

YES,

We are busier every day, selling the best of everything to be had for the least money.

Let us quote you prices on good things to eat or wear

Flour, Hay, Barley, Bran, Shorts, Etc.

SCOVILLE,

COTTRELL, - - OREGON.

The name that stands for
GOOD GOODS, FAIR DEAL-
INGS, and RIGHT PRICES.

Start a Savings Account

with us and get
4 PER CENT.
on all your deposits

THE CITIZENS BANK,

126 Grand Ave., PORTLAND, ORE.

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is patentable. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through MUNN & Co. receive special notice, without charge in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms $3 a year, four months $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co., 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office 22 F. St., Washington, D. C.

Notice for Publication.

United States Land Office, Portland, Oregon, October 26, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1893, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Joseph R. Cooney, of Portland, County of Multnomah, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2997, for the purchase of the S 1/2 NW 1/4 of sec. No. 18 in Township No. 1, N., Range No. 5 East, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 15th day of January, 1907.

He names as witnesses: Charles Cooney of Portland, Oregon; Edward Trickey of Palmer, Oregon; Frank Howard of Bridal Veil, Oregon; D. E. Chaffin of Portland, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 15th day of January, 1907.

ALGERNON S. DRESSER, Register.

First publication, Nov. 2, 1906; Last publication, Dec. 28, 1906.

W. F. GREER,

Steam Wood Saw

WILL MAKE TRIP TO ANY LOCALITY FOR 20 CORDS.

TROUTDALE, OREGON.

Insure Your Property NOW

IN THE LONDON ASSURANCE CORPORATION

One of the oldest and best insurance companies in the world.

JOHN H. NIETZGER, - Agent

GRESHAM, ORE.

Notice of Final Account.

In the County Court of Multnomah County, Oregon.

In the matter of the estate of Francis D. Tegart, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned as administrator of the estate of Francis D. Tegart, deceased, has filed his final account therein with the County Clerk of Multnomah County.

That the County Judge has fixed the date of November 19th, 1906, at 9:30 a. m., for the hearing of any objections to said account. All persons having any interest therein are hereby notified to present any objections that they may have to said account and show cause if any they have, why said estate should not be settled and the Administrator discharged.

This notice is published by order of the Hon. Lionel R. Webster.

Dated Portland, Ore., Oct. 6th, 1906.

Date of First publication Oct. 12, 1906; last publication Nov. 5th, 1906.

WILLIAM TEGART, Administrator.

Dairy Farm For Sale

In Clackamas County, Ore.

All fenced, good water, $2000 worth of personal property.

Inquire of

H. W. SNASHALL,

Gresham, - - Oregon

The Herald is putting in large type, a large cylinder press, a large paper cutter and other up-to-date machinery which will greatly enlarge and improve our facilities for all kinds of Wants Your Printing small or large printing.

Correspondence

HULBURT.

Fred Sittle and brother, of Portland, were calling on old friends here recently.

A car of dried prunes was shipped from Corbett, grown by Tom Evans, Mrs. Emily, M. Rickert, Mrs. Kincaid and Mr. Saunders, on Oct. 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Laslie and Mrs. V. Ellis made a trip to Portland last week.

Miss Kathrine Johnson, of Portland, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson, recently.

Potato digging is at its height here. The crop is not up to its standard either in size or quantity.

We see the "homeless" boy hauling ties to Corbett. Wonder if that buggy is fixed yet.

CORBETT.

Fred Sholtz was a business visitor in the city recently.

Newell Gleason, and Mr. and Mrs. Saunders were Portland visitors last week.

Mr. Emily, of Gresham, was at Corbett recently.

Floyd Reed and Guy Smith went to Warrendale last week to try camp life and fish for sturgeon, but as fish were scarce they only stayed a few days.

Rev. Soule preached at Corbett Sunday morning.

A large black bear was seen prowling around Mrs. Leader's orchard Saturday.

SPRINGFIELD

School has been under way for one month in District 41, Miss Emily Rodgers teacher. We look forward to a very successful term.

Mrs. Uley and daughter, Jessie, and E. A. Grai, were in Portland last week.

