LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

MONTAVILLA, ORE., Dec. 17, 1908.
—There were received into membership of Grace church, Sunday eleven persons; two by letter and nine by baptism. One more professed faith at the close of last Friday's service.

The Grace Baptist young people had a very large and enthusiastic business meeting and social last week at the beautiful home of Mrs. Hammond on Ely street. Seven new members were received. The following officers were elected: President, Walter Peterson; Vice President, Miss Agnes Matlock; Secretary, Arnold Smith; Treasurer, John Trout; Organist, Henry Rider.

R. Curtis, recently of Minnesota, now living at 341 Broad street, Montavilla, has requested that he be placed on the subscription list of the local paper, Beaver State Herald. This spirit is certainly to be commended. Mr. Curtis is an intelligent citizen wants to learn all he can about his adopted community, and knows doubtless from experience that the quickest way to do this is to read the local paper. How different from this is the fellow who while getting his living here still adheres to the eastern home, and as far as possible sends his money there.

Death of Mary Rush Frey.

Mary Rush Frey, Mrs. Parker's mother passed away very quietly Saturday the Baptist denomination for eighty years. She saw the soldiers of the war of 1812 coming home; she has met the great missionaries Judson and Carey and has talked with them years ago.

She joined the first Baptist church that was organized west of the Allegheny mountains. She is the mother of eight children, four are living, (and as many gone before the living) are J. A. Frey,

Little Rock, Ark., W. S. Frey, Sterling, Pls., Mrs. M. R. Seaver and Mrs. Gilman Parker of Montavilla. She has twenty-three grand-children, thirty-six great grandchildren and one great great grand-
