

LEWIS SHATTUCK

Formerly of Shattuck Brothers and of the Gresham Trading & Packing Company, SUCCESSOR TO GRESHAM TRADING & PACKING CO.,

GRESHAM, - - - OREGON

ANNOUNCEMENT

I beg to inform you that I have bought the entire stock and good will of the Gresham Trading & Packing Company and will conduct a first-class General Merchandise Store at the same stand as occupied by the above firm.

I will endeavor to attend to your wants only in an upright and business like manner, selling you only the BEST GOODS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. Having been identified with the business interests of Gresham for the past 13 years, I am in a position to know your wants and will always stand ready to make good any transaction that is made at this place. I trust you will see your way clear to give me a part, at least, of your patronage.

Thanking you for your patronage in the past and soliciting a continuance of the same, I beg to remain,

Yours Respectfully,
Lewis Shattuck.

Telephone and Mail Orders

will be given our special attention.

Call us up and let us know your wants.

Deliveries made every afternoon and without extra charge.

Rubber Goods, Umbrellas, Flannels, Woolens, Underwear, Etc.

FLOUR, FEED, ETC.

We Are in Line with All Seasonable Goods

STORE CLOSED ON SUNDAY! Our clerks need and shall have a Sunday's rest. Anything urgent will be attended to.

SUMMER SEASON

Brings a demand for Lunch Goods, Soft Drinks, Lemons, Oranges and Candies

We carry a new and fresh line of the above, also

CIGARS, TOBACCO, PIPES, ETC.

D. M. ROBERTS, Prop.
GRESHAM, OREGON

Swetland's Ice Cream and Soft Drinks

Served every Saturday and Sunday

Mrs. W. J. Wirtz

Her Ice Cream Parlors on Powell Street
GRESHAM ORE.

Wanted

10 Butchers, Helpers and Laborers.

Union Meat Company,
TROUTDALE, ORE.

Horses

E. Smith will arrive in Gresham on or about Oct. 5th with a band of broke and unbroke horses.

Watch the date.

is no place like Oregon to which he will soon return.

Stamps appear to be cheaper than formerly. Ask Mrs. McColl about it.

Mrs. J. A. Johns, formerly of Pleasant Home, now of Portland, has again placed us under obligations to her. It is a pleasure to hear from such staunch friends of The Herald.

Messrs. Whitney & Anderson, contractors and builders of Cleone, dropped in to see us the other day while on their way home from Portland.

Hoof Ointment for sore feet, for sale at Hart's.

Any pupils who failed to pass in any examinations last year will be given an opportunity to try again next Monday. Report to the principal.

Headquarters for Books, Tablets, Pencils and Inks at Gresham Drug Store.

NOTICE—Notice is hereby given to the Gresham Grange No. 270 that the next regular meeting, Oct. 13, will be known as Busy Day. The brothers are to appear in working clothes and the sisters in calico. Members who appear in Sunday garb will be subject to a fine. At the lecturers hour each member is kindly asked to respond to the roll call with something for the Good of the Order.

M. S. RUEGG
Lecturer.

Monday the school bell rings. Gresham Drug Store will supply your wants.

Mrs. Jack Robinson, of Lewiston, Idaho, and sister, Mrs. Frank Heiney, were welcome callers at this office on Wednesday. Mrs. Robinson is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heiney.

Fine rubber-tired buggies for sale at Hart's.

J. P. Freeman is carrying on Route 2, for E. L. Thorp during the latter's vacation.

There will be a meeting of the teachers of the Gresham public and high school at the schoolhouse Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Mr. Bert Aslurst has taken up quarters at Mrs. A. Gordon's and is planning for the year's work.

Miss Lottie Allen, of Lebanon, spent last Sunday with old friends, Theodore Brugger and family and E. Schwelher and family.

Mrs. Minnie Dunn and Florence Fancher made a trip to Seaside on Sunday. They report a very enjoyable day.

Si Allen was a Gresham visitor on Sunday.

C. S. Chase, of Sandy, was in town on Tuesday.

M. Rand, of Dilley has rented Major Love's place near Troutdale, and with his family will reside there in the future.

Major Love and M. Rand were pleasant callers at this office on Tuesday.

Miss Agnes Sweet returned Monday from a short stay.

