

Harry Wood

of PORTLAND begs to announce to the public of Gresham and vicinity

That he has

Purchased the Meat Business of T. R. Howitt

of Gresham, has thoroughly renovated the building formerly occupied by Mr. Howitt and is now open and has on sale a fine line of GOVERNMENT INSPECTED MEATS of all kinds, at prices consistent with the season and first-class product. Right here Mr. Wood wishes to say to all customers and prospective customers that prices of stock are higher at this time of the year than for many years, but that he confidently expects a change for the better inside of 30 days, which will mean reduced prices to his customers. Regular routes have been planned by Mr. Wood which will be covered by as many wagons as is found necessary to do effective work. If you are not on a route phone or call at the market and make your wants known.

His motto to the people of Gresham and vicinity will be

A Square Deal to All

Thanking you in advance for a liberal patronage, sincerely yours,

Gresham, Oregon

HARRY WOOD

LARGE AUDIENCES ATTEND DEDICATION

Generous Subscriptions Pay for New Organ and Meet Other Expenses.

The new Linnemann Memorial Methodist church at Gresham was dedicated last Sunday. A splendid program for the day had been arranged and the services were well attended. Dr. J. H. Coleman, president of Willamette University, preached an excellent sermon in

NEW LINNEMANN MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH, GRESHAM Which was dedicated last Sunday

Liar." was given in the pavilion Friday evening by the Garfield Grange Dramatic club and a large crowd was present.

MELROSE

Mrs. Sam Strebin and sister, Mrs. Jerry Duke, visited in Portland Saturday. Miss Geneva Roades left for her home in Sellwood last Saturday. Quite a number from Melrose attended the dedicatory services at Gresham Sunday. Miss Geneva B. Roades closed a very successful term of school last Friday. A short program was rendered the Wed-the morning; Rev. John Flynn of Portland preached in the afternoon, relating some experiences of pioneer life, and Rev. J. W. McDougall of Albany gave a strong sermon in the evening. Rev.

REV. JOHN FLYNN

Who with Mrs. Flynn is spending the week with Gresham friends. At nearly 92 years of age he is hale and hearty, takes long walks and is as active as a boy.

nesday preceding, owing to the eighth grade examinations.

There have been several telephone meetings held in this vicinity. The farmers are very enthusiastic and it is hoped we will soon have a line.

Mrs. Jacobs of Fairview visited with Mrs. McKay last Thursday.

Mrs. A. A. Wright and little granddaughter visited Mrs. Sam Streben on Sunday.

The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. John Bramhall last Thursday.

Sim Stafford and son, Arthur, are visiting with his mother, Mrs. S. A. Stafford.

Rev. Wood, who has been taking medical treatment in Portland, has been greatly benefited.

Mrs. Campbell visited Mrs. A. L. Baker Monday.

Mrs. Summers of Silverton is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. B. Conrad.

Miss Mary Armstrong was the guest of Mrs. Helena Holmes Saturday.

Stafford Bros. are building a large hay barn for their brother, John Stafford, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bramhall made a business trip to Terry Monday.

SECTION LINE

Mrs. James Dickson has nearly recovered from her late attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. D. Roeb, whose home is in New Jersey, is out from Portland on a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amstiger. Oregon, as usual, has made a very willing conquest as they are reluctant to return to the East.

Mrs. J. Bills of Oakland, Cal., formerly Miss Tessie Kronberg, is here in Oregon on a visit to old friends. She left with her little daughter for The Dalles last evening, where she will participate in a large wedding in her husband's family and at which function her little daughter, Marie, will act as flower girl.

UPPER LA TOURELL

Charlie Nelson of Springdale has been appointed road supervisor, instead of R. P. Rasmussen resigned.

Peter Brown is making lots of improvements on his new place; both he and his wife seem to be rustlers.

L. Floss, an old neighbor, called on friends in this vicinity last Sunday.

W. James has rented his ranch to his nephew, and expects to take a rest—a little bird was telling us that he is going back to England and fetch out a wife.

M. Lund is very busy hauling lumber for his new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross drove to Troutdale Saturday.

Charlotte Huff of Mountain school has planned a picnic at Multnomah Falls, on the last day of school. Launches

A. D. Wagner of Sellwood led in a good young people's praise service.

In the morning a call was made for $400 to pay for the new pipe organ and about $460 was pledged. During the afternoon and evening about $200 additional amount was raised to apply on pastoral support.

Gresham is to be congratulated on its beautiful new house of worship which stands as a conspicuous evidence of the interest and ability of the people and the high ideals and untiring efforts of the pastor, Rev. A. Thompson.

ESTACADA

E. Crawford, who has been working at Sellwood, is building several cottages at Cazadera for the employees of the electric power plant.

One hundred cords of wood, belonging to Mr. Morris were burned during the recent dry spell.

The Eagle Creek Grange met last Saturday and a class of eight new members was initiated.

The new Methodist church of Estacada will be dedicated Sunday, June 3.

Mrs. D. M. Marshall spent Saturday in Portland.

Marion De Shields, who has been working in a logging camp down on the Columbia river, spent several days with friends and relatives here recently.

The comedy drama, "The Cheerful

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lennertz visited Mr. W. Craswell and family last Sunday.

Miss Mand Manary visited her parents over Sunday.

Ruby Goulet who has taught a successful term of eight months' school here. There were about fifty present and a very enjoyable time was had. Home made candy was served during the evening.

Quite a number from here attended the dedicatory services of the Methodist church at Gresham Sunday.

PLEASANT HOME

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sloop, a girl, May 21.

Mrs. Jack returned Tuesday from a month's visit with relatives and friends at Woodburn, Oregon.

H. McGinnis has returned from Kelso, Washington, where he has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. H. Sