HARVEST FESTIVAL IN PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, State Lecturer, Gives Eloquent Address.

Judge Caples, B. Lee Paget, and Other Workers Are Present.

Last Saturday was a gala day at Pleasant Valley, early in the morning Worthy Master, H. W. Snashall, and his assistants met at the hall where the Pleasant Valley Grange holds forth and commenced preparation for the day's festivities. A closed session was held during the forenoon, when more or less business pertaining to the order was transacted, and four candidates initiated. At noon teams were sent to Sycamore to meet the visitors who had been invited to attend and take part in the afternoon and evening exercises. After a sumptuous feast, spread by the ladies of the Grange, all repaired to the main hall where the exercises were held at 2 p. m. The worthy master called the grange to order and all present were entertained with a splendid selection on the piano by Mrs. Mark Kronenberg, after which Judge J. F. Caples, of Portland, was introduced. In his usual pleasing way the Judge spoke of Multnomah county as he found it over 40 years ago. Speaking of the grange he said, "from the time the Patrons of Husbandry was organized in 1871 until the present time no order has done more for the good of the rural communities than they". The Judge also spoke of Pleasant Valley as he first saw it, "Then an occasional donation land claim, now no part of Oregon offers more promise than this beautiful valley and

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON CAPITAL BEHIND SCHEME TO BOOM FAIRVIEW

Lots Are Now Selling Fast—Brick Block, Electric Lights, Newspaper and Bank Planned.

C. C. Vaughn, the famous San Francisco real estate dealer, has secured an option on the entire townsite of Fairview, and one among his first sales is 100 x 150 feet to California parties, to be improved by a modern two-story brick building, with 150-foot frontage on Main street to be occupied by a bank and real estate office, a newspaper, a drug store, tailor shop, barber shop, and hotel office. The rear end up stairs is to be improved as a first-class modern hotel of not less than forty rooms. The balance of the building will be improved and used as circumstances require. One among the many deals pending is that of a shoe factory which, if established, will bring a large payroll to Fairview. Another thing of great importance to Fairview is the water, electric light and sewer systems, which will be installed throughout the townsite at the earliest opportunity. Fairview is now looked upon as the most desirable place in the state for an

M. RICKERT, REPRESENTING THIS PAPER, IS MEETING WITH SUCCESS

We beg to call the attention of our readers to the fact that Mr. M. Rickert of Hurlburt is the official representative of Beaver State Herald, and is empowered by the management to solicit for subscriptions, job printing, and advertising, and to collect throughout any section of the territory over which this paper circulates. Mr. Rickert is meeting with a warm welcome everywhere he goes and speaking for him as well as the editor, we wish to thank our people for their kindly consideration and patronage of the paper. In the future, as in the past, we shall try our best to make the Beaver State Herald the best and most popular home weekly to be found in the State of Oregon.

Gibbs-Morgan Wedding.

Miss Elizabeth Fannie Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morgan, who reside on the old Crider farm two miles east of Gresham, was married to Mr. Frank E. Gibbs of Gresham last Monday, August 27th, at 1:30 p. m., at Portland, by Justice of the Peace Fred L. Olson.

Frank, as he is popularly called, is an old-time citizen of this community, having spent the better part of his life here, and is known among his many friends as a bright, intelligent and industrious gentleman.

Miss Morgan was born and raised in Ontario, Canada, and came to this country with her parents about three years ago, settling near Troutdale, where for two years she worked as clerk and assistant in the store and family of A. Fox. Miss Morgan is an accomplished vocalist, having sung in the M. E.

Church choir at Troutdale for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs are now at home to their friends at their residence on Roberts avenue.

Gresham's New M. E. Church.

The Oregonian of the 27th published a fine picture of the new M. E. Church as it will appear when completed some time in November. Its extreme dimensions will be 50 x 65 feet with an imposing tower 70 feet high. The auditorium will contain 235 seats on an inclined floor. The lecture room will be 21 x 30 and will seat 110. The two rooms will be connected by folding doors on rolling partitions, and can, when necessary, be converted into one room. The walls will be 16 feet high and the ceiling 25 feet above the floor. The concrete foundation is finished and work on the frame will be pushed as fast as men and money can do it.

Many Return from Vacations.

The exodus of vacationists from the mountain and seaside resorts has commenced. Among those returning from the mountains are J. W. Shattuck and family, Lewis Shattuck and family, Dr. F. A. Short, Mrs. Durrell and family, John Roberts and family, Chas. Merrill and family, Ed. Sieret and family, C. W. Cathey and family, B. W. Emery and family, H. S. Harvey and family, Mrs. T. R. Howitt, daughter, and Miss Rowley and others whose names we have not learned. Those from the seacoast were Ed. Metzger, John Clananah and family, R. R. Carlson and family, Dr. J. P. Powell and family, Mrs. J. P. Forrester and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. Leslie and Mrs. Alva Hevel.

See the ball game between Gresham and the West Ends of Portland next Sunday.