Dr. A. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. Church, was appointed by Bishop McDowell to preach the annual missionary sermon at this coming session of Conference. The sermon will be preached at Sunnyside M. E. Church, Friday afternoon, Sept. 28.

SIEFER STATION

Ben Mathews has been hauling lumber for his new barn which he expects build soon.

Miss Bertha Weddeler has been on the sick list but we are glad to say she has quite recovered.

Miss Ruby Cook has returned from the hopfields. The late rain will probably bring more home.

Ed. Siefer is having some hay baled.

Mrs. Johnson has been very sick but is recovering.

Miss Webber, of Yaquina, is visiting at J. C. Elliott's.

Mr. Sumner, an old resident of Sunnyside, was buried at Damascus Tuesday.

Mrs. Leon Seifer and daughter are picking hops at Mr. Kingsbury's.

Sale Now On!

Come early and take your pick of the following:

- 12 Milch Cows
- 1 Bull
- 2 Horses
- 1 31-4 in. Mitchell Wagon
- 1 Empire Cream Separator (350 pounds).

Two miles east of Gresham.
CHAS. KANE.

School Opens Monday!

You Will Need Supplies

School Books

THE RIGHT KINDS ENOUGH FOR ALL

We have the Largest Line TABLETS, PENCILS, PAPER, ETC. Ever brought to Gresham

Gresham Drug Store
Cor. Powell and Main Sts.

Announcement.

TO OUR PATRONS AND PUBLIC GENERALLY:

Having purchased the interests of F. W. Gorman, who on account of sickness has returned to his former home in Minneapolis, we take this opportunity to thank our many friends and patrons for the pleasant and prosperous business of our first year.

In the future we will endeavor to serve our customers both old and new with the greatest courtesy. We shall strive to supply their wants in the most cordial and profitable manner, keeping their interests foremost in our minds, as their interests are our interests and without an agreeable cooperation a business cannot exist.

As we have come to make this our future home, we wish to be counted among your many worthy citizens.

Therefore, thanking you again for your past favors, we remain,
Yours Very Respectfully,

F. B. STUART & CO.

At the PEOPLE'S CASH STORE,

MAIN STREET, GRESHAM, ORE.

Special Bargain Window

ALL KITCHEN UTENSILS IN MY EAST WINDOW

At From 3c to 10c. The Chance will not last long

Mrs. I. McCOLL,

Postoffice Building, Gresham, Ore.

C. L. Crenshaw,

Tinner and Plumber

Make and Repair all Kinds of Tin Work, Plumbing a Specialty. Country Trade Solicited
GRESHAM, OREGON.

CARLSON & EMERY.

Gresham, Ore. Undertakers and Embalmers

A Complete Stock of Coffins and Furnishings always on Hand.

HEARSE FURNISHED IF DESIRED CALLS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

GRESHAM REAL ESTATE COMPANY

Are Making A Record on Sales

Their 5-10 and 20 acre tracts and larger farms are selling rapidly and at good values. Those wishing to sell cannot do better than to place their property in our hands.

D. M. ROBERTS, Pres.

GRESHAM, ORE.

"Economy is the Key to Success"

and that is the reason so many trade with us; they like the saving of a penny or a nickel on small purchases and 10c to 20c on large ones. This saving counts for a good deal at the end of a year and goes a long way toward a new suit for father or a new dress for mother.

AND YET YOU ARE GETTING THE BEST POSSIBLE VALUES FOR THE MONEY

JUST COMPARE OUR STOCK AND PRICES

Groceries and Hardware
Flour, Feed, Confectionery,
Tobacco and Cigars, School Supplies,
Lumber and Shingles

D. W. METZGER, New Powell St. Store
GRESHAM, OREGON.

GRESHAM LOCALS

FOR SALE—Cheap, one set of double chain harness nearly all new, and strong. M. Rickert, R. F. D. No. 2, Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. King, recently of Gresham but later of Vancouver, Wash., have moved to Sunnyside Portland where they will reside with their daughter. Mr. King's health is very poor and the change is made for his benefit.

Mrs. Minnie Dunn and children are visiting her cousin, Mrs. Cora Carroll.

CARD OF THANKS

F. L. Rugg and family feel very thankful to the many friends who so kindly assisted them during their recent sickness, and desire to express their gratitude through the columns of this paper.

M. E. RUGG.

When in Portland get your lunch at D. A. Hart's, 212 Fourth, near Salmon.

