When trading with merchants advertising in this paper tell him you read his ad. in the Beaver State Herald.

Dr. J. P. Powell, an old and respected citizen of Gresham, cheered us up a little this week. It is always a pleasure to receive a visit from the old-time settler. Her stories of the trials and hardships of pioneer life are always entertaining and instructive. The doctor, however, is very much of an optimist and has little to say of the sorrows of life, but makes much of its bright side.

J. H. Colt of Eagle Creek, an old townsman and friend of F. B. Stuart at Little Falls, Minn., paid us a visit this week.

Subscribe for The Herald.