John Rayburn has sold his property at The Dalles and will move to Springfield in the near future.

S. L. Taylor has moved from the Dan Rickert place to his house on the Rayburn place.

Wm. Thresher, who has been teaming for Val Gebhardt, left for his home in Oakland, Cal., recently.

STAGGERWEED

Our Gage merchant has been heard to complain of spoiled eggs which have been brought to him by his customers.

James Pounder, our respected road supervisor, is driving a new buggy horse these days.

Misses Mabel and Agnes Evans spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Miss Glenore Russell recently.

Taylor school children are thinking of giving an entertainment and basket social sometime during the holidays.

J. Bates is now making butter to sell instead of selling cream, and he seems to think it pays.

We are sorry to hear that Wm. Crowston is ill. His wife and daughter are also ill.

KELSO.

Mr. Knox is building a new house.

Bernhard Kligel visited Portland last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Anna Bachmann visited the Sunday school at Boring last Sunday. She says they have a fine Sunday school.

Chris. Pugh was laid up for a few days as a result of being struck by a flying timber while running the picket machine in Jonsrud Bro's mill. A road meeting will be held at Sandy next Friday evening Nov. 2nd to discuss the improvements of roads.

One morning last week Joel Jarl, on hearing a commotion among his chickens, found an owl perched on the well. In order not to frighten it away he shot through the window pane and killed the owl which measured five feet from tip to tip.

Mrs. Peter Rath, of George is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lindall.

COTTRELL.

Mrs. Nettie Killen has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spiers, for the last week. She expects to start for Pendleton soon where her husband has recently located.

Mrs. H. C. Nelson, of Orient, visited the Cottrell school last week. She brought a library of 50 books which she bought with the proceeds derived from a social given during the last days of her administration of this school as teacher.

Miss Alma Bowman is principal, and Miss Winnie Roak is the primary teacher of the Cottrell school. The school house has recently been enlarged to accommodate many more pupils, and about 60 are now in attendance.

S. W. Scoville, Elmer Goger, and F. Beers, were among the visitors at the Old Fellows doing in Gresham, last week.

W. A. PROCTOR.

W. A. Proctor is clearing up the old mill site and before long will doubtless be plating a townsite here.

Earl Jack was rather lonely for a time. Mrs. Jack was visiting friends in Portland.

Our enterprising merchant is having the stumps taken out of his lots. Earl Jack is doing the work.

The Cottrell to Boring road is all torn up as the result of blasting the stumps out of the road.

H. A. Doty has taken a contract for the clearing of 16 acres of land for Frank Beers.

There is a movement on foot to call the taxpayers together to discuss the advisability of levying a special tax for the improvement of the roads in Sandy and Cottrell districts.

B. F. Griffiths was doing business in Cottrell Tuesday.

M. Ball, while working in a dryer recently, accidentally struck his knee against a box, making a painful bruise from the effects of which he has been compelled to use a crutch a part of the time.

Mr. Zimick killed a fat porker for Mr. Ball last week.

Mrs. Ida Holmes, of Oregon City, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blackburn.

Elmer Goger is building a modern house. M. Ball is assisting him.

Clifford Schneider has started a fine walnut orchard. He has two acres of young trees of the California variety already planted, and expects to plant more in the near future.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Ball last week. A new crazy patch quilt was quilted and will doubtless be sold for a good price to the Japanese who send them to the homeland as souvenirs. The society will hold a fair about the last of November. Mrs. D. D. Jack is the secretary, Mrs. P. M. Miller treasurer and Mrs. M. Ball, president. The society is in good financial condition, having made and sold numerous quilts and comforters during the past year.

Cottrell is improving quite rapidly. It now has one of the best dryers in the state, a good school and church, a splendid general store, a fine townsite, and every indication for a good railroad town in the very near future.

Editor Brownhill was seen meandering around these parts a few days ago.

Mrs. J. Fowler has been quite ill but is slowly regaining her health.

Mr. Hyatt who has been sick for some time is reported no better.

