

WATCH US GROW

We regard the steady continued growth of this institution as a credit to the enterprise of our business community as well as an evidence of the esteem in which our officers and our business policies and methods are held.

We invite you to make this bank the clearing house for your financial affairs. We want the small accounts of individuals as well as the larger business of firms. The wage-earner has need of the bank as well as the business man.

You will find no better or more opportune time than now to open that bank account. Your initial deposit, added to from time to time will soon assume such proportions that you will be surprised at your own efforts.

Begin depositing now, pay all your bills with your own check and see how much better you get along.

Card the Cows.
Farmers will find it profitable to card their cows regularly. The cattle enjoy it, and it does them good when confined in the stable during a long winter.

FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Ore., Feb. 12.—Campbell and McGaw have purchased the Rice farm, east of Fairview, on the Sandy road. There are 160 acres in the farm. The live stock was sold with the farm. F. L. Clemmens of Goldendale, Wash., has moved his family here and will take charge of the place.

C. G. Fancher has purchased the old Ledbury farm of 12 acres, situated south east of Fairview. They expect to move there in a few days.

Grant Shaw has moved his family into the Byers cottage. Mr. Shaw had one of his lower limbs quite badly crushed while loading his goods to move, but is able to be around on it.

W. Ellison has purchased from W. T. Vaughn lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10 and 12 in block 11, consideration $1000.

Little Rudolph Luscher, son of J. Luscher, who had both bones in his limb, below the knee broken by a heavy swinging barn door, several days ago, is now able to set up.

W. I. Swank of Portland, was here on Sunday in interest of the potatoes. There are still several car loads of potatoes to be shipped as soon as cars can be secured.

The O. R. & N. Co. are greatly inconvenienced by the crippled condition of the telegraph system. At present no message can be sent further east than Troutdale, except by a round-about circuit. F. S. Spaulding, chief dispatcher, of The Dalles, is stationed at Troutdale until the wires are again in working order.

The telephone poles along Sandy road, being badly rotten, were nearly all broken off by the sleet. New poles are being put up and it is hoped the line will soon be in use again.

A new bridge is being built in front of the Campbell-McGaw buildings. Two bridges at this place, one on the Sandy road, west of here, and a private bridge in the north part of town were washed out.

A. T. Axtell has some record breaking apples for keeping. He now has an apple which was picked in October 1905. Up to a short time ago he had several of them and they were perfectly sound and had retained much of their fine flavor.

Mrs. Wm. Ashcraft and Mrs. Wenger have been ill, but are around again.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. J. H. Heslin on Thursday afternoon of this week.

A. Whitney, E. Anderson and R. Anderson left Monday for Bridal Veil, to work.

Herbert Lee of Sellwood and Oral Snover of Portland, were visitors here Sunday.

Gordon Jones and wife of Portland spent Sunday with her parents, R. Hunter and family.

J. H. Townsend is grading his yard at his new residence on Sandy road.

The Grange will give a social in their hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 19th. Everyone must wear old fashioned clothes, or be subject to a fine of 10cts. Prizes will be given to the lady and gentleman wearing the most old fashioned costume. The ladies are requested to bring a basket with lunch enough for two. The baskets will be auctioned off after the program.

Friends of DeWitt Shepard were pleased to learn that he has been promoted to manager of Gunst & Co's store in Portland.

A. Kronenberg is having his residence on Sandy road painted.
