Fairview Grange Holds Interesting All-Day Session.

Fairview Grange No. 344 held its regular all-day session on Wednesday. The meeting was well attended. The name of one new candidate for admission to the Grange was presented.

The principal feature of the noon hour was a chicken-pie dinner with all the accessories that accompany a typical Grange dinner.

Those present from neighboring Granges were Mrs. McKay from Gresham, Mr. Miller from Evening Star, Mrs. Tressler from Rockwood; also Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Bellien from St. Johns and Miss Ervin from Troutdale were present for dinner and remained through the lecture hour.

Worthy Master Davis gave a talk on the "Jute question" which was followed by remarks by Mr. Miller.

Quite a discussion was held upon the question of "How to get the young folk interested in Grange work." No definite conclusion was reached. Next regular day meeting will be held on the first Wednesday in November.

Cleone Assembly of United Artisans held its regular business meeting Saturday night. There was a good attendance and considerable business was transacted. Preparations were made to receive the supreme master who is expected to deliver an address to the public on the evening of October 20th in the Artisan Hall at this place. W. H. Osburn of Rockwood Assembly was a visitor.

Mrs. L. A. Bozarth, of Portland, has come to live with her brother, S. A. John, of this place. Mr. Bozarth is 80 years old but is still spry and active.
