

Multnomah Pharmacy

E. R. McColl, Ph. G.,
TROUTDALE, ORE.

Mac Says:

"It is my intention to carry as complete a line of Drugs, Patent Medicines, Druggists' Sundries, Toilet Articles and Stationery as may be found in any well-regulated Pharmacy.

"If I haven't what you want, I'll be glad to order it for you and will have it delivered in the shortest possible time.

"My Stock is New, Fresh and Up to date."

FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Ore., March 26th—An entertainment and shadow social will be given by the school on Saturday evening March 30th in Axtell's hall. The ladies are requested to bring baskets.

J. T. Stillion is building a wire fence for W. Ellison.

A. H. Mc Kubne shipped a carload of hay to Portland.

J. P. Heslin is having his house repaired and renovated.

Mrs. Howard Davis visited relatives in Portland this week.

Major H. W. Love left a few days ago for several days sojourn.

J. O. Downing has rented the old Moller farm west of town.

Mrs. John Cook recently entertained Mrs. C. Jack of Portland.

J. M. Davis of Terry unloaded a carload of feed here the first of the week.

DeWit Shepard and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday with his parents C. Shepard and wife.

Mrs. Anna Heiney, of Portland, has been visiting her parents J. P. Heslin and wife.

R. Hunter has been making general improvements to the interior of the Home Hotel.

E. Smith and wife, Frank Axtell and wife and Mrs. G. O. Dolph and children were recent Portland visitors.

Mrs. J. M. Ashcraft entertained the Ladies Society of Smith Memorial Church last Thursday afternoon.

Ernest and Rodney Hall, Earle Tegtart, Chester Kronenberg and E. M. Stone spent Sunday with relatives here.

A private telegraph line has been put in by several of the young men about town for practise purposes. Roy Anderson is instructor.

John Shoemaker of Portland has moved into the C. E. Cree cottage in the southeast part of town and is employed by Grant Shaw.

S. P. and W. H. Osburn were here on business the latter part of last week. The Osburn brothers have gone into the real estate business in Portland.

J. P. Murphy of Portland and Miss Helen Moller, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Moller of this place, were married by Dr. A. Tompson at the Methodist parsonage at Gresham on Wednesday evening, March 28th. They left for their new home in Portland on Friday.

Mrs. Peter Peterson, who was badly burned at her home here last week, is recovering as fast as can be expected but will be confined to her chair for several days. The position of her wounds, being on her back and sides, makes it impossible for her to lie in bed. Her hands were also badly burned in her effort to put out the flames.

A. Fox, Troutdale

OREGON

Goods Sold Here at Saving Prices

10 lb. sack Graham,	$.25
2 pkgs. Grape Nuts,	.25
Lea & Perrin's Sauce,	.25
Baker's Cocoa, 1-2 lb. tin,	.20
3 pkgs. Bon Ami,	.25
Sapolio,	.08
10 lb. sack Corn Meal,	.25
1 lb. Postum or Figprune,	.20
Dement's Best Flour,	1.25
3 cans Tomatoes,	.25
3 " Corn,	.25
3 " Peas,	.25
Star Tobacco, 1 lb.,	.45
Deviled Ham,	.05
Pork and Beans, 3 for	.25
Carnation Cream, 3 for	.25
A. & L. Oysters (special),	.12
Golden Gate Baking Powder,	.39
K. C. Baking Powder, 25 oz.,	.25
4 lbs. A. and H. Soda,	.25
9 bars Swift's Soap,	.25

Who is Logan?

Why he is the man that came here fourteen years ago and started a peanut stand. Now he is dealing in anything you want to buy or sell from a needle to a threshing machine.

GARDEN SEEDS—ALL KINDS—GARDEN TOOLS,
ONION SETS, FLOUR and FEED, HARNESS EXTRAS,
FURNITURE—ALL KINDS—PATENT MEDICINES,
STOVES, RANGES, CROCKERY, FURNISHING GOODS

The Store that Sells Sunflower Shoes for style and wear

S. S. Logan, The Shoe Merchant
TROUTDALE, ORE.

A Fierce Job.

