LIBRARY OPENING VERY SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. Wostell Appointed Librarian - Will Be Open Every Afternoon.

The Gresham library opening last Friday evening proved a great success. A. L. Brewster of Portland presented some essentials in building up such an institution, good rooms, a good librarian and money were among some of the points made.

Miss Fox, assistant librarian from Portland laid special emphasis on the public character of the library, and expressed a desire that the people of the whole community would become interested in the reading matter placed here for their use. If special books are desired they can be ordered at any time during the week from the Portland library.

The music rendered by the popular Gresham orchestra, an instrumental solo by Miss Lucy Metzger and a bass solo by Prof. C. C. Baker were fully enjoyed by the large company present.

A light lunch was served at the close of the exercises by the ladies and the Public Library and Reading room was fully launched.

Under the new relation with the Portland library the rooms are open every afternoon and evening. Mrs. Hattie L. Wostell, librarian, will be in charge and as treasurer of the organization is prepared to receipt for all money for membership or annual dues. The privileges of the library are for everyone, free to all.

V. FREDRICKSEN WEDS MISS DURRELL

Popular Gresham Young Lady Will Grace Home of Portland Jeweler.

A very pretty wedding occurred last Wednesday night, April 17th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Durrell when, in the presence of numerous relatives and friends, their daughter, Mae, was married to Mr. V. Fredrickson of Portland. Dr. A. Thompson, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

The parlors, hall and stairway were artistically decorated in ivy, Oregon grape and cherry blossoms. The ceremony was performed under a decorated arch and a large white bell. Miss Clytie Stuart played the Lohengrin bridal march, and also played during the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Ralph Miller, who acted as matron of honor. Miss Jean Miller and Miss Mary Wilson were bridesmaids. Little Jean Durrell was ring bearer. Mr. Ralph Miller was best man.

The bride was beautifully attired in white crepe de chine and lace and wore a veil. She carried an arm bouquet of Easter lilies. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room which was decorated in pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson left for Portland in an automobile. After a short trip, they will be at home to their many friends after May 1 at 538 Hibbard street.

GRESHAM LOCALS

In the ad of Northway and Littlepage calling attention to their Percheron and Coach stallion, Prince Otto, two mistakes were made in this office. First, to insure $20.00, when it should have been $12.00 the correct price, second, the cut used was made from a pen drawing of a Percheron horse, and in no sense does justice to Prince Otto, for he is as pretty as a picture, having all the ambition, style and carriage of the coach backed by the weight and handsome appearance of the Percheron. By reading this week's ad our readers will notice the difference.

Ed Sieret called at the Herald office this week. A mistake had been made in his subscription account, but he did not yell about it, just adopted his usual good common sense way. Came right to the office and called our attention to the error, we plead guilty, promptly made the correction and Ed was satisfied.

The family of Roy Gibbs has been having a serious time of it for the past few weeks. Mrs. Gibbs has been suffering from erysipelas for some time and is but slowly recovering. A trained nurse having been secured for her benefit. Miss Leleh Gibbs has had a mild attack of appendicitis, but is again able to be around.

Rev. Thomas Maxwell, recently of Silverton, called at The Herald office. He is on the way with his family to Stacyville, Iowa, where he is appointed pastor of the Methodist church. He leaves many friends and well wishers in this vicinity, having been pastor last year at Fairview and Pleasant Home.

The Herald acknowledges a pleasant call from E. R. Wright this week. Mr. Wright is one of the many farmers who are making a success of farming in Powell Valley. Strict attention to business and modern farm methods is enabling him to make one of the most productive and best improved farms in the country.

Road Supervisor, George Kenney has a crew of eight men opening a relocation of the Regner road. This road when completed will give an easy grade to the top of the hill and will connect with the new road being opened up from Damacus to the Clackamas County line.

Mrs. F. B. Stuart, while walking across the street in front of their store last Saturday stumbled and fell, striking her face near the eyes across a projection of the curb, very materially affecting the appearance of the face, especially her eyes. She is, however, rapidly improving.

E. E. Roberts and wife of Silver Lake, Oregon, are visiting old friends in Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts have disposed of most of their holdings in the upper country and are looking for a location in or near Gresham which, by the way, used to be their home.

Alva Hevel was in Gresham this week and while here he arranged for the weekly visit of the Herald another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Brownhill made a hurried business trip to The Dalles last Saturday, returning Sunday.

C. L. Crenshaw's youngest son, Frank was attacked with fever the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Sylvester Bond and children, of Portland, are guests this week of Mrs. Laura Barnes.

Mrs. Chas. Cleveland was doing business in the metropolis last Friday.

Bert Wheeler of Troutdale was caller at the Herald office last Saturday.

H. L. St. Clair was on the sick list the fore part of the week.

Mrs. J. F. Uim was a caller at this office Monday.

At a meeting of the Library Association held last Tuesday evening, resolutions of thanks were voted to all those who assisted in making the recent opening a successful affair. E. C. Lindsay was also voted the thanks of the association for the gift of the two 8-foot reading room tables. The committee on improvement reported on their special work which was received and a new committee was appointed to report at next meeting, April 23, some definite plan for a permanent home for the library. It is hoped there will be a good attendance of the members at that meeting.

What came near being a disastrous runaway, happened on the outskirts of town Sunday morning. A team of horses, hitched to a milk wagon, became suddenly frightened and started to run. For awhile milk cans had full sway of the road, but the pluck and clear head of the driver saved the day.

A May Day entertainment will be given by the primary classes of the Methodist Sunday School, in Grange hall, Gresham, April 30, 8 p. m. Program to consist of songs, recitations and exercises by the children and others will be given. Admission, adults 25c, children 15c. All are cordially invited.

The orchestra heretofore known as the Gresham orchestra, has been reorganized under the name of, Elite orchestra, and will give an entertainment in the Grange hall, Saturday evening, April 20, for the benefit of the orchestra and Grange. The program will be found elsewhere.
