

KELSO

There are merchants large, there are merchants small,
But merchant JARL beats 'em all.

Just in— BRAN, per ton, - $16.25
PER SACK, 50c
3 CARS OF SHORTS, per ton, - $18.50
FEED ROLLED BARLEY, per ton, $25

SHOES We carry a Full Line of the SHOES
Famous Hamilton - Brown
ASK TO SEE THEM

Wednesday is our market day
Bring your VEAL, PORK, CHICKENS, HIDES,
EGGS and BUTTER. Cash or Trade.
EGGS, 3c a piece or 36c a doz.

R. E. JARL,
The "Store of Quality as well as Quantity."

Correspondence

KELSO.
A baby girl was born last week to the wife of John Lind.
August Stuecke is on the sick list.
J. A. Jonsrud has returned from a trip to Pierce, Idaho, where he proved upon his timber claim.
R. E. Jarl, our prosperous merchant, made two business trips to Portland last week, which means his business is increasing.
Mr. Sindall and wife spent Monday in Portland. Mr. Sindall is very energetic for his age. He recently spent several days in Portland in the interest of gospel work. He has a varied experience in his life as a great part of his life has been spent in doing missionary work.

BROWER
The recent storm did some damage here, breaking telephone lines, and blowing down timber causing slides in the Bridal Veil road. The roads were blocked from travel, but our enterprising road supervisor soon had a force of men at work and the roads were soon open again.
Coyotes and wildcats are plentiful in this vicinity.
Diphtheria is reported at Palmer.
Hunters in this part of the country report that game birds are scarce this season owing to the failure of the berry crop.

Insure Your Property NOW
IN THE LONDON ASSURANCE CORPORATION
One of the oldest and best insurance companies in the world.
JOHN H. METZGER, - Agent
GRESHAM, ORE.

Notice for Publication.
United States Land Office, Portland, Oregon, October 28, 1908.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timberlands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Joseph R. Cooney, of Portland, County of Multnomah, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 797, for the purchase of the S 1/2 NW 1/4 of Sec. 13 in Township No. 1 N., Range No. 3 East, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 15th day of January, 1907.
He names as witnesses: Charles Cooney of Portland, Oregon; Edward Trickey of Palmer, Oregon; Frank Howard, of Bridal Veil, Oregon; D. E. Chaffin of Portland, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 15th day of January, 1907.
ALGERNON S. DRESSER, Register.
First publication, Nov. 2, 1908.
Last publication, Dec. 28, 1908.

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS & C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms $2 a month in advance. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office 5th St., Washington, D. C.

SIEFER STATION
Mr. Ben Mathews is raising a large barn, 40 x 60 x 22 feet, with a concrete foundation. It will be quite a credit to our neighborhood.
Mr. and Mrs. Derby of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Lents were guests at J. E. Seifer's Sunday.
The Boring school is progressing nicely, under the management of Mrs. Hayhurst and Miss Haycock.
Clackamas County Court has ordered Ed. Seifer to open and grade one mile of road from Boring hotel west to meet the Damascus road at the east boundary of road district No. 3.
Raymond Richey had the misfortune to have his leg broken just above the knee by a runaway horse and was taken to the hospital. At last account he was getting along nicely.
Francis Welch is very sick with typhoid fever.
Guy Mathews met with an accident while raising his barn. He had the misfortune to receive a severe cut on the knee. We hope he may be able to be around soon again.

COTTRELL.
The young people had a nice time at No. 2 hall Saturday evening.
Mrs. Stone of Salmon river is visiting friends in this vicinity.
The roads are being improved rapidly around here.
Mrs. T. Bowen and Mrs. Geo. Harrison were recent guests of Mrs. Jones at Orient.
Wm. Hudson has been hauling lumber to his farm on the pipe line road.

PLEASANT HOME.
Dr. C. N. Crockett, of Portland, was called to the bedside of James Douglass this week. Mr. Douglass has improved much since the doctor's visit.
Rev. Dr. Locke, formerly of Troutdale, made a pleasant visit with Mr. Douglass this week. He was glad to meet his old friend again and recall old times.
Mrs. Elizabeth Philips, of Arlington,

Start a Savings Account with us and get
4 PER CENT.
on all your deposits
THE CITIZENS BANK,
120 Grand Ave., PORTLAND, ORE.

