Bacon-Gibbons Wedding.

Mr. Wesley S. Bacon and Miss Jessie G. Gibbons were united in bonds of wedlock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Gibbons, at Bull Run, on Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1906.
A number of relatives and intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony pronounced by Rev. C. A.

Nutley, of Gresham, after which a sumptuous wedding dinner was enjoyed, and the usual shower of rice bestowed on the young pair as they started on their wedding journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Bacon were the recipients of a number of useful presents.
Upon their return they expect to reside in Sandy.

FAIRVIEW

Misses May Sherwood and Susie Ledbury and Arthur Ledbury accompanied a party of Portland friends on a picnic to Latourelle Falls on Sunday.

W. E. Ellison recently purchased two lots upon which he expects soon to build a residence.

C. C. Vaughn is finding a number of parties interested in his Fairview property.

Mrs. A. T. Axtell and granddaughter, Miss Edith McMillip, have returned from their Seaside outing.

The concert given Thursday evening at the Presbyterian Church by Mrs.
Lain Dahl Miller, accompanied by Mr.
H. Milligan, was a decided success and benefit for the church.

J. W. Burrow, of Pence, Neb., has been visiting relatives in this community. Mrs. A. O. Jackson is a niece of Mr. Burrow.

Few people realize that Fairview is really undergoing a great change. The comatose condition of the village beautiful is gradually giving way to one of vigor and sprightliness. On every hand is heard the ring of the carpenter's hammer and the buzz of the saw.

The foundation for the big brick block is under way—the brick saved from the old Odd Fellows home, which was bought from Mr. Kronenberg for that purpose, is being put on the ground as fast as men and teams can do the work, and will soon become a part of East Multnomah's first brick block.

A number of Troutdale people have bought lots in Fairview with the expressed intention of making this place their future home. The old-time steer (when speaking of Fairview) is gradually disappearing from the faces of the most earnest individual and one of real pleasure taking its place. On every hand can be seen evidences of the city's future greatness. Business men are planning new stores. A blacksmith is expected soon. By the time the juice is pulling trains into Portland many people will be living in Fairview, and hundreds more wishing they had taken time by the forelock and cast their die with those already here. It will pay you to keep your eye on Fairview.

COTTRELL.

There will be services at the Baptist Church at Cottrell next Sunday at 11 a. m. and also on Sunday, Oct. 7th, there will be an anniversary service and basket dinner. The occasion is the fifth anniversary of the present pastorate.
The pastor, C. A. Nutley, will preach at 11 o'clock and at 2 o'clock a rally meeting will be held at which a number of persons will speak, representing the different departments of the church work. All are cordially invited to come and enjoy the services.

Mr. Hart, who recently bought the Raymond Beagle home property, is improving the same for his use, expecting to move from near Sandy as soon as improvements are completed. A new barn and woodshed are among the improvements and at the present time the house is being weather-boarded. Mr.
Hart and family recently came from Sioux City, Iowa, and are much pleased with the Oregon climate and products.

M. Ball's dryer has nearly finished the season's run on prunes. About sixty orchards have supplied upwards of 40 tons of the green fruit. Mr. Ball expects to dry apples if they come in sufficient quantities the next few weeks.

Mrs. M. Ball has been suffering from a return of rheumatism for a few days but is better at last report.

S. W. Scoville was doing business in Portland last Wednesday.

TROUTDALE

Eastern Multnomah's Hustling Town

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander on the evening of the 19th. Mr. and Mrs.
Alexander left for Tacoma, Wash., on the 23d where they will make their future home.

Misses Georgie and Edith Reynolds, of Portland, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds, on Sunday.

Mrs. Latourelle, of Latourelle Falls, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J.
Larsson, recently.

Mrs. Harvey Hornish, of Heppner, Ore., is visiting with her sister, Mrs.
Peter Gregg.

