Mrs. Linnemann has been quite sick for a few days but is improving. Her friend, Mrs. Grooms, of Portland, was visiting her last week and helping her back to health.

FOR SALE—Good top buggy. Anna M. Hoss, Gresham.

Recently some gentlemen from the city were out enjoying the splendor of the day, and visited the farm of H. S. Harvey, which is situated on top of that beautiful hill immediately west of Gresham. There is something in the wind. They had their field glasses and were taking a general view of the surrounding country. This is the finest location in twenty-five miles of Portland and affords the finest view of the entire surrounding country,—of the mountain and river scenery, and overlooking Mt. Tabor and Portland heights.

R. Bortenshaw was a pleasant visitor this week.

Miss Janet MacKay, of Melrose, was a Gresham visitor Monday. We acknowledge a pleasant call.

The Gresham Real Estate Co. recently sold the McKinley Mitchell tract of 11 acres to J. F. Menzies, of Rosely, Wash. Also 40 acres at Hurlburt to S. E. Toepelman and 20 acres four miles east of Gresham to W. H. Cooley, of Condon, Ore.

Owing to the fact that the Beaver State Herald demands all my time and attention I have decided to drop all legal work, and consequently have allowed my commission as notary public to expire. Thanking many friends for past favors, I am sincerely, Timothy Brownhill.

Four per cent. is what the First State Bank is paying the farmers for their money until such a time as they need it. It is just as essential that your money earn you something as your barn should be of some use to you. No one thinks of keeping a team representing $400 standing idle in the barn, yet it would be as sensible as having $400 lying idle. Let it earn you something and be of some service in the community.

Mrs. A. C. Browning was doing business in Gresham this week.

D. S. Johnson has decided to go into the real estate business and has rented the rooms, just vacated by The Herald, for the purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beadle are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Conley.

WHAT'S THE USE? You have been figuring now for six months how you can invest a few hundred dollars to good advantage. Why not get it at work at once. We will pay you four per cent. and help you make a loan at better rates as soon as there is an opportunity. We are in a better position than any city bank can be to keep your money earning you something and that too in safe investments. You have worked for your money—now 'tis due that your money work for you. The matter of getting it at work rests with you. We will see that you get good results. First State Bank.

FOR RENT—A large well improved dairy, grain and truck farm, situated one and a half miles west of Gresham, on the O. W. P. line, will give possession Jan. 1st, 1907. Enquire of Mrs. E. Linnemann, Gresham, Oregon.
