

W. E. MARKELL & CO.

Pleasant Home, Oregon

OFFER THE FOLLOWING UNPRECEDENTED BARGAINS:

500 yds. Embroidery.	7c to 31c
New Laces of all kinds from	3c to 10c
20c Voile.	12 1-2 to 15c
12 1-2c Dimity, now	8c
25 pieces New Gingham,	12 1-2c
Fancy Plaid Goods,	20c, 25c and 50c
New Prints, real bargains,	7c

Don't Forget our line of

PETERS' DIAMOND SHOES

For Men, Women and Children is complete.

We also have a complete line of Grass and Garden Seeds

THE ORIENT POSTOFFICE STORE

Gives you your money's worth in everything you need in

Stationery, Confectionery
Dry Goods, Groceries, Flour
Tinware, Hardware, Feed, etc.

J. N. Campbell, Prop.

ORIENT, ORE.

Now Get Busy . .

This is the time for farm work, gardening and home improvement. We have Tools, Seeds, Paints, etc.

Everything you would expect in a

First-class General Merchandise Store

S. W. SCOVILLE

COTTRELL, OREGON

LUSTEDS

Paul Bliss of Pleasant Valley was in this neighborhood last week.

Mr. Parker, of Portland, the pathfinder for the Mount Hood railroad company, stopped over night with E. D. Hamilton. He is looking up a new survey through this vicinity.

E. D. Hamilton and son Alfred took a beef to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. P. Eder went over and got Grandma Neibauer, one nice sunshiny day last week, to spend the day with her.

Miss Nettie Brown and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Brown, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Craswell this week.

Ross Manary made a trip to Portland a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Ed Hamilton visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton in St. John's several days last week.

Stephen Carper is visiting Ed Hamilton and family.

COTTRELL

Miss Ida Radford visited home folks last Sunday.

The assessor was visiting this vicinity last week.

Tom Lauderback while working at Proctor &amp; Beers mill was struck by a piece of broken belt. The side of his face was cut but he was not injured seriously.

W. A. Proctor is sick with the measles.

Why send your work elsewhere when we can do it for you here just as cheap and just as well or better?

Send us a trial order. We guarantee satisfaction.

BEAVER STATE HERALD, Gresham, Oregon.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS*SANDY.

C. L. Fox of Aims passed through Sandy Friday en route for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Junker have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of their infant son on the 6th of March. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2:30 p. m. and interment took place at the Sandy cemetery.

Nellie Ruegg of Cedarville is staying a week with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Bornstedt.

R. C. Murry of Sioux City, Iowa, is a guest of J. T. Friel of Cherryville.

Miss Dolly Alt of Firwood visited Annie Nelson for a few days last week.

George Wolfe of Dover took the stage for Portland Sunday.

Dode Copper of Cherryville is employed in the Sandy hoop factory.

Emily McElroy went to Portland last Friday.

Gus Logus of Portland called on Harry Gushoff over Sunday.

Mrs. Alfred Bell, who has been confined to bed for sometime, is about to be around again.

A. Olson is doing some carpenter work for Dr. McElroy.

It is reported that A. Olson has sold his place.

H. E. Klock was a Sandy visitor on Monday.

Newton Heddin of Cottrell was a Sandy caller Monday.

Marion Baritoni and Miss Teitz of Sandy Ridge were seen in our busy burg Monday.

Mrs. Hillman of Firwood is about to move to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Pridemore of the Three-Six settlement have just returned from Portland where they "looked pleasant" while the dentist bored away on their teeth. They showed their appreciation of The Herald by arranging for its regular visit to them during the coming year.

George Bornstedt made a business trip to Oregon City Tuesday.

Mine host of the Sandy Hotel, Casper Junker, has just installed a modern hotel double range, equipped with every known appliance for hotel kitchen work.

KELSO.

The basket social held in the Lutheran church Saturday evening was well attended, considering the notice given. The proceeds amounted to $8.15.

Proctor &amp; Beers are making preparations for putting in a new sawmill just above Kelso.

Mr. Scott is suffering from a stroke of paralysis affecting the left side of the face.

Miss Jordahl is at home for a short visit with her sister Miss Martha Jordahl.

Mr. Chapman has sold his mill.

The article in last week's Herald on "Make Them Partners" contains words of wisdom which it would be well for all fathers and mothers to heed. If you failed to read it look it up again.

DAMASCUS

A reception was held at Mr. Lingle's on Tuesday evening, March 12, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Angledo, before leaving for their future home in Nebraska.

Miss Ruby Cook will spend a few weeks with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and son Harold have been confined to the house for the last week with the grip.

The ladies sewing circle met at Reverend Johnson's and they spent a very pleasant and profitable afternoon.

New spray pumps and orchard spraying is the order of the day.

The teacher and pupils of the Union school sent a basket of nice things to the little Mattson girl, to help her pass away the long tedious days, while lying in a plaster cast, waiting for a fractured hip to mend.

The Damascus and Boring road is progressing rapidly under the management of Ed. Siefer.

Mr. Hobby is sick with the grip.

Mr. Potter had the misfortune to lose one of his horses.

A telephone meeting was held at Damascus on the 9th to try and effect an organization for the purpose of building trunk-lines to Oregon City, Gresham and Boring or at least half way to these places. Another meeting will be held on the evening of March 14 to further these plans. All interested should attend.