Mrs. Albert Killen recently of Woodburn is visiting her parents, Mr. & Mrs. Spiers. She is on her way to Pendleton to join her husband who has recently located there.

Christian Endeavor met Sunday evening with a good attendance. Wednesday evenings there will be meetings for bible study. All are welcome.

Mr. Barton, of Columbia Slough, called on old friends at this place at Sunday.

A pleasant time was enjoyed by the young people at No. 2 hall last Saturday evening.

John Strauss was transacting business in our burg a day or two ago he reports a district road meeting at Sandy on Friday eve for the purpose of levying a special road tax.

Ed. Bruns of Sandy was among us Saturday afternoon.

W. A. Proctor & S. W. Scoville went to Troutdale Saturday evening, it being full moon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Beers were the guests of Z. Beers last Sunday.

Miss Lottie Rosebaum is stopping at J. Fowlers for the present.

The disappearance of Mr. Millstead is still a mystery.

Potato-digging is still the order of the day. Crops are reported very good.

George Beers and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gist of Powell Valley.

DOVER.

Charles Merrill who is engineer at the Proctor & Beers mill near here was a visitor in Sandy last week. He reports the mill doing a thriving business, employing about 22 men, and cutting an average of 25000 feet per day.

Charles Cassidy of Dover passed through Sandy recently with a new potato digger.

Mrs. C. T. Wilson is doing the cooking for the boys at the Proctor & Beers mill.

Mr. Wilson is hauling ties and logs.

Sis. Harris of Boring was doing business in Sandy last week.

Among the fortunate hunters of this vicinity are Ward Douglas, Guy Custer, and George Kitzmiller.

Sol Carretson of Clackamas has started a hoop factory at Sandy.

Newton Orr reports a thriving stage business. Many new comers are settling near Sandy. Mr. Orr has recently built a neat four-room cottage, in which it is suspected he will install a cook in the near future.

The roads leading from Sandy to Boring and Gresham are badly in need of repair. It is said the roads below the mills are kept up in good shape, but between Sandy and the mills no mention is made of repairs.

J. B. Tawney is building an addition to his blacksmith shop.

V. B. Tapp of Cherryville is a frequent visitor at Sandy.

Geo. Bornstedt's modern seven-room cottage, will soon be finished.

Ed. Bornstedt made a business trip to the metropolis last week.

Miss Mabel Friel of Cherryville visited with Mrs. Allen, last Sunday.

W. P. Allen is driving team for Bornstedt's.

Thomas Bro's have recovered the Sandy Bridge.

S. N. Stoner, U. S. Geological Surveyor, has left his outfit at McIntyres and departed for Washington D. C. where he will spend the winter, returning to renew the work sometime in April.

F. M. Gill deputy state organizer for the Oregon State Grange was looking after the interests of the order in Sandy and vicinity last week.

C. H. Snyder of Portland, is erecting a fine home near Sandy.

Casper Jenker will soon commence the erection of a number of cottages on his property in this city. In the spring he expects to plat a townsite and sell lots to those desirous of locating in the prettiest site for a city in the Pacific Northwest.

Meinig Bro's are preparing to do some extensive work on their Northern Light Mining and Milling Co.'s property.

Mrs. Alpha Copper is the genial assistant at Hotel Sandy.

Thomas Colledge of Cherryville was a Sandy visitor during the week.

Weaver's chop mill is doing a hustling business on Saturdays.

J. R. Taylor of Bull Run was transacting business in Sandy Saturday.

Quite a number from Sandy attended the dance at Cherryville Saturday evening.

J. B. Tawney's new blacksmith shop is completed and Shake is ready to shoe your horse.

Ed. Bornstedt didn't go to Cherryville Saturday night. I wonder why?

Geo. Odell, of Marmot, who has been working in Portland, returned to his home Saturday.

Gilbert Vanderhoof and his little boy visited in Troutdale over Sunday.

Ed. Payne, who has been staying in Portland some time, was seen on our streets Monday.

O. Reams of Firwood was trading with our merchants Monday.

S. E. New of Firwood bought several goats of Peter P. Heia.

Ben Forester of Eagle Creek visited in Sandy Sunday.

