CARD OF THANKS.

To the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of Father Johnson as well as the great sympathy shown us in so many ways, we wish to express our heartfelt thankfulness.

JONAS and SELMA JOHNSON.

FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Ore., Feb. 26, 1907.—The Y. P. S. C. E. have elected the following new officers: president, Miss Ivy

Cornett; vice president, Frank Sharp; secretary, E. M. Stone; treasurer, Miss Alta Wilcox.

C. G. Fancher has moved his family to his new home Southeast of Fairview, lately purchased from his mother.

L. L. Flanders has moved his family onto the old Osburn farm, now owned by N. M. McDaniels of Portland. Mr. Flanders formerly resided in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. N. Rice and grandson Lawrence Austin and Miss Florence Dawson, have gone to Salem where they will reside in the future. Mr. Rice will join them there soon.

F. L. Clemman's family have arrived and they have taken possession of the old Rice farm, now in possession of Campbell, McGaw and Zimmerman.

Frank Ellison has secured employment at Hood River and has had the household goods sent there.

Mrs. A. O. Jackson and daughter, Helen, have returned from a few days' visit with her mother at Corbett.

Miss Christine John left for Pendleton on Monday for a two week's visit with friends there.

Miss Waive Lewellen of Portland, was a recent guest at the home of W. Ellison.

Mrs. Frank Waters has returned to her home in Portland after visiting her parents, J. H. Stapleton and family here.

D. W. McKay has had a force of men at work clearing out a road in the South part of town.

G. O. Dolph and wife visited in Portland recently.

Miss Laura Luce, primary teacher here visited her parents at Forest Grove the latter part of the week.

C. C. Vaughn, who had not been seen on our streets lately, was here a few days ago on business.

C. S. Smith, of The Dalles, transacted business here the fore part of this week.

Mrs. A. W. Zimmerman of Portland, was a recent visitor here.

H. W. Mathison has rented a part of the Hoyt property for pasture.

The dynamo to be used in the new grist mill has arrived and is being installed. We hope to soon see the mill in operation.

The farmers are about the busiest people on earth now, getting off their last year's potato crop and preparing for the new crop.

Miss Susie Hall has gone to a hospital in Portland for treatment.

Mrs. Clark is quite ill with rheumatism.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Snider at 392 Broad street a twelve pound girl.

F. Copenhaver has just returned from Eastern Washington where he was called to attend the funeral of his brother, John, who together with a Mr. Stuart of Oregon City were accidentally drowned while crossing a swollen stream across the Columbia from Arlington.

Mrs. Linlen Jones, a trained nurse, is a guest at Hotel Montavilla.

Mrs. Lawson Parker has been suffering from the grip for some days.

The Montavilla ball team held a meeting last Thursday night and elected as follows: John Martin, manager; O. Stevens, secretary; John Weibusch, treasurer; Harry Weitzel, captain. The boys will commence practice as soon as possible and will keep a trained crew of fifteen men to select from. Out of twenty-four games played last season the Villas won eighteen.

Leander Lewis has let the contract for the building of a modern meat store for Giles brothers.

Owen McCarron, of Portland, has opened up a shoe shop on Base Line.

Frank Willard has sold his store building on Base Line road to A. L. Swain, of Grants Pass. George Barringer engineered the deal.

J. E. Redmond & Company have recently put up a new awning.

Ernest Huffman, of the Russ el Grange, has kindly consented to become grange correspondent for The Herald.

Mrs. J. W. Hook, who has been under treatment at the Good Samaritan hospital, is convalescent.

O. Stevens, for sometime past a firm disciple of Blackstone, and a prominent citizen of the Villa is being mentioned by his friends as a coming candidate for the office of justice of peace.

It is reported that a number of children in the Villa have gotten into the habit of petty thieving. A number of merchants are complaining and unless steps are taken by the parents to stop this sort of thing, something will be doing shortly.

A broad smile can be seen on the faces of a number of our citizens these days. The workers are united in their work of building up the Villa.
