Embury occurred at Pleasant Home on Wednesday last, Pastor Nutley of Gresham officiating. Deceased came to Oregon from Canada last April, accompanied by her mother, hoping to recover her health. She was unable to recover from the effects of a recent operation. She was a woman of excellent character, a nurse by profession and very self-sacrificing.

She was born in Canada in 1880, and leaves a mother, brother and two sisters, Mrs. Marony of Kelso, and Mrs. Waldemar Bankus of Portland.

Granges May Have Traveling Libraries

The granges of Multnomah county have within their power to obtain from the State Commission fine traveling libraries by making application to the State Library Commission at Salem.

Traveling Library No. 42, with 58 fine books, comprising a splendid range of book suited to the farm and household, has just been secured by Milwaukie Grange and last Saturday the lecturer, Mrs. Mary Detchell, put into circulation. This places a great variety of books within the reach of the farmers for the asking. An appropriation has made all this possible, so that the farmer and his family are brought in touch with the outside world. There is no community in Oregon that may not be provided with all the books that they may desire. It is urged that the grange is the best medium through which the circulation of these books may be brought about better than through any other means. In the collection is a wide variety, and farmers may select what is best suited for their use and instruction.