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS & C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms $2 a month in advance. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office 5th St., Washington, D. C.

is visiting her sister, Mrs. Buoy. She recently made a short visit with her nephew, Jas. Douglass.
The boys of this town had a skating rink in the W. O. W. hall Friday night. About 25 attended and more are expected next time.
Conference was held in the M. E. church Monday, Nov. 5th.
A. Richardson and son, George, of Portland, were visiting friends here this week.
The Woman's Home Mission will give a Thanksgiving celebration at W. O. W. hall at Orient on Nov. 29th. Good programs will be rendered in the afternoon and evening. Dinner will be served from 4 to 7:30. All are invited.
Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of Portland, were visiting on their wedding tour, with Mr. and Mrs. Quay.
Jewell Collins and friend, Mr. Carter, of Portland, are visiting his father at Pleasant Home.
Mrs. Mary Jack and daughter, Mrs. N. Albright, were visiting the Jack's, Snider's and other relatives and friends here.
Geo. Douglass, of Sacramento, Cal., is visiting his brother, Jas. Douglass. He was a resident in Multnomah county for years before going to California.

DAMASCUS
Mrs. Alice Lloyd of Seattle, who has been spending a week with Heacock's, left Saturday for Newberg.
A. D. Teuke has sold his farm to Mr. Kettle late of Kansas.
Mr. Bunn of North Yamhill has purchased the Rettig farm.
Olof Rollan has rented his farm to the Olson Brothers and will move to Portland.
Mr. Lingle will soon leave for an extended trip through the East.
The indications now are that we will soon have telephone connections with Boring and Oregon City.
Mr. Houghmeister is moving to the Ulrich farm.
The Newberg boys of Myrtle Park are visiting their Uncle August Wedin.

GLEANINGS.
A child of three years old is half the height that it will ever reach.
The British national debt originated in the reign of William III, whose first loan was obtained in 1694.
The public executioner of Austria wears a pair of new white gloves every time he carries out a capital sentence.
The toothpicks of orange wood, which come from Japan, are made by hand. It is said that a Japanese workman can whittle from twelve to twenty dozen a day.
Some harps have been discovered in Egyptian tombs the strings of which in several instances were intact and gave forth distinct sounds after an estimated silence of 3,000 years.
In northern China a perambulating village blacksmith goes about in the early spring making implements for the farmers. The plows differ in design in the various localities and are only sufficient to scratch the surface of the soil.

THE ROYAL BOX.
King Haakon VII. of Norway is a nephew of Queen Alexandra of England. His wife was the Princess Maud of Wales.
The czarina of Russia is fond of swimming and when staying at the St. Petersburg Winter palace indulges in the recreation in a splendid bath of white marble.
The queen of Roumania is building a city for the blind, where they will have every sort of comfort and be well taken care of, the lady being very much interested in this form of misfortune.
The Duke of Connaught, King Edward's brother, inspector general of the British army, really has been a hardworking soldier, who earned at least a part of his promotion. In the barrack room he is always known as Arthur, and much of his popularity with the rank and file has come from his wonderful memory of faces.

LAW POINTS.
Inclosure of a right of way is held in Pritchard versus Lewis (Wis.) 1 L. R. A. (N. S.) 656, not to be sufficient possession to ripen into an adverse title.
An action for the death of a minor child is held in Swift & Co. versus Johnson (C. C. A., Sth. C.) 1 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1161, to be for the sole benefit of the father, although he has deserted the family, to whose support the deceased was at the time of his death contributing.
A gift inter vivos is held in Harris Banking company versus Miller (Mo.), 1 L. R. A. (N. S.), 790, not to be established by depositing a fund in a bank with the statement that it was intended for the donee and the delivery to the latter of a certificate of deposit with an indorsement indicating that it was his.