A. C. Thomas and wife visited on Sandy Ridge Sunday and Monday.

E. D. Hart and wife of Firwood visited in Gresham Sunday.

Miss Dora Milliron returned from a visit in Portland Sunday.

Henry Keiseker is hauling lumber for a new house.

Clair Corey, who owns a fine timber-claim four miles south of Cherryville, transacted business in Sandy Monday.

J. H. Revenue, formerly of this place, moved his household effects to Kelso during the week.

Ed. Suckow has purchased the Stone place on Sandy Ridge and is about to erect new buildings on it.

Wm. Rumsdell formerly of this place called on the soft drink trade Tuesday.

Jos. De Shazer of Dover was a business visitor Monday.

Henry McGugin had the misfortune of having a chip of iron enter his leg while splitting wood last Saturday.

Charles Sharnek has an unusual machine enroute from the East for threshing his large crop of peas.

Mrs. M. McCormick is confined to bed suffering from a severe cold.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY.

Charles Merrill who is engineer at the Proctor & Beers mill near here was a visitor in Sandy last week. He reports the mill doing a thriving business, employing about 22 men, and cutting an average of 25000 feet per day.

Charles Cassidy of Dover passed through Sandy recently with a new potato digger.

Mrs. C. T. Wilson is doing the cooking for the boys at the Proctor & Beers mill.

Mr. Wilson is hauling ties and logs.

Sis. Harris of Boring was doing business in Sandy last week.

Among the fortunate hunters of this vicinity are Ward Douglas, Guy Custer, and George Kitzmiller.

Sol Carretson of Clackamas has started a hoop factory at Sandy.

Newton Orr reports a thriving stage business. Many new comers are settling near Sandy. Mr. Orr has recently built a neat four-room cottage, in which it is suspected he will install a cook in the near future.

The roads leading from Sandy to Boring and Gresham are badly in need of repair. It is said the roads below the mills are kept up in good shape, but between Sandy and the mills no mention is made of repairs.

J. B. Tawney is building an addition to his blacksmith shop.

V. B. Tapp of Cherryville is a frequent visitor at Sandy.

Geo. Bornstedt's modern seven-room cottage, will soon be finished.

Ed. Bornstedt made a business trip to the metropolis last week.

Miss Mabel Friel of Cherryville visited with Mrs. Allen, last Sunday.

W. P. Allen is driving team for Bornstedt's.

Thomas Bro's have recovered the Sandy Bridge.

S. N. Stoner, U. S. Geological Surveyor, has left his outfit at McIntyres and departed for Washington D. C. where he will spend the winter, returning to renew the work sometime in April.

F. M. Gill deputy state organizer for the Oregon State Grange was looking after the interests of the order in Sandy and vicinity last week.

C. H. Snyder of Portland, is erecting a fine home near Sandy.

Casper Jenker will soon commence the erection of a number of cottages on his property in this city. In the spring he expects to plat a townsite and sell lots to those desirous of locating in the prettiest site for a city in the Pacific Northwest.

Meinig Bro's are preparing to do some extensive work on their Northern Light Mining and Milling Co.'s property.

Mrs. Alpha Copper is the genial assistant at Hotel Sandy.

Thomas Colledge of Cherryville was a Sandy visitor during the week.

Weaver's chop mill is doing a hustling business on Saturdays.

J. R. Taylor of Bull Run was transacting business in Sandy Saturday.

Quite a number from Sandy attended the dance at Cherryville Saturday evening.

J. B. Tawney's new blacksmith shop is completed and Shake is ready to shoe your horse.

Ed. Bornstedt didn't go to Cherryville Saturday night. I wonder why?

Geo. Odell, of Marmot, who has been working in Portland, returned to his home Saturday.

Gilbert Vanderhoof and his little boy visited in Troutdale over Sunday.

Ed. Payne, who has been staying in Portland some time, was seen on our streets Monday.

O. Reams of Firwood was trading with our merchants Monday.

S. E. New of Firwood bought several goats of Peter P. Heia.

Ben Forester of Eagle Creek visited in Sandy Sunday.

