GRESHAM LOCALS

FOR RENT—A large well improved dairy, grain and truck farm, situated one and a half miles west of Gresham, on the O. W. P. line, will give possession Jan. 1st, 1907. Enquire of Mrs. E. Linemann, Gresham, Oregon.

C. C. Vaughn, the man who is making Fairview famous, was a Herald visitor on Saturday.

"The Revelers" have announced a series of whist parties for the winter.

H. H. Emmons, a lawyer in Portland, was in town Saturday on official business.

E. C. Lindsey has been helping arrange The Herald's new quarters in the Odd Fellow building.

FOR SALE—Good top buggy. Anna M. Hoss, Gresham.

Mrs. Chas. Merrill was a Portland visitor Saturday. Her daughter, Miss Birdine Merrill, who is teaching in the Thompson school in Portland, accompanied her home, returning to Portland Sunday evening.

E. J. Price added a word of encouragement while paying us a visit a day or so ago.

Mrs. Frank New, of Portland, was a pleasant visitor at The Herald office this week.

W. H. Bond, a fast friend of The Herald and an old settler of Powell Valley, paid us a pleasant visit this week. He is suffering from a severe cold.

Mrs. L. G. Lusted was among our visitors this week. She mentioned a number of our editorials that had pleased her. We hope they are being read by many more for we try to make them interesting as well as helpful.

FOR SALE—Brown Swiss Bull Helmeke No. 678. For further particulars write or call on Andrew Brugger, Melville Farm, Gresham, Ore.

J. W. Lingle made our hearts glad this week. He is among the number who did not subscribe. The paper was sent to him under the management of Mr. Watson, but he is so well pleased with the present standard of the paper that he has insured its coming to him from now to Jan. 1st, 1908.

A. B. Elliott, the popular merchant of Powell Valley, paid this office a short visit this week. He left us a sample of how they do, or rather grow, things at Powell Valley—a monster cabbage weighing 34 pounds. Can you beat this?

B. W. Emery has been selected by his friends for the office of deputy sheriff for this district.

DANCE—Campbell's Orchestra will give a dance in Axtell's Hall, Fairview, Saturday evening, Nov. 17th. Tickets 75 cents. Supper.

Tom Howitt is about the busiest man among us unless it be Archie Meyers whose headlight appears from the bank nearly every night up to 11 or 12 o'clock.

D. S. Johnson is in the way of becoming justice of the peace. He has been spoken of as a good man for recorder, and has been appointed notary public. Surely these ought to be enough honors for one little man.

FOR SALE—A good cream separator at Mrs. Winter's place half mile west of Cedarville.

Mr. Andrew Blair, formerly of Sycamore but now of Portland, was visiting friends in Gresham Saturday and Sunday.

Please mention The Herald when dealing with our advertisers. You will benefit yourself and your home paper by trading with the merchants in your vicinity who advertise in this paper.

T. K. Howitt made us a pleasant call this week.

The fastest growing tree of the temperate zone is said to be "paradox" walnut, originated by Luther Burbank. In fourteen years it attained a growth of over sixty feet. It's thirty-year-old parent is a mere baby by the side of it.

Please mention The Herald when dealing with our advertisers.

You will benefit yourself and your home paper by trading with the merchants in your vicinity who advertise in this paper. Tell your merchant you saw it in his ad in The Herald if it's so.

It will be noticed that R. E. Jar! the enterprising merchant of Kelso has a nice display ad, in this issue.

C. L. Crenshaw did the plumbing, tinning, and stove pipe fitting in The Herald's new home last week. Its done right to.

J. C. Allen janitor of the public school is off duty this week on account of sickness.

Now is the time to engage your Thanksgiving Turkeys at C. N. Powell. FOR SALE—Fresh Cows. Apply to J. N. Clannahan, Division street, Gresham, Oregon.

Anything For a Change.
I'm not noted for my knocking.
And 'twould fill me with delight
If the words they think of dooking
Are the words I don't spell right.
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Starting Well.

"Was their honeymoon trip a success?"
"Oh, yes. They came back friends."
—Minneapolis Journal.

Excessive Interest.
Unmindful of our own affairs,
Our neighbors' make us curious.
The interest we take in theirs
Is really quite usurious.
—Boston Transcript.

Not a Story Teller.
"What makes Sinkers such a poor fisherman? Lack of patience!"
"No; lack of imagination."—Judy.

If.
You're growing older; that is true.
The thought is far from nice,
But if you're getting wiser, too,
It's worth the sacrifice.
—Pick-Me-Up.

Seems Long.
Church—Had your present cook long?
Gotham—Oh, yes; 3 hours and 20 minutes.—Yonkers Statesman.

Wouldn't it be nice?
Though time, they say, is money,
The chance is very slender
That Uncle Sam will ever
Declare it legal tender.
—Philadelphia Press