The Altar.
Said the sweet and single maiden,
"Will you tell me, if you can,
Why the lovingest of lovers
Is no sooner wedded than
He becomes the careless husband
Of the matrimonial plan?"
"Oh, it is the marriage altar!"
Said the bitter married man.
—Judge.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY.
Mrs. E. A. Revenue was visiting in Sandy last Sunday.
Eddie Kopper was seen in Sandy again, having just returned from southern Oregon where he had been employed for a year.
Another half mile of plank will be put on the road between Boring and Kelso.
Gus Logus of Portland has come out to stay on his homestead near the Sandy river which is a very beautiful place.
Fischer & Snyder, carpenters and builders of Portland, have just completed a new house for Otto Cleman, the architect of Portland, which is a very nice and attractive cottage and is taking the eyes of old and young—especially young men.
Frank McGugin, with a pleasant smile, was seen Sunday on the streets of Sandy with a young lady.
Max Winche, has left for Fairview, Ore., where he has employment for the winter.
John Maroney, the tollgate keeper of the Mt. Hood and Barlow Road Co., has moved out for the winter.
Miss Mary Waespe, the popular dressmaker of Sandy, reports a rushing business.
Bacon & Sons are making extensive preparations and will soon have their mill running full blast.
Victor Johnson was once more seen on the streets of Sandy last Saturday, he having just returned from a trip to Sweden where he has been for a year. Victor reports having had a very enjoyable trip, but prefers to live in Oregon.
C. Johnson & Co. will soon erect a 1000-tie mill on the F. Donahae place.
On Saturday evening, Nov. 10, the Sandy Debating Society held its first meeting of this season. The officers are: E. Colman, chairman, re-elected; Frank McGugin, secretary, re-elected; James Bell, vice-president; Emily McElroy, treasurer; Otto Meinig, marshal. An excellent program had been prepared, and much interest was manifested by all present. The meetings will hereafter begin promptly at eight o'clock.
A grand ball will be given in Junker's hall, at Sandy, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. All are invited.
A new saw mill firm, Johnson, Nelson and Struthers is about to start operations on Nob Hill, where there is a fine stretch of timber.
Casper Junker boarded the stage Sunday on a short business trip to Portland.
Newton Orr of the Sandy - Boring Stage, is suffering from a painful felon on the left hand.
Julius Wendland is able to be about Frank Phelps, of Aims, was a Sandy visitor on Friday.
The recently completed summer residence of Architect Kleeaman is now receiving its coat of paint.
Gus Locust with a party of friends came out from Portland on a fishing trip Sunday.
Albert Musa, of Snag Camp, visited friends here Sunday.
Work on Casper Junker's new house is progressing rapidly before the hammer and saw of Ed. and Herman Bruns.
Mr. Hyatt, of Singer sewing machine fame, was a Sandy visitor Sunday.
Jake Tawney visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.
E. D. Hart and wife and Mrs. B. F. Hart visited in Portland Monday and Tuesday.
Ed. Bruns sold twelve head of cattle to B. F. Hart during the week.
J. W. Exon left for Portland on business Thursday.
C. W. Kern and wife and W. E. Welch passed through here enroute to Portland Saturday.
Ed. Bornstedt and Gus Hoffman attended the dance at L. A. Ware's home Saturday evening. They report an especially good time.
Ben McKee, of Portland, combined business with pleasure in a visit to Sandy and the Ridge Sunday.
Ed. Suckow, of Sandy Ridge, was a business visitor Saturday.
Emil Palmquist, of Gresham, was here Monday in the interest of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company.
Gus Chowning, of Aims, was a business visitor Monday.
Miss Almelo Harris is employed at the Sandy hotel.
Tom Harris made a business trip to Troutdale Saturday last week.
U. Trunbhel is entertaining several people from Minnesota who are looking up new homes in this vicinity.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY.
Mrs. E. A. Revenue was visiting in Sandy last Sunday.
Eddie Kopper was seen in Sandy again, having just returned from southern Oregon where he had been employed for a year.
Another half mile of plank will be put on the road between Boring and Kelso.
Gus Logus of Portland has come out to stay on his homestead near the Sandy river which is a very beautiful place.
Fischer & Snyder, carpenters and builders of Portland, have just completed a new house for Otto Cleman, the architect of Portland, which is a very nice and attractive cottage and is taking the eyes of old and young—especially young men.
Frank McGugin, with a pleasant smile, was seen Sunday on the streets of Sandy with a young lady.
Max Winche, has left for Fairview, Ore., where he has employment for the winter.
John Maroney, the tollgate keeper of the Mt. Hood and Barlow Road Co., has moved out for the winter.
Miss Mary Waespe, the popular dressmaker of Sandy, reports a rushing business.
Bacon & Sons are making extensive preparations and will soon have their mill running full blast.
Victor Johnson was once more seen on the streets of Sandy last Saturday, he having just returned from a trip to Sweden where he has been for a year. Victor reports having had a very enjoyable trip, but prefers to live in Oregon.
C. Johnson & Co. will soon erect a 1000-tie mill on the F. Donahae place.
On Saturday evening, Nov. 10, the Sandy Debating Society held its first meeting of this season. The officers are: E. Colman, chairman, re-elected; Frank McGugin, secretary, re-elected; James Bell, vice-president; Emily McElroy, treasurer; Otto Meinig, marshal. An excellent program had been prepared, and much interest was manifested by all present. The meetings will hereafter begin promptly at eight o'clock.
A grand ball will be given in Junker's hall, at Sandy, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. All are invited.
A new saw mill firm, Johnson, Nelson and Struthers is about to start operations on Nob Hill, where there is a fine stretch of timber.
Casper Junker boarded the stage Sunday on a short business trip to Portland.
Newton Orr of the Sandy - Boring Stage, is suffering from a painful felon on the left hand.
Julius Wendland is able to be about Frank Phelps, of Aims, was a Sandy visitor on Friday.
The recently completed summer residence of Architect Kleeaman is now receiving its coat of paint.
Gus Locust with a party of friends came out from Portland on a fishing trip Sunday.
Albert Musa, of Snag Camp, visited friends here Sunday.
Work on Casper Junker's new house is progressing rapidly before the hammer and saw of Ed. and Herman Bruns.
Mr. Hyatt, of Singer sewing machine fame, was a Sandy visitor Sunday.
Jake Tawney visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.
E. D. Hart and wife and Mrs. B. F. Hart visited in Portland Monday and Tuesday.
Ed. Bruns sold twelve head of cattle to B. F. Hart during the week.
J. W. Exon left for Portland on business Thursday.
C. W. Kern and wife and W. E. Welch passed through here enroute to Portland Saturday.
Ed. Bornstedt and Gus Hoffman attended the dance at L. A. Ware's home Saturday evening. They report an especially good time.
Ben McKee, of Portland, combined business with pleasure in a visit to Sandy and the Ridge Sunday.
Ed. Suckow, of Sandy Ridge, was a business visitor Saturday.
Emil Palmquist, of Gresham, was here Monday in the interest of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company.
Gus Chowning, of Aims, was a business visitor Monday.
Miss Almelo Harris is employed at the Sandy hotel.
Tom Harris made a business trip to Troutdale Saturday last week.
U. Trunbhel is entertaining several people from Minnesota who are looking up new homes in this vicinity.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY.
Mrs. E. A. Revenue was visiting in Sandy last Sunday.
Eddie Kopper was seen in Sandy again, having just returned from southern Oregon where he had been employed for a year.
Another half mile of plank will be put on the road between Boring and Kelso.
Gus Logus of Portland has come out to stay on his homestead near the Sandy river which is a very beautiful place.
Fischer & Snyder, carpenters and builders of Portland, have just completed a new house for Otto Cleman, the architect of Portland, which is a very nice and attractive cottage and is taking the eyes of old and young—especially young men.
Frank McGugin, with a pleasant smile, was seen Sunday on the streets of Sandy with a young lady.
Max Winche, has left for Fairview, Ore., where he has employment for the winter.
John Maroney, the tollgate keeper of the Mt. Hood and Barlow Road Co., has moved out for the winter.
Miss Mary Waespe, the popular dressmaker of Sandy, reports a rushing business.
Bacon & Sons are making extensive preparations and will soon have their mill running full blast.
Victor Johnson was once more seen on the streets of Sandy last Saturday, he having just returned from a trip to Sweden where he has been for a year. Victor reports having had a very enjoyable trip, but prefers to live in Oregon.
C. Johnson & Co. will soon erect a 1000-tie mill on the F. Donahae place.
On Saturday evening, Nov. 10, the Sandy Debating Society held its first meeting of this season. The officers are: E. Colman, chairman, re-elected; Frank McGugin, secretary, re-elected; James Bell, vice-president; Emily McElroy, treasurer; Otto Meinig, marshal. An excellent program had been prepared, and much interest was manifested by all present. The meetings will hereafter begin promptly at eight o'clock.