A. C. Thomas and wife visited on Sandy Ridge Sunday and Monday.

E. D. Hart and wife of Firwood visited in Gresham Sunday.

Miss Dora Milliron returned from a visit in Portland Sunday.

Henry Keiseker is hauling lumber for a new house.

Clair Corey, who owns a fine timber-claim four miles south of Cherryville, transacted business in Sandy Monday.

J. H. Revenue, formerly of this place, moved his household effects to Kelso during the week.

Ed. Suckow has purchased the Stone place on Sandy Ridge and is about to erect new buildings on it.

Wm. Rumsdell formerly of this place called on the soft drink trade Tuesday.

Jos. De Shazer of Dover was a business visitor Monday.

Henry McGugin had the misfortune of having a chip of iron enter his leg while splitting wood last Saturday.

Charles Sharnek has an unusual machine enroute from the East for threshing his large crop of peas.

Mrs. M. McCormick is confined to bed suffering from a severe cold.

The Store that Made Sandy FAMOUS

BORNSTEDT'S Money refunded if goods not as represented

BRAN, $16.70 per ton.

ORDER Your Winter Suit of Us, - FIT GUARANTEED -

RUBBERS and Rubber Goods of All Kinds.

NEW SHOES Arriving Each Week.

LICKERS, long, $2; short, $1.75.

TOMATOES, Standard, 3 for 25c.

EGGS. We pay 1c above market price FOR FULL CASES

DRY GOODS, for Winter in endless variety.

THIS IS NOT ALL, not by any means, COME to our well-stocked Store and SEE, Yes, SEE for Yourself.

"The Name that Talks"

More Tips NEXT WEEK BORNSTEDT'S Sandy, Ore.

SANDY STAGE and LIVERY

NEWTON ORR, - - PROP.

LEAVES Sandy for Boring at 6:30 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. Boring for Sandy at 8:35 " and 4:45 "

Schedule subject to change without notice.

At Sandy Makes Connections with Salmon Mail Stage. Also makes connection for Asch-off's and meets first car at Boring.

The Sandy Hotel

CHAS. E. LEWIS, Mngr.

Sandy, Ore.

The Famous Sandy Hostelry

Under new management. Pays special attention to commercial and transient trade

Meals for Automobile Parties

Phone orders promptly attended to. Clean beds. Best of Home Cooking. Prices Reasonable . . .

Feed . Stable . in . Connection

Grandpa Wendland who was viciously attacked by a savage boar on last Sunday week has so far escaped any serious complication.

Clarence Cassidy, of Dover, who has had typhoid fever for the past few weeks, is progressing favorably.

Another recent addition to our population is the Wilson family who, leaving Sherman county last month, journeyed across the mountains all the way with their own team.

EGYPT

Wm. Burkholder and Val Gebhardt are running the Egypt sawmill. Mr. Huff has moved back to Portland.

The school district still has possession of the school is running along smoothly.

GAGE

Mr. Zilm and daughters, Bertha and May, were in Portland recently.

Watkins Painful Stock Food Watkins Flavoring Extracts

Watkins Vegetable Aniline Lintiment

COUGH CURE AND LAXATIVE SPICES AND TOILET ARTICLES

C. H. LANE,

TRAVELING SALESMAN FOR

THE J. R. WATKINS MEDICAL COMPANY

RESIDENCE ROBERTS AVENUE GRESHAM, ORE.

Imhoff & Minar,

Marble and Granite Monuments

ALL KINDS OF CEMETERY WORK

335 East Morrison Street,

Portland, - - Oregon

Orland Zeek, GENERAL Blacksmithing

AND DEALER IN HARNESS, FARM IMPLEMENTS, BUGGIES and WAGONS

Pleasant Home, Ore.

EVERY FARMER is interested in getting Fire Insurance at lowest possible cost.

The Farmer's Mutual Fire Relief Association

was organized by farmers for just that purpose and is the only company in position to give it. If you would like to learn about it drop a line to

H. W. SNASHALL,

R. F. D. No. 4, Gresham, Ore.,

The "BEAVER STATE HERALD" $1 for 12 Months.