GRESHAM LOCALS

Harold Ross, of St. Helens, who attended the Gresham school last winter, is again in Gresham, having arranged to go through the high school this year. He is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Manning.

D. C. Ross had the misfortune to run his arm in a feed cutter last Saturday, cutting and bruising it badly.

Mrs. O. Blair has sold her grocery store to a Mr. Moore of Portland. She will move to Portland where Andrew will attend business college and Julia will learn millinery.

FOR SALE - Brown Swiss Bull Helms No. 678. For further particulars write or call on Andrew Brugger, Melville Farm, Gresham, Ore.

The Gresham Real Estate Company closed a deal last Monday whereby Andrew Brugger sold to D. C. Ross a 25-acre farm near Gresham, and D. C. Ross sold a house and lot to Mr. Brugger.

Emil Palmquist made a business trip to Portland last Saturday in company with ye scribe.

C. L. Crenshaw has just got in a fine line of heating stoves.

Patrons of the Multnomah & Clackamas County Mutual Telephone Company can now ring up Powell Valley, Orient, and Pleasant Home. Cottrell will soon be on the list, and then, hurrah for Sandy for that enterprising little berg will want what their neighbors have.

FOR SALE - Cheap, one set of double chain harness nearly all new, and strong. M. Rickert, R. F. L. No. 2, Troutdale.

Ed. Schmeer of Troutdale was in Gresham Wednesday. While here he paid this office a pleasant visit. He is contemplating shipping a car of pumpkins within the next few days. Mr. Schmeer is one of Troutdale's most progressive farmers and generally has a goodly supply of farm produce to sell at all times of the year.

F. A. Welch of Pleasant Home was a Gresham visitor this week.

T. R. Howitt had his meat market overhauled this week, and nicely painted. Thomas Brothers did the work.

Stuart & Co. have made some substantial improvements in their store. By removing the partition in the main store room they have added a 20 x 30-foot addition, which has enabled them to nicely display their growing stock. They have also rented the butcher shop and will use it as a grain warehouse.

Henry Kane was a pleasant visitor this week.

FOR SALE - Two thoroughbred Jersey, yearling bulls. Can be seen at my place, five miles east of Gresham, Ore. B. C. Altman.

Mrs. C. W. Doane is recovering from a recent quite severe illness.

Gust Larson's new cottage on Roberts avenue is progressing rapidly.

Walter Stiger, son of John Stiger, while in a tree near his home picking apples, was shot at by a hunter and severely wounded in his right side. His wound though painful is not considered serious and the boy is slowly recovering.

Misses Agnes and Lula Sweet left last Sunday evening for Boise City, Idaho, where Miss Lula has taken a position in Two Small Tracts for Sale.

5 1/2 acres improved, running water, seeded to timothy and clover, on Sandy road, 1-4 mile east of Cleone.

6 1/2 acres, all improved, seeded, 4-room house, well, good fenced garden, orchard, plenty of all varieties of fruit, 1 mile east of Cleone on Sandy road, one mile west of Troutdale. Write or see Major H. W. Love, Troutdale, Ore.

D. M. ROBERTS, Prop.
GRESHAM, OREGON

the St. Luke's Hospital and Miss Agnes will resume her duties as nurse.

On Sunday afternoon Carl Shattuck, a former business man of Gresham, Ore., arrived in town. He spent the remainder of Sunday and Monday forenoon in looking over our town. He was strongly impressed with the location and promised a return visit in the near future. He further stated that was sorry he had not come here before so many changes had taken place. - Wallowa News.

E. Swank of Orient paid this office a pleasant visit this week.

T. L. Anderson of Powell Valley was a pleasant visitor at The Herald office this week.

Fred Hamilton and Mr. Hamlin, Sr., have decided to open a new blacksmith shop at the old Tawney stand.

Wm. Tegart of Cleone was a pleasant visitor this week. He is advertising his final report as administrator in the estate of Francis D. Tegart, deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chalker have returned from a pleasant visit in Portland, Vancouver, and other places of interest.

Mr. Harry Thomas and family arrived Monday from Elgin. Mr. Thomas will make his future residence in Wallowa where he is engaged in painting and paper hanging. - Wallowa News.

Judge John F. Caples, an old and respected citizen, and an able and prominent attorney of Portland was stricken with paralysis in his office left Saturday. He is reported as resting easy and he is entertained for his immediate recovery.

David VanZant and J. Bates of Hurlburt were pleasant visitors at The Herald office last week.

Pat Lynch was in last Saturday and left a big dollar for another year's subscription.

John Freeman made us a pleasant call this week.

W. A. Proctor and wife of Cottrell were recent visitors at the metropolis. On their way back they stopped long enough to shake hands with old friends and permit W. A. to pay us a welcome visit.

WANTED - A school girl to assist in small family for her board and room, no tuition is charged those residing in Gresham. Enquire at Herald office.

Sunday, October 14th, will be Rally Sunday at the Baptist Church, with services at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. Basket dinner between services. The public is invited.

Mrs. Chas. Johnson has been sick in bed a part of the time this week, in consequence whereof many families have been wishing for her speedy recovery. In some instances shortage of bread and doughnuts had something to do with the wish.

Walter C. Burch, Chris Olenburg and Earl Burch left last Monday for a few weeks' work on Mr. Burch's gold mine in the Siskiyou mountains. They expect to do some hunting on the side.

Mr. Nystrom recently met with an accident. While clearing land on his farm in Powell Valley a large piece of bark fell from a burning tree striking him on the left side of the face, injuring the left eye so badly that the sight is doubtless ruined and strong doubts are entertained as to saving the eye.

Miss Mayme Hoss is convalescent and will soon be able to resume her duties. J. C. Manning and J. H. Hoss, her father, have been looking after her route work.

Al Hart has been working almost night and day lately. He has just finished a fine meat wagon for T. R. Howitt.

Miss Lily Culy has a fine homestead in Tillamook county, facing the ocean, upon which she expects to move in the spring.

Miss Janet MacKay, of Melrose, made us a pleasant call on her return from Portland Wednesday.

Lee Ball is active in improving his place on the butte, having recently built a henhouse.

J. R. Hall of Cottrell was a caller at The Herald office this week while doing business in Gresham.

On Thursday morning last week a horse belonging to Lee Ball, on Gresham Heights, fell into an eight-foot well. Help was summoned and after about four hours' work the horse was gotten out alive. Although somewhat injured it will be useful yet. Mr. Turner and Henry and Frank Metzger rendered much appreciated assistance.