A grand ball will be given in Junker's hall, at Sandy, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. All are invited.
A new saw mill firm, Johnson, Nelson and Struthers is about to start operations on Nob Hill, where there is a fine stretch of timber.
Casper Junker boarded the stage Sunday on a short business trip to Portland.
Newton Orr of the Sandy - Boring Stage, is suffering from a painful felon on the left hand.
Julius Wendland is able to be about Frank Phelps, of Aims, was a Sandy visitor on Friday.
The recently completed summer residence of Architect Kleeaman is now receiving its coat of paint.
Gus Locust with a party of friends came out from Portland on a fishing trip Sunday.
Albert Musa, of Snag Camp, visited friends here Sunday.
Work on Casper Junker's new house is progressing rapidly before the hammer and saw of Ed. and Herman Bruns.
Mr. Hyatt, of Singer sewing machine fame, was a Sandy visitor Sunday.
Jake Tawney visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.
E. D. Hart and wife and Mrs. B. F. Hart visited in Portland Monday and Tuesday.
Ed. Bruns sold twelve head of cattle to B. F. Hart during the week.
J. W. Exon left for Portland on business Thursday.
C. W. Kern and wife and W. E. Welch passed through here enroute to Portland Saturday.
Ed. Bornstedt and Gus Hoffman attended the dance at L. A. Ware's home Saturday evening. They report an especially good time.
Ben McKee, of Portland, combined business with pleasure in a visit to Sandy and the Ridge Sunday.
Ed. Suckow, of Sandy Ridge, was a business visitor Saturday.
Emil Palmquist, of Gresham, was here Monday in the interest of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company.
Gus Chowning, of Aims, was a business visitor Monday.
Miss Almelo Harris is employed at the Sandy hotel.
Tom Harris made a business trip to Troutdale Saturday last week.
U. Trunbhel is entertaining several people from Minnesota who are looking up new homes in this vicinity.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY.
Mrs. E. A. Revenue was visiting in Sandy last Sunday.
Eddie Kopper was seen in Sandy again, having just returned from southern Oregon where he had been employed for a year.
Another half mile of plank will be put on the road between Boring and Kelso.
Gus Logus of Portland has come out to stay on his homestead near the Sandy river which is a very beautiful place.
Fischer & Snyder, carpenters and builders of Portland, have just completed a new house for Otto Cleman, the architect of Portland, which is a very nice and attractive cottage and is taking the eyes of old and young—especially young men.
Frank McGugin, with a pleasant smile, was seen Sunday on the streets of Sandy with a young lady.
Max Winche, has left for Fairview, Ore., where he has employment for the winter.
John Maroney, the tollgate keeper of the Mt. Hood and Barlow Road Co., has moved out for the winter.
Miss Mary Waespe, the popular dressmaker of Sandy, reports a rushing business.
Bacon & Sons are making extensive preparations and will soon have their mill running full blast.
Victor Johnson was once more seen on the streets of Sandy last Saturday, he having just returned from a trip to Sweden where he has been for a year. Victor reports having had a very enjoyable trip, but prefers to live in Oregon.
C. Johnson & Co. will soon erect a 1000-tie mill on the F. Donahae place.
On Saturday evening, Nov. 10, the Sandy Debating Society held its first meeting of this season. The officers are: E. Colman, chairman, re-elected; Frank McGugin, secretary, re-elected; James Bell, vice-president; Emily McElroy, treasurer; Otto Meinig, marshal. An excellent program had been prepared, and much interest was manifested by all present. The meetings will hereafter begin promptly at eight o'clock.
A grand ball will be given in Junker's hall, at Sandy, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. All are invited.
A new saw mill firm, Johnson, Nelson and Struthers is about to start operations on Nob Hill, where there is a fine stretch of timber.
Casper Junker boarded the stage Sunday on a short business trip to Portland.
Newton Orr of the Sandy - Boring Stage, is suffering from a painful felon on the left hand.
Julius Wendland is able to be about Frank Phelps, of Aims, was a Sandy visitor on Friday.
The recently completed summer residence of Architect Kleeaman is now receiving its coat of paint.
Gus Locust with a party of friends came out from Portland on a fishing trip Sunday.
Albert Musa, of Snag Camp, visited friends here Sunday.
Work on Casper Junker's new house is progressing rapidly before the hammer and saw of Ed. and Herman Bruns.
Mr. Hyatt, of Singer sewing machine fame, was a Sandy visitor Sunday.