H. L. Stone was doing business in Gresham this week.

Rev. W. E. Potwine, of Hawaii, called on Mrs. I. McColl on Friday. He is an old friend of the family.

Frank Wostell has accepted a position in Portland.

Mine host, Merrill, of Hotel Edel Brau, was doing business in Gresham this week.

Next Wednesday the Rebekah Lodge of Gresham will celebrate the 55th anniversary of the order. A good program has been arranged, light refreshments will be served, and if you are looking for a good time, and a member, be sure to attend. If you are not a member, you ought to be.

Timothy Brownhill has returned from a trip to Eastern Oregon where he found a complete failure in crops and many farmers thinking of western Oregon as a place where they can depend upon good crops every year. Mr. Brownhill left this morning for Newport where he will attend the Oregon Press Association.

FOR SALE — Brown Swiss Bull Helmeke No. 678. For further particulars write or call on Andrew Brugger, Melville Farm, Gresham, Ore.

Every day is the day to have your feed chopped at the Gresham Feed Mill.

Steven Black and Ed Smith, old-time friends and prosperous farmers of Sherman County, were visitors at The Herald office this week.

D. M. Roberts could stand the strain no longer so he and the purp bled off to the mountains where they expect to get a taste of oldtime fun hunting.

FOR SALE—Two thoroughbred Jersey, yearling bulls. Can be seen at my place, five miles east of Gresham, Ore. B. C. Altman.

Frank Willard, E. E. Epton, C. C. Mulkey and George Walley, all of Montavilla, were doing business in Gresham this week. While here Mr. Willard purchased two fine cows of J. N. Clananhan.

Harry Huxley, our enterprising Gresham painter, is taking a short vacation at Cazadero and is assisting his brother with his prune drying.

Our fieldhouse agent, M. Rickert, was calling on the people this week south of Gresham, in Clackamas County, and found a good response. Especially are the people of Damascus to be congratulated upon their increasing interest in our paper which we desire to be representative of all this section.

J. B. Emery is visiting his nephew, B. W. Emery. Mr. Emery has been postal clerk on a boat from Portland to Astoria for over twenty years.

Mrs. M. M. White, of Salem, is visiting with Mrs. R. R. Carlson.

All work guaranteed at Hart's.

Miss Verne Burkhardt, of Albany, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Daring and will accompany them on their trip to their homestead on the Siletz. They expect to leave Saturday, the 22nd, and will be gone all winter.

Mrs. Ford Metzger was visiting friends at Anderson this week.

Ed. Sleret, Wm. Welch and John Sieret are spending a few weeks hunting in the Cascades, near Lebanon.

Mrs. R. R. Carlson was doing business in the metropolis on Wednesday.

No delays, feed rolled or chopped while you wait at the Gresham Feed Mill.

Get your trespass notices at the Herald office. Mail orders promptly attended to.

A. B. Elliott, Powell Valley's enterprising merchant, passed through Gresham early Friday morning on his way to Portland.

The Ladies Aid Society have disposed of about 120 tickets up to this time for the lecture to be given, tonight by Dr. F. B. Short, at Grange Hall.

E. L. Thorp is taking a much needed vacation from his mail route and is spending his time on the reportorial staff of The Oregonian with headquarters at their east side office.

Schnyder C. Jones recently sent in some fine samples of quinces grown on his place near this city.

We are indebted to Donald McMillan for some splendid samples of farm produce grown on his farm near Cedarville. The apples, plums, carrots, and onions are especially good.

Grandma Linnemann surprised us this week with a present of pears which we do not care to undertake to describe. They, however, weigh considerably over a pound apiece and fairly melt in ones mouth.

We are in receipt of a letter from E. J. Gradin written while aboard steam-Caronia. Also copies of the daily paper printed and published aboard the ship. Mr. Gradin expresses a great deal of surprise at the growth of New York City, and the evidence of growth on every hand, yet he feels that there

Just Suppose

You buy one of those NOBBY NEW FALL SUITS of Welch. They are made right, fit right and priced right.

Suits, $7.45 to $25.00

IF NOT RIGHT WELCH MAKES IT RIGHT

WELCH, THE AMERICAN CLOTHIER,
221-223 Morrison Street, Corner First
PORTLAND, - - OREGON.