A Herald representative lately had a lantern which failed to burn and he thought it was lacking in ventilation. He took it to the tinner with instructions to attach a ventilator but, like many other seemingly imperfect things in this world, it was found to be in good shape and possessed of the lungs necessary to a well regulated lantern. When the joke was discovered our friend was ready to pay for cigars, candy, oysters, or any other treat demanded but solemnly enjoined upon the tinner not to tell his wife. For further particulars inquire of Timothy Brownbill.

BASE LINE

During the first month of school in District No. 8 the average daily attendance was 20.25. There were seven cases of tardiness and 26 absences. The following pupils were perfect in attendance from date of registration until close of the month: Ferman Wood, Edwin Spahn, Marguerite Michel, Gladys Holgate, Frances and Gladys Bliss, Rosa Coons, Louise Doetsch, Caroline and Nancy Hosner and Lloy and Jesse Lindsay. The importance of regular attendance cannot be too strongly urged upon both parents and pupils. It is a significant fact that the most excellent work thus far been done by pupils who have been in attendance at least nine-tenths of the twenty school days of the month. Miss Minnie Smith, of Latourell, is the teacher and we look forward to a prosperous term.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. John Bliss gave a Halloween party to nine of the No. 8 pupils. The evening was spent in games and was much enjoyed. A dainty lunch was served and the evening passed only too soon.

The Melrose Christian Endeavor social was held at the residence of Donald McKay on Tuesday evening. A good time was enjoyed by all present.

The Rockwood Assembly of Artisans, No. 206, held its regular business meeting Saturday evening, there being a good attendance. Plans were made for a reception to be given in honor of Supreme Master H. S. Hudson on the next social night, Nov. 10th.

George Brown has returned from an extended stay in Eastern Oregon.

Jos. Wood left yesterday evening for a visit with his brother, Chas. Wood, in Winslow, Ariz. He will remain there for some time, hunting, before returning to his old home near Manhattan, Kansas. His family will follow in a few months.