G. M. Kreis brought in twelve carloads of fine Nebraska corn-fed hogs on the 23d.

Wm. Johnson is giving his house a coat of paint.

The conundrum party given by the Ladies' Aid Society was a grand success. A large number attended.

Mrs. Bert Williams was visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Dixon, at Rooster Rock, Tuesday.

Mrs. S. S. Logan was in Portland on the 25th buying fall goods.

Fred Harlow transacted business in the metropolis on Tuesday.

Dr. Russ, dentist of Montavilla, has an office here and is doing considerable work.

Mr. Good, manager of the Union Meat Co., spent Sunday here.

Milton Fox, manager of Fox's store, had the misfortune to get two ribs fractured by a horse falling with him.

John Brown transacted business here on the 25th.

CORBETT.

F. W. Reed was a business caller in Portland Monday.

Newell Gleason, of Rooster Rock, has purchased the stock of goods from F.
W. and F. E. Reed and will have charge of the telephone and postoffice at Corbett.

Carrie O. Millsap spent Saturday and Sunday in the vicinity of Corbett and organized a Sunday school at Pleasant View and held a service at Corbett Sunday.

Harvey Saunders, who has been spending the summer in Eastern Oregon, returned Saturday.

Misses Ethelyn Smith and May Little-page, who are attending college in Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday at their homes in the vicinity of Corbett.

Corbett has earned quite a reputation as a delightful place for a summer outing during the warm months.

Miss Nellie Masterson has returned home from an extended visit in Portland.

Mrs. Saunders and little daughter have returned from a Portland hospital, the latter much improved in health.

Smith & Burgleson had the misfortune to have a pile-driver capsize, throwing their boiler and engine into the river.

Miss Bertha Henry spent Saturday in Portland.

Miller-Zimmerman Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Jessie May Zimmerman to Thomas C. Miller occurred Wednesday evening, Sept. 12th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Zimmerman, near Fairview, Rev. C. Moys, of Portland officiating in the presence of about forty guests.
Their elegant home was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, roses and potted plants.

The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Kathleen Leonard, of Portland. The bride looked charmingly in cream silk de chine trimmed with tulle and medallion lace, with orange blossoms and carried bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Olive Zimmerman, who wore a pretty dress of white net over pink silk and carried pink carnations.
Her sister, Miss Mabel, was becomingly dressed in white silk and was flower girl. The little sister, Isabel, carried a basket of lilies of the valley and forget-me-nots with asparagus fern, in which rested the wedding ring. She was dressed in blue silk with white lace trimmings. The groom was supported by an uncle of the bride, Andrew Mc-Call, as best man. Many valuable and beautiful gifts were received.

A delicious supper was served after the ceremony.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman and was born here and educated here and at Portland, being a graduate of the Gillie-pie school of oratory, and is especially gifted. She has many warm friends.

The groom is a resident of Springwater and a young man of good standing.

The happy couple left immediately for Portland amid showers of rice and old shoes and will be at home after October 1st, at Springwater, where a neat home awaits them.

SECTION LINE.

Charles Powell and wife, of Portland, were guests at the Ampsiger home the past week.

W. Bradley and wife, of San Jose, Cal., accompanied by their little son and daughter, were visiting at Buckley Grove on Friday and Saturday. Mrs.
Bradley was formerly Miss Laura Hoyt, foster daughter of the late Mrs. E. B.
Van Vlack.

Superintendent Robinson was out on a trip pertaining to school matters on Monday. Miss Fay Robinson accompanied her father and was the guest of Mrs. Buckley.

L. Milem, living near the Reservoir, was held up on Tuesday night by a highwayman near the water gate. Mr. Mil-em got away with a whole skin for which he was thankful.

The good wishes of our center are tendered to Edward Aylsworth for a speedy recovery from his present illness.

Japs are much in evidence digging potatoes in our burg.

Mrs. W. P. Ream is improving from a late illness of neuralgia and la grippe.