Jake Tawney visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.
E. D. Hart and wife and Mrs. B. F. Hart visited in Portland Monday and Tuesday.
Ed. Bruns sold twelve head of cattle to B. F. Hart during the week.
J. W. Exon left for Portland on business Thursday.
C. W. Kern and wife and W. E. Welch passed through here enroute to Portland Saturday.
Ed. Bornstedt and Gus Hoffman attended the dance at L. A. Ware's home Saturday evening. They report an especially good time.
Ben McKee, of Portland, combined business with pleasure in a visit to Sandy and the Ridge Sunday.
Ed. Suckow, of Sandy Ridge, was a business visitor Saturday.
Emil Palmquist, of Gresham, was here Monday in the interest of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company.
Gus Chowning, of Aims, was a business visitor Monday.
Miss Almelo Harris is employed at the Sandy hotel.
Tom Harris made a business trip to Troutdale Saturday last week.
U. Trunbhel is entertaining several people from Minnesota who are looking up new homes in this vicinity.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY.
Mrs. E. A. Revenue was visiting in Sandy last Sunday.
Eddie Kopper was seen in Sandy again, having just returned from southern Oregon where he had been employed for a year.
Another half mile of plank will be put on the road between Boring and Kelso.
Gus Logus of Portland has come out to stay on his homestead near the Sandy river which is a very beautiful place.
Fischer & Snyder, carpenters and builders of Portland, have just completed a new house for Otto Cleman, the architect of Portland, which is a very nice and attractive cottage and is taking the eyes of old and young—especially young men.
Frank McGugin, with a pleasant smile, was seen Sunday on the streets of Sandy with a young lady.
Max Winche, has left for Fairview, Ore., where he has employment for the winter.
John Maroney, the tollgate keeper of the Mt. Hood and Barlow Road Co., has moved out for the winter.
Miss Mary Waespe, the popular dressmaker of Sandy, reports a rushing business.
Bacon & Sons are making extensive preparations and will soon have their mill running full blast.
Victor Johnson was once more seen on the streets of Sandy last Saturday, he having just returned from a trip to Sweden where he has been for a year. Victor reports having had a very enjoyable trip, but prefers to live in Oregon.
C. Johnson & Co. will soon erect a 1000-tie mill on the F. Donahae place.
On Saturday evening, Nov. 10, the Sandy Debating Society held its first meeting of this season. The officers are: E. Colman, chairman, re-elected; Frank McGugin, secretary, re-elected; James Bell, vice-president; Emily McElroy, treasurer; Otto Meinig, marshal. An excellent program had been prepared, and much interest was manifested by all present. The meetings will hereafter begin promptly at eight o'clock.
A grand ball will be given in Junker's hall, at Sandy, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. All are invited.
A new saw mill firm, Johnson, Nelson and Struthers is about to start operations on Nob Hill, where there is a fine stretch of timber.
Casper Junker boarded the stage Sunday on a short business trip to Portland.
Newton Orr of the Sandy - Boring Stage, is suffering from a painful felon on the left hand.
Julius Wendland is able to be about Frank Phelps, of Aims, was a Sandy visitor on Friday.
The recently completed summer residence of Architect Kleeaman is now receiving its coat of paint.
Gus Locust with a party of friends came out from Portland on a fishing trip Sunday.
Albert Musa, of Snag Camp, visited friends here Sunday.
Work on Casper Junker's new house is progressing rapidly before the hammer and saw of Ed. and Herman Bruns.
Mr. Hyatt, of Singer sewing machine fame, was a Sandy visitor Sunday.
Jake Tawney visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.
E. D. Hart and wife and Mrs. B. F. Hart visited in Portland Monday and Tuesday.
Ed. Bruns sold twelve head of cattle to B. F. Hart during the week.
J. W. Exon left for Portland on business Thursday.
C. W. Kern and wife and W. E. Welch passed through here enroute to Portland Saturday.
Ed. Bornstedt and Gus Hoffman attended the dance at L. A. Ware's home Saturday evening. They report an especially good time.
Ben McKee, of Portland, combined business with pleasure in a visit to Sandy and the Ridge Sunday.
Ed. Suckow, of Sandy Ridge, was a business visitor Saturday.
Emil Palmquist, of Gresham, was here Monday in the interest of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company.
Gus Chowning, of Aims, was a business visitor Monday.
Miss Almelo Harris is employed at the Sandy hotel.
Tom Harris made a business trip to Troutdale Saturday last week.
U. Trunbhel is entertaining several people from Minnesota who are looking up new homes in this vicinity.

Dr. Short & Short
Physicians-Surgeons.
Gresham, Oregon

The Store that Made Sandy FAMOUS

BORNSTEDT'S Money refunded if goods not as represented

20-gal. Stone Jars

We have a few 20-gal. Stone Crocks which we are closing out at $2 each. This is about half the regular price and is worth coming a long way for.

We especially pride ourselves on our complete line of Dry Goods, Hosiery, Furnishings, Etc.
All Goods marked in plain figures.

FLOUR and FEED
— That's Where We Shine —

There are some people who TRY to undersell us but Try is all they do.

We pay 1c over market price for EGGS.

More Tips NEXT WEEK BORNSTEDT'S Sandy, Ore.

SANDY STAGE and LIVERY
NEWTON ORR, - PROP.

LEAVES Sandy for Boring at 6:30 a. m. and 2:00 p. m.
Boring for Sandy at 8:35 " and 4:45 "

Schedule subject to change without notice.

At Sandy Makes Connections with Salmon Mail Stage. Also makes connection for Aschhoff's and meets first car at Boring.

The Sandy Hotel
CHAS. E. LEWIS, Mgr.
Sandy, Ore.

The Famous Sandy Hostelry
Under new management. Pays special attention to commercial and transient trade.
Meals for Automobile Parties
Phone orders promptly attended to. Clean beds. Best of Home Cooking. Prices Reasonable.
Feed . Stable . in . Connection

MARMOT.
Adolph Aschoff has a very sore neck yet and complains of a very bad headache.
Messrs. Donahae and Chambers are still surveying around here.
E. T. Peake has sold his place to Mr. Aschoff.
Mr. Donahae has bought the Chas. Kyler place of H. E. Cross.
Mrs. W. B. Cook was a recent Portland visitor.
C. M. Pierce was a visitor in the metropolis a few days ago.
Our school started Monday with a fair attendance. Miss Robertson is the teacher.
Carl Aschoff is attending school in Portland.

Miss Margaret Aschoff is in Portland learning the dressmaking trade.

CHERRYVILLE
Mrs. Viola Kopper has returned home from a visit to her parents.
Ira Flynn has resigned his position as mail carrier and is moving back to Cherryville.
There was a dance and oyster supper given at the home of Luther Ware. It was well attended by the neighbors as well as many from Sandy.
J. R. Maroney is carrying the mail this week.
Clair E. Corey went to Oregon City last week.
Raincoats and umbrellas are doing a rushing business this week.

Orland Zeek, GENERAL Blacksmithing
AND DEALER IN
HARNESS, FARM IMPLEMENTS, BUGGIES and WAGONS
Pleasant Home, Ore.

Taken up—
One light-brown mare, weight about 700 pounds, blaze face, mane and forelock cropped, brand on left shoulder resembling M.
Owner can have same by paying expenses.
JAMES ROBINSON,
Four miles E. of Gresham, opposite Albert Chamberlin's.

YES,
We are busier every day, selling the best of everything to be had for the least money.
Let us quote you prices on good things to eat or wear
Flour, Hay, Barley, Bran, Shorts, Etc.

SCOVILLE,
COTTRELL, - - OREGON.
The name that stands for GOOD GOODS, FAIR DEALINGS, and RIGHT PRICES.