"Now, Demosthenes," said the professor, "was a peerless orator, and he had to contend with great difficulties. Perhaps, Mr. French, you can tell us what the principal difficulty was."

"Sure," replied the freshman; "he had to speak in Greek."—New York Life

The largest Stock of Patent Medicines in this Neck of the Woods at Saving Prices

Every - Day - Powder - Day

FULL STOCK OF

HARDWARE, TINWARE, BOOTS, SHOES, DRY GOODS, GROCERIES AND FEED

THE WANT ADS. BRING RESULTS. NOTE LARGE number on page 8. The people appreciate their usefulness. Others would read your ad. as you are reading now.

MILLINERY

Spring and Summer
Hats for Ladies and Children at Lowest Prices.

Call on
Mrs. Cora Anderson
FAIRVIEW, OREGON

We are Prepared . . . TO DO YOUR

Blacksmithing

Promptly and at reasonable rates

SPECIALTY OF HORSESHOEING

Jas. H. Latham,
TROUTDALE, OREGON

076 APR. 2

HARLOW, BLASER & HARLOW

Troutdale, Oregon

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

D 5.00

VALUABLE ASK US WHY

COMMENCING April 2, 1907, we will

Return to our Customers the entire Cash Receipts of one Day in each Month if Coupons are Presented between the 1st and the 10th of the succeeding Month

HARLOW, BLASER & HARLOW

General Merchandise

TROUTDALE, OREGON

TROUTDALE

Mrs. F. E. Harlow was a visitor at the metropolis this week.

Harlow, Blaser & Harlow are doing a big wood business this spring.

C. P. Brooks, Junior Past Chief Ranger of Foresters, is reported on the sick list.

Richard Latourell has returned from the hot springs, much improved in health.

The Union Meat Co. have just completed a private line from Troutdale to Portland.

The library entertainment recently given scored another big financial success for that enterprising association.

Deeks & Beech have completed the concrete work on the new O. R. & N. bridge and the steel gang will commence work in a day or two.

James Allison, formerly of the Cliff House, Bridal Veil, has purchased Hotel Troutdale of Mrs. Lockyear. Mrs. Lockyear will move back to Forest Grove, where she will enjoy life on the old farm.

The farmers on Staggerweed mountain and vicinity are building a trunk line into Troutdale. So are The Multnomah and Clackamas County Mutual Telephone company pushing their lines into this thriving little city. Then we have a city residence line carrying thirty-six phones which will soon be connected up with the prosperous farmers and business men of every where.

Several months ago the croakers were heard to say Troutdale is doomed, when the yards are moved she will die a natural death. Troutdale never had better prospects than now for future growth. On every hand is evidence of permanent improvement, backed as she is by some of the richest bottom lands in the state the business of market gardening alone would support and make prominent a much larger place than Troutdale. As an evidence of the faith the farmer and business men of this district have in Troutdale's future take the matter of telephones alone for the construction of which hundreds of dollars are being spent.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

A Capacious Wolf.

"The most exciting chase I ever had," said a red faced Munchausen to a little group of listeners, "happened a few years ago in Russia. One night, while sleighing over the snow clad steppes, I discovered, to my intense horror, that I was being pursued by a pack of fierce and hungry wolves. I fired blindly into the pack, killing one of the brutes, and to my delight saw the others stop to devour it. Their meal finished, however, once more they set after me, and inside of five minutes they had more than made up the distance lost by their delay. Again I fired, and again they paused to devour a fallen comrade. I kept on repeating the dose, killing one each time I fired, and each time the ever decreasing pack stopped I took advantage of the opportunity to whip up my fast flagging steeds. Finally there was only one wolf left, yet on it came, its fierce eyes glaring like balls of fire, its hungry fangs gleaming cruelly in the cold moonlight, its—"

The man sitting in the corner could stand it no longer.

"Why, man," he protested, "by your way of reckoning that last hungry wolf must have had all the rest of the pack in him!"

"Ah," said the red faced Munchausen without a tremor, "now that I think of it, he did wabble a bit."—Ridway's.

Different.

"Then Mr. Richley didn't really give according to his means?" said the minister's wife.

"No," replied the minister; "merely according to his meanness."—Philadelphia Press.