

HARLOW, BLASER & HARLOW

General Merchandise,

TROUTDALE, - OREGON

Dealers in Everything You Want to Buy or Sell

Bread

Bread

Potatoes

We are in the Market for No. 1 Burbank Potatoes at $1 per cwt. Also for

Wood

Want several Cars of No. 1 seasoned Fir, Alder and second-growth Fir.
HARLOW, BLASER & HARLOW.

all kinds of horses to sell or hire this winter.

J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the O. R. & N. R. R., passed through here Tuesday on his way East to transact business.

Howard Davis has gone South for a few weeks vacation, after which he will return to his duties on the farm here.

James Ellison, chief night dispatcher at Tekoa, Wash., paid his brother, W. Ellison, of this place, a short visit on Sunday.

Mrs. D. S. Dunbar was a recent Portland visitor.

R. Frenchie has resigned his position with the Portland Dairy Association here and has gone to work on his farm near Portland. M. Axtell has taken the position.

Frank Ellison has purchased a hack to be used as a stage to accommodate some employees of the Union Meat Co. who reside here.

The ladies of the M. E. church gave a chicken supper Wednesday evening. The proceeds was applied to improving the church property.

Wm. Townsend, who has been taking X-ray treatment for a cancer on his lip, is improving very rapidly and hopes to soon be rid of his trouble.

Rev. W. T. Scott has returned from Newport where he has been attending synod, and on Sunday gave a very interesting report of the Synod, also of Presbytery, which he lately attended at Springwater.

H. C. Campbell was looking after business interests here on Saturday.

Elmer Jenkins and wife, of Portland, visited with friends here over Sunday.

Miss Hattie Stapleton visited friends at The Lakes Sunday.

Mrs. H. W. Mathison and children were Portland visitors Saturday.

Friends of Miss Susie Hall are glad to welcome her back in our midst.

Oral Snover, of Portland, was a visitor here Saturday.

A. L. Stone transacted business in Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. J. Stillion and children visited her mother, Mrs. Clark, of Portland, on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lora Luce, our primary teacher, spent Saturday in Portland.

Misses Myrtle and Edith Jenkins have gone to Portland to spend the winter.

Martin Maultahuf's little son, who had his ankle badly fractured some weeks ago, is able to be around again with the aid of crutches.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church held its regular meeting with Mrs. D. S. Dunbar on Wednesday.

Members of Fairview Grange had a very pleasant meeting on Tuesday evening.

The United Artisans held their regular meeting over Fox & Co.'s store on Saturday evening.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Smith Memorial church held an all-day session Wednesday.

G. H. Herrin, of Portland, was here Tuesday looking after his potato crop.

J. T. Stillion has accepted a position from the O. R. & N. Co. as marker during the construction of a railroad bridge at Troutdale.

Rapid progress is being made on the spur track running from Cedarville to Troutdale and connecting the O. W. P. with the O. R. & N. The company expect to have trains running over this road by Nov. 1st.

The Ladies of Smith Memorial church have purchased a new carpet.

A fine lot of library books arrived here Tuesday for District No. 8.

W. T. Scott and wife transacted business in Portland Wednesday.

This Line of Heaters, Stoves and Ranges has NO EQUAL. Now is the time, This is the Place to Buy
S. S. LOGAN,
Troutdale, Oregon

Union House
LEADING HOTEL IN TROUTDALE
ROOMS AND BOARD
COMMERCIAL TRADE SOLICITED
Satisfaction Guaranteed
Louis Helming Prop.
Main Street Troutdale, Ore.

TROUTDALE

The Union Meat Co. is using oil burners and hence is doing away with wood for fuel.

D. E. Swank has ordered lumber for a new five-room house on his property here.

The grading crew from Latourell passed through here recently on their way to St. John to begin work on the new extension from that place to Troutdale.

Among the recent Portland visitors were Mrs. and Miss Hubbard, Mrs. Timm and Mrs. J. Larsson.

Quite a number of our young folk attended the dance at Latourell Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Buffington, of Portland, were guests of Bert Williams' Sunday.

Rev. C. E. Crandell preached a very interesting sermon here Sunday evening.

Miss Laura Menzies, of Portland, was a recent guest of Mrs. Bert Hoyt, and Mrs. Dan Strebin, of Melrose.

