More School Rooms Needed.

That Montavilla is growing cannot be denied when it comes to counting the children, and trying to crowd them into the present school building.

There is no doubt but a new school building will be provided to meet the requirements very soon.

The Montavilla Improvement League at its regular meeting Monday night took action looking to the relief of the situation by appointing a committee consisting of Messrs. Wm Deveny, Rev. H. Oberg and W. J. Burden who will confer with the school board.

It is the general opinion that a building of four rooms at least ought to be erected as soon as possible, north of Villa avenue on a block of land, and so constructed that additions may be added when needed.

With the present rate of increase in population and still greater increase which may come later it is none too soon to make room for all comers.

FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Or., March 5, 1907. — Howard Davis arrived here last Friday evening from Portland bringing with him a bride, found in the Rose City. Mrs. Davis was formerly Miss Ada Linville. They were married on Feb. 28, in the reception room of the White Temple by the pastor, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger. The noise of shotguns and old tin cans came from the direction of the Davis residence on Saturday evening.

The following new officers have been elected in the Artisan lodge. Installation will take place at the next meeting: master, O. H. Jenkins; pastmaster, G. H. Coupland; superintendent, Mrs. C. G. Coupland; instructor, F. H. Crane; senior conductor, Mrs. F. H. Crane; junior conductor, W. W. Ashcraft; master of ceremonies, T. M. Stensland; treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Axtell; secretary, Mrs. J. M. Ashcraft; inspector, John Peterson; warder, A. T. Axtell; E. A. Whitney, who has been master for several years and never missed a meeting, was re-elected but declined.

The ladies of the Methodist church have set Friday evening for their concert.

On Saturday evening March 16, the grange will give a social to which the neighbor granges are invited.

N. W. Rice and family has gone to Salem to reside. Mrs. Rice is reported to be quite ill, her recovery is doubtful. Mrs. B. Tonseth of Portland visited her parents Wm. Teggart and wife here on Sunday.

Mrs. C. G. Coupland came near losing an eye a few days ago, caused from too strong a dose of carbolic acid, with which she was treating it.

Mrs. E. J. Snow will reside in Portland in future. Mrs. Snow has been in Fairview for a number of years and will be missed.

Friends of Miss Susie Hall are very sorry to learn that she must undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Frank Axtell has returned from a visit at Cascade Locks.

Mrs. Axtell and Mrs. Adelane Axtell visited in Gresham on Monday.

S. A. John and wife are visiting in Portland.

Mrs. A. B. Moller will move into W. Ellison's cottage where she will reside while her new house is being built.

H. W. Mathison, J. T. Stillson and Roy Anderson were summoned as witnesses in the Vaughn-Stone case which was tried on Tuesday.

G. O. Dolph has gone East for a short visit.

C. Clark has returned from San Francisco, where he has been employed for a short time.

J. H. Townsend has purchased a fine new piano for his new home.

Mrs. Kealer of Portland, a former resident of Fairview, visited friends here recently.

Mrs. A. L. Stone entertained the Ladies Aid society of Smith Memorial church on Thursday afternoon.

The annual church business meeting was held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon, and was followed by a business meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. N. M. McDaniels of Portland, was here on business the first of the week.

Mention The Herald to your merchant. See if his ad is in this issue.

That Englishman who has invented a process of making rubber out of wheat probably took a hint from his boyhood experience of making chewing gum out of this wonderful cereal. Strange to say, he believes that in spite of the high value of wheat in the bread market the new product can undersell natural rubber. It is not likely that fear of competition from this quarter led King Leopold to unload his rubber plantations on the American syndicate, although royalty has done some pretty high financing before now.

Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross Presents Ideas

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the local branch of the Home Training Association was held March 1st at the school building. There was an unusually good attendance and a very good program.

The paper by Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross on "Home Occupations and Amusements" was enjoyed by everyone present. Mrs. Ross has some very practical ideas upon the subject and these coupled with her high ideals of motherhood and of homelife made her talk a real inspiration.

Every mother who realizes that "Home" means more than a place to eat and sleep, should attend these meetings.

The next subject is, "Art and Music, their value as a means of education." This will be presented by Mr. F. W. Goodrich, a prominent musician of Portland. Date, Friday, March 15; place, room 8 at the school building; hour, three o'clock.

Our Iron Supply and Demand.

In spite of the fact that the production of pig iron in this country in 1905 was nearly 40 per cent greater than in 1904, there was a substantial increase in value per ton, evidence that the demand kept pace with the volume of output at the furnaces. Not only that, United States Consul Fleming reports from Edinburgh that during 1906 there was felt in Scotland a sudden demand for Scotch iron in the United States. The home production of pig iron was recently stated officially as follows:

Twenty states in the Union produced pig iron in 1906. The total production of pig iron in 1905 was 22,922,380 long tons. This is an increase in quantity of 6,456,347 long tons, or over 39 per cent, over the production of 1904. It is an increase in value from $32,025,000 to $32,650,000, amounting to $625,000, or 64.12 per cent. The average price per long ton of pig iron increased from $14.13 in 1904 to $15.63 in 1906.

Owing to the enormous production in this country for several years back the United States ceased to figure as a buyer in the Scotch iron market. But a change has come over the situation, and rush orders have been placed with Glasgow firms since midsummer, 1906, from the chief consuming centers of the United States, notably New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston. A heavy shipment was made to New Orleans, the first for that port in over a quarter of a century. And Scotland has no reserve stock as compared with former years. Her reserve of 277,000 tons Jan. 1, 1906, had dwindled to 92,000 tons at the opening of 1906, a quantity less than that represented by shipments ordered by the United States in the course of a few weeks. Indications are that with the Americans making heavy bids in the markets of Scotland a condition of things may be created which will prove embarrassing for home consumers.

High Priced Legislators.

If a New York alderman is worth $2,000 to his constituents, then a congressman is worth more than $5,000 to his country. But if thirty-five state governors are worth $5,000 or less to their commonwealths then our congressmen are overpaid rather than underpaid for duties that keep them in Washington only a little more than one-third of the time.

This country has still the distinction of the highest priced legislators in the world. French and Austrian deputies are the best paid in Europe, yet they receive only $5 a day while parliament is sitting. The average pay in other countries is not one-fourth what it is in our own.

That official statement that the coal deposits of this country will hold out for 6,000 years "at the present rate of consumption" hasn't much consolation for people who buy it by the pailful at 10 cents per
