Russellville Doings

Special Correspondence.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ore, Feb. 15, 1907.
—Russellville Grange is progressing nicely under the management of the new officers.

The ritualistic work is being committed, and ere long we expect to be second to none in thorough work. The Odd Fellows hall in Montavilla has been secured for Pomona which meets with us March 20, 1907, when we anticipate one of the largest crowds during the past year. At our last meeting a committee was appointed to look up a hall site as the school house is not large enough to accommodate our membership at the present time.

The Russellville grange dramatic club will give a two-act drama, "Among the Breakers," on Friday evening February 22d. This club is composed of some of the most enthusiastic members of the grange and we hope to see a large attendance, as the young people have worked hard to bring this play up to the standard of a first-class amateur play. After the drama, votes will be sold at five cents each for the laziest gentleman present and the most popular lady. The laziest man will be awarded a cane with the name and number of the grange inscribed upon it and the popular lady will receive a spoon with a gold bowl and silver handle inscribed the same as the cane.

Grace Baptist Church Notes.

Rev. Gilman Parker was very much disappointed, because of a belated train, in not being able to get to the opening of the library and reading rooms on last Monday afternoon and evening.

The Young People's Society of the Grace Baptist church have been given the right of way to build a B. Y. P. U. assembly room on the rear of the church house. The following building committee has been appointed: W. G. Smith, Walter Peterson, Floyd Perkins, G. W. Newell, Alex Schawbauer, Arnold Smith, and Merle Matlock. Already plans are being perfected and a good portion of the money necessary is in hand.

Mrs. W. H. Lewis of Milwaukie was a visitor in the Villa last Saturday.

John Corkish, a property owner in the Villa, but who resides on the west side, was out looking after his interests here last Saturday.

Pupils Average High.

In the recent examination the ninth B class made an unusually good record. There were twenty-three in the class and all passed successfully. This is quite exceptional and reflects great credit, not only upon the pupils, but also their teacher, Miss Butler.

The highest average was made by Ruby Searls followed closely by Beattie Butler, Beatrice Card, Eva Hopper and May Cousins.

The full list of graduates is as follows: Myrtle Anderson, Mabel Blackburn, Beattie Butler, Edith Carlson, May Cousins, Beatrice Card, Edith Dawson, Lilah Dolan, Lelah Dolan, Eva Hopper, Edith Hathorn, Grace Lafollette, Eugenia Lundy, Allie Miller, Stella Ordway, Ruby Searls, George Carlson, Gustav Carlson, Walton Daniel, Fern Epton, Harry Newell, John Weeks, Herbert Johnson.

Reading Room Well Patronized.

On Feb. 12th the reading room was open for actual use. The reception of the night before had been a great success in every way, now the librarian was in her place, the books were upon the shelves, the room was cheery and inviting. The great question was, Were the people ready for this project, did it appeal to them and would they come?

Here are the figures, during the first four days there were recorded, three hundred visitors, fifty-four application blanks signed, and fifty-four books taken home. This seems to indicate a great interest and is an encouraging beginning.

The following have kindly donated old copies of magazines: Rev. Gilman Parker, Mrs. Adamson, Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. Ehlers, Mrs. Nettleton.

Also wish to acknowledge the Evening Telegram thrown in afternoon by August Hunderup, the carrier, and also the weekly copy of the Beaver State Herald.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

John Teuber is building an extensive addition to his residence on Villa avenue and Grove street. When completed Mr. Teuber will have one of the most attractive homes in the neighborhood.

The opening wedge in the matter of street improvements in the Villa is the improvement of Hibbard street. Another move will follow in near future.

quite ill at his residence on Broad street, near the Base line. Mr. Stover had an attack of the grip about a year ago, and has not been at all well since. It comes pretty hard on the old gentleman, for he has always led an active life, and is an enthusiastic sportsman.

Mrs. Lizzie Scott, formerly a resident of Portland, but for the past two years a resident of Seattle, died in that city last Friday night, after an illness of but a few days. W. L. Bartlett, a brother residing in the Villa, was called by wire and reached her side just as she expired. The remains were brought to Portland and the funeral services were held Sunday from F. Enley's undertaking parlors. The interment was at Brainard cemetery.

A movement looking to the consolidation of the two improvement bodies of the Villa is on foot. A committee consisting of Messrs Freeborough, Miller and Welch was appointed from the Board of Trade and one consisting of Messrs. Dickinson, Epton and Carter from the Improvement league. These two committees will meet and formulate a plan of action.

G. K. Howitt & Co., are planning to bid on the proposed improvement of Hibbard street. (That is right let others of the Villa follow suit. Ed.)

Mrs. S. C. Long, of Portland, was visiting her daughter Mrs. L. J. Tolls last week.
