ROCKWOOD

Mrs. J. Quinn is home from her trip. Joe Mendahl was out from Portland, Sunday, visiting friends.

Dexter Quesinberry is employed in a barber supply house, in Portland.

Mrs. Cora Robertson, of Barton, has been visiting Rockwood friends the past few days.

Rockwood's literary society will serve ice cream to its members, Thursday, eve, the 10th.

Rockwood's Grange social, given Friday evening, was well attended. A nice program was rendered, and a good time enjoyed by all.

Quite an exciting game of baseball was played Sunday afternoon, between the juvenile team of Rockwood and Columbia View. The score at close stood 17 to 8, in favor of Rockwood.

A horse belonging to Mr. Duda was run over and killed by an automobile, on Saturday night last. The number of the machine was found in the road after the accident. The owner will try and recover damages.

Old Resident Passes Away.

On Saturday morning, May 11, Mrs. Mary Eliza Cotte, wife of Mr. John Cotte, of Cottrell, passed from this life after a brief illness. She had been unwell all winter but had somewhat recovered, and had taken up some of her household duties, when stricken with pneumonia, lasting but a few days.

Mrs. Cotte was born in County Essex, England, November 4, 1827, where she grew to womanhood, being united in holy wedlock to her husband in 1842.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotte were both remarkable singers in their early years, and were members of the Baptist church. Coming to Oregon in 1882, they settled on the place that has been their home ever since, near Cottrell, where Mother Cotte endeared herself to all who knew her. Besides the husband she leaves one daughter, Mrs. E. Dickinson and one son, Charles.

FAIRVIEW

An enthusiastic meeting of the Civic Improvement club was held last Monday evening. The theme of the meeting was the uniting of the efforts of all Fairview citizens for the advancement of the town, and was emphasized in speeches by W. Ellison, E. A. Whitney and A. L. Stone. The matter of disposing of rubbish, collected on streets and paved ground, was brought up by Mrs. A. L. Stone and committees were appointed and plans laid to accomplish the task. The matter of securing a home for a library and reading room was also discussed and it was decided to erect a suitable building for the purpose. A special meeting was called for Monday evening, May 27, at which time a rousing meeting is expected. A literary program is being prepared and refreshments will be served. Everyone in Fairview should attend this meeting.

A regular meeting of the Improvement League was held last Monday night. Arrangements were made for a grand rally of citizens at a special meeting to be held on Monday night, May 27. A lunch will be served free to all present. As matters of great moment to all the people of this vicinity are to be considered, it is expected all will be present.

F. L. Boederfield of Portland has purchased 31 acres of the Strucken farm, situated west of town, on the Sandy road. Mr. and Mrs. Boederfield have moved on the farm and will make their home here. The farm with the livestock sold for $5500.

Mrs. Kathrine Kelly of Portland has purchased from Oxborn Bros. the Wm. Ivers property, a cottage and six lots, situated near the center of town. Consideration, $1100.

C. Palmer of Portland has moved his family in the J. Luscher house and will take charge of the farm during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Luscher. Mrs. Palmer is a sister of Mrs. Luscher.

G. E. Weyer left a few days ago for Alder, Colo., where he expects to reside in the future.

Mrs. A. W. Zimmerman and daughter, Miss Rae, have returned from a few days' visit in Portland.

Mrs. Lulu Ott and Mrs. Lulu Anderson of Portland were Sunday guests of Mrs. Ott's parents, J. H. Cook and wife.

Thomas Miller and wife of Springfield, Ore., were recent guests of Mrs. Miller's parents, G. W. Zimmerman and wife.

B. Tonseth and wife spent Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Rine Cook has returned to Ufall, Wash., after a few days' visit with her parents here. Miss Rachel accompanied her.

Misses Lucy Higgins, Daisy Wilcox, Edith Jenkins, Misses Zimmerman, Ernest and Rodney Hall, Earl Tegar and E. M. Stone spent Sunday with relatives here.

Frank Waters and wife of Portland were recent guests of J. H. Stapleton and wife, Mrs. Waters spending several days here.

E. A. Whitney and E. Anderson are at their homes here this week. They will soon begin the erection of a residence for E. Cummings at Gresham.

K. Armstrong and wife of Portland are making their home here now at the residence of J. T. Stillian.

Rev. C. E. Crandall made a trip to Hood River this week.

Rev. George McKinley of Spokane visited friends here the first of the week on his return from a visit to his fruit farm up the valley.

Schopenhauer on Erudition.

So it is that much reading deprives the mind of all elasticity. It is like keeping a spring continually under pressure. The safest way of having no thoughts of one's own is to take up a book every moment one has nothing else to do. It is this practice which explains why erudition makes most men more stupid and silly than they are by nature and prevents their writings obtaining any measure of success.

The Good Boy.
Little Jack Prindle was being brought up very carefully and religiously. One evening after tea in the presence of company he said to his mother, "I've been a good boy today, haven't I, mother?"

"Yes, you have, Jack dear," his mother answered.

"I didn't forget to take off my rubbers, and I didn't forget to put them away behind the door, did I?"

"No, Jack dear."

"And I haven't slammed any doors all day long?"

"No, my dear boy."

"And I didn't forget to say grace after dinner, and I have been good all day long. I haven't forgotten a damn thing."

Mrs. Prindle burst into tears in spite of her guests.

An Agreeable Settlement.
Merchant (to colored man Tony)—Here, say, Tony, how about this? You are not going to make enough to pay both me and the debt you owe to Mr. Knox. What are you going to do about it? I'm really getting anxious, you know.

Tony—Well, I tell you, Mas' Eugene. I bin 'volv'in' dat question in my min' fur nigh two weeks, an' dis is de way I 'volve it—I'm gwine to pay you an' gwine sy'pathize wid Mr. Knox.