Mr. Weber and family, of Chicago,

O. R. & N. Local Schedule Of Trains

Eastward			Westward
A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	A. M.	P. M.	P. M.
Biggs	Mail	Sp'e	Mail	Port	Port
Local	& Ex	Flyr	& E	Flyr	Local
No. 4	No. 4	Tr. Ar	No. 5	No. 5	No. 7
8:15	8:15	6:15	7:15	8:30	5:00
8:20	8:20	6:20	7:20	8:35	5:05
8:35	8:35	6:35	7:35	8:40	5:10
8:45	8:45	6:45	7:45	8:45	5:15
8:50	8:50	6:50	7:50	8:50	5:20
9:05	9:05	7:05	8:05	8:55	5:25
9:12	9:12	7:12	8:12	9:00	5:32

TROUTDALE MEAT MARKET
Carries a full line of FRESH and CURED MEATS and SAUSAGES, at LOWEST PRICES
"The Proof of the Pudding is in the eating" a trial will convince you of the fact.
G. N. Reynolds Prop. Troutdale, Ore.

FAIRVIEW
An addition is to be made to the O. R. & N. stock yards here. The first shipment of the season was made Tuesday by T. R. Howitt, to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Howitt also expects a large shipment in a few days. He expects to do the largest shipping business ever done here, this season.

Whitney & Anderson
Contractors and Builders
FURNISH ESTIMATES on buildings of all kinds from the ground up. Use Bridal Veil Lumber only and GUARANTEE SATISFACTION.
CLEONE, ORE.

W. W. Ashcraft has been improving his place by an addition to his house; also digging a well.

Whitney & Anderson are just putting the finishing touches on A. L. Turner's residence. Mr. Turner expects to move in as soon as the house is completed.

Axtell & Cree have about completed John Townsend's residence on Sandy road. Mr. Townsend expects to occupy the house as soon as it is completed.

CREE & AXTELL, C. E. CREE F. D. AXTELL
Contractors and Builders
Plans and Estimates on Application.
General Repair Work, Pipe Fitting and Housemoving on Short Notice
CLEONE P. O., (Fairview), OREGON.

Messrs. Campbell and McGaw have erected a building to accommodate a large herd of blooded stock which they expect soon to arrive from Belgium and Spain.

Fox & Co. have lumber on the ground to erect a large warehouse on the O. R. & N. track. As soon as this is completed they expect to build another building to be used for the storing of hay.

A Good Horse
is often ruined by a poor shoer.
Our Reputation
Has been built up by good shoeing
We Guarantee
To shoe your horse just RIGHT
Try us and See.
The Cheapest Shop in Town
QUALITY CONSIDERED
James H. Latham,
TROUTDALE, - OREGON

Several carloads of feed arrived here Tuesday from Eastern Oregon and an almost continual line of teams have been engaged in hauling it away. This looks as though Fairview is surely booming.

Wm. Southerland, with a crew of Japanese, have been clearing the grounds around the depot.

Lumber is on the ground to erect buildings on the Campbell & McGaw farm for the accommodation of the employees.

A. H. Graham, of the Portland Dairy Association, has gone to Alberta, Canada, where he expects to purchase land for raising wheat.

C. C. Vaughn, our rustling real estate man, has gone East to purchase a safe and other fixtures for the bank, which is to be established in the new brick building here.

J. W. Irwin was transacting business here a few days ago.

POWELL VALLEY.
Mrs. E. E. Elliott and Mrs. Simmons and children visited Damascus last Monday.
Mrs. Peterson left for San Francisco

last week where she will join her husband.
Eli E. Elliott spent Tuesday at Eagle Creek with his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elliott.

Jack Luscher is digging his potatoes and reports a better crop than last year. His yield will be the best around here.

Wm. Byers will go to Eastern Oregon in a few days. He expects to ship the largest band of horses ever handled by him. He will have dray, buggy, and

A. FOX, TROUTDALE. FOX & CO. FAIRVIEW.

All Former Prices Maintained

SPECIALS THIS WEEK

- 9 Bars Star Soap for 25c
- 9 Bars Swift's Soap for 25c
- Canned Corn, per dozen, 85c
- 1X Copper Bottom Wash Boiler, size 8, 99c
- Allen & Lewis Extra Standard Oysters, 1-lb. tins, $1.10 per doz.
- Hardwood Toothpicks 2c per package.
- 4-pound tin of Cottolene for 45c

A Full Line of STOVES Just Received