POWELL VALLEY

O. Brandberg has sold ten acres of land to Mr. Marklund of Portland who will build and make his home here in the future.

Carl Nelson has rented the "Lone Oak Farm" owned by F. L. Rugg.

Mrs. Thielsen is staying with Mrs. Ekstrom assisting her with her household duties during her illness.

P. N. Almquist is suffering from a severe attack of the grip.

Mrs. Lovgren and children visited at the home of C. P. Johnson Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedin of Sandy attended the funeral of J. E. Stone last Thursday and also made a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. Palmblad.

Miss Tillie Lind spent last week in Portland in order to be near her cousin, Edith Anderson, who has undergone an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital and is reported better.

Rev. C. A. Bobery left for Spokane last Friday after a few days' visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Conn are visiting with their brother-in-law, C. J. Unis.

HURLBURT.

L. H. Rickett and C. J. Littlepage went to Gresham last Monday, as delegates on some grange business.

Mrs. A. F. Johnson has been quite sick with bronchitis, but we are glad to report that she is a little better at present.

Mrs. S. Kingston, of Portland, is nursing her mother, Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Maud Graham made a trip to Portland last Saturday.

Rev. Geo. Houghton has rented the Gill place at Rooster Rock for the summer and will move there in the near future. He will engage in gardening.

O. B. Miller, wife and four boys, of Winterset, Pa., arrived here last Friday to make Oregon their future home. They were out here two years ago on a visit. Mr. Miller is a barber by trade, and his wife is a sister to Mrs. T. L. Evans, of this place.

Tom Evans and O. R. Miller went to Portland on business last Sunday.

Ward Evans accompanied his father to Portland Sunday.

James Ellis is in the neighborhood buying potatoes for Geo. Herren.

Lawrence Rickett went to Portland Saturday on his wheel.

Mrs. A. P. Hill and two children came out from Portland Sunday to make a visit with her parents at Springhill farm.

Miss Kate Ellis, of Portland, has been visiting relatives and friends here for a week, but was called home to be with her mother, who is sick.

Sadie—But how do you know he loves you if he hasn't told you so?

Margery—Oh, I can tell by the way he looks at me when I'm not looking at him.

Seeds : Seeds : Seeds

FLOWER

GARDEN

FIELD

Groceries, Dry Goods
Notions, Kitchenware
ETC.

DON'T FORGET THE GRAND DOLL SHOW
Saturday, March 30

Would like your dolls in show window one week in advance.

1st and 2nd prize.	Prettiest dressed doll.
1st and 2nd prize.	Best hand sewed dressed doll.
1st and 2nd prize.	Smallest best dressed doll.
1st and 2nd prize.	Largest best dressed doll.
1st and 2nd prize.	Most comic dressed doll.
1st and 2nd prize.	Most original hand sewed dressed doll with hand made hat.
1st prize.	Ugliest dressed doll.

The Sandy Hotel
FIRST-CLASS ACCOMODATIONS
Commercial Trade Solicited : : : Clean Beds and Good Meals
Feed Stable in Connection
Casper Junker, - - Prop'r
SANDY, - ORE.

SANDY STAGE and LIVERY

NEWTON ORR, - PROP.

LEAVES Sandy for Boring at 6:30 a. m. and 2:00 p. m.
Boring for Sandy at 8:35 " and 4:45 "
Schedule subject to change without notice.

AT SANDY makes connections with Salmon Mail Stage. Also makes connection for Aschoff's and meets first car at Boring.

UPPER LATOURELL.

Reverend Soule will preach a sermon on Easter morning at Mountain school. Everyone is invited.

Mrs. Frank Jarvis, of Fairview, is visiting Mrs. J. Deaver.

Mrs. Fred Rix called at Hick's one day last week.

Mrs. Fred Shoultz was out with the children Wednesday.

Miss Huff spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Portland.

Willis Hicks and James Ross have been on the jury this week.

Cecelia Woolward and Stella Anderson called on Mrs. Rix one day last week.

A. Woodward spent Sunday with his family.

It pays to advertise in The Herald; pays to patroize our advertisers.

MELROSE.

The ladies met at the parsonage last Thursday afternoon and organized a Ladies Aid Society. The following officers were elected, president, Mrs. J. Duke; vice president, Miss Grace Burns; secretary, Miss Helen Filkins; treasurer, Mrs. Strebin; devotional, Mrs. J. A. Wood.

Mrs. Kate Armstrong is very sick with the grip.

J. Eberlie returned recently from an extended visit with relatives in Ohio.

Miss Grace Burns spent Friday in Portland.

Harry Bramhall and wife visited at Sandy Monday.

Mrs. J. Duke will lead at Christian Endeavor Sunday evening. Topic, What is Success.

Mrs. Sam Strebin and daughter, Jennie visited in Troutdale Monday.

The Store that Made Sandy
F A M O U S

BORNSTEDT'S

Money refunded
if goods not as represented

Garden Seeds

The Kind that Grow

Grass Seed
and Field Seeds

of all kinds, also a full line
of GARDEN TOOLS

Washing is made easy

By using a "1900" WASHER

SHOES . . .

The PETERS
♦♦

The kind that wears

GROCERIES DRY GOODS HARDWARE

Notions and
.. Patent Medicines..
FLOUR and FEED
in carload lots

When you Compare our Goods and Prices with others you will take no other

Sandy, Oregon

More Tips Next Week