Dr. Fred Thompson visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, this week.

Little Hazel Shattuck has been suffering from headache and other ailments this week.

W. J. Wirtz arrived home Thursday night, looking much better than when he left here several months ago.

George Gordon goes to Idaho to join a party of surveyors opening an Indian reservation.

Mrs. J. F. Ulm attended court at Hillsboro Tuesday as a witness for the state in a robbery case.

Lafe Manning is visiting the home folks this week. He expects to return to Ranier in a day or two.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Turner, a daughter, on Friday, March 22, at the residence of William Byers.

Miss Mayme Hoss, who has been employed for several months past at the Herald office, has resigned.

B. S. Sharp of Fort Madison, Iowa, arrived in Gresham Thursday and is visiting with his uncle, W. H. Bond.

Miss Idyalla Brownhill entertained a number of her little friends Monday afternoon, in honor of her tenth birthday.

Mrs. Naugle of St. Johns, former resident of Gresham, underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital this week.

Howe & Lane, Watkin's popular agents, were making things hum around Gresham in their big automobile this week.

W. J. Forrester, fiscal agent for the Union Mining company in Lane county, was a caller at The Herald office one day this week.

F. B. Stuart returned on Tuesday from Monroe, Wash., where he had gone to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, H. H. Housome.

The many friends of Mrs. Ed Sleret, who has been in Portland for some weeks undergoing medical treatment will be glad to learn that she is rapidly recovering her usual health.

R. H. King of Grass Valley, Oregon, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Laura Barnes, and family. Mr. King is an old friend and neighbor of Ye Scribe and family and they are always glad to see him.

Rockwood Dramatic society played to a crowded house in Grange hall Thursday evening March 28. The audience was well pleased with the effort of the society and hope to hear them again in the near future.

Major H. W. Love of Troutdale and friend, W. T. Sherwood of Cleone, made the Herald Office a pleasant visit Monday. The major has been sick all winter and this was his first visit to Gresham since last September.

Rev. Silas Pitts, pastor of the Free Methodist church at Central Addition, Gresham, will begin protracted meetings at Gresham next Sunday. He will be assisted by Reverends Ely of Portland and Stubbs of Estacada.

All the art windows have been placed in the new Methodist church. It is expected to have it painted and entirely finished soon. Dr. Thompson announced on Sunday that it only remained to raise about $300 in order to dedicate the church entirely free of debt.

Geo. Sunday and son Melvin, with John P. Dodge of Ashland, Ore., were callers at the Herald office Saturday of last week. Mr. Dodge is an old acquaintance of one of the Herald force. He with his wife, who is a sister of Mrs. Sunday, expected to leave in a few days for their Southern Oregon home.

Discontinue my ad in your Want Column. What's the matter? Nothing, except I've sold out, that's all. Nothing like a Beaver State Herald want ad, as a business getter. If you have eggs, chickens, calves, cows, sheep, horses, pasture, or anything else for sale, there is no better investment than a want ad in The Herald. Everybody reads it.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning last Saturday evening in honor of their niece, Miss Alice Manning, who left for her home in Southern Oregon Thursday. There were about twenty-five present and the evening was spent in games and music. Refreshments were served and after singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the guests departed for their homes.

Herbert Smith of Forest Grove visited Mrs. J. F. Ulm Tuesday.

Wm. Ulm of St. Johns paid a visit to his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Ulm.

Little Jessie Maybee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Maybee, who has been sick for sometime was able to get out for a ride for the first time this week. The Herald acknowledges a pleasant visit.

Harry Thomas came from Wallowa on a short business trip on Wednesday. He reports conditions very favorable in Wallowa and vicinity. He says that Fred Lantz and L. E. Martin and families, former residents of Gresham, are well and prosperous.

James Goodfellow, one of Gresham's popular blacksmiths, who recently bought the old Tawney blacksmith-shop and lot has been doing some clearing and now has a beautiful building site in plain view of the creek, the railroad and depot, and is planning to build a nice home thereon in the near future.

Herbert Gould and wife arrived in Gresham from Montfort, Wisconsin, on Wednesday. They are old time friends of O. Thomas and family with whom he is stopping this week. Mr. Gould is a cabinet-worker, having made some exceedingly fine harps and other musical instruments.

"Diamonds and Hearts" the drama put on under the auspices of the Rebekahs at Grange hall last Saturday evening, received what it deserved, a large and appreciative audience. The acting of most of the people in the cast was fine, equal to the work of many professionals. The hall was crowded to the ante-room.

Mr. A. L. Maybee, whose strawberry ad has been running in The Herald, called at The Herald office last Tuesday to renew the ad for the Magoons but to discontinue for the Wilson strawberry, that variety having been entirely disposed of. Mr. Maybee said he had received orders from all over the country and considers Beaver State Herald one of the best advertising mediums in the state.

The Gresham Public Library and Reading room took a decided move forward at its meeting Tuesday evening of this week, when it was voted to move into the building formerly owned by D. W. Metzger, just east of the city hall. A committee was appointed to look after the furnishing of the new quarters and prepare for a public reception on Friday April 5, afternoon and evening to which all are invited. Mrs. Hattie L. Woestell was elected librarian to succeed Miss Alida Culy, who resigned. It is hoped arrangements will be made to make the new location permanent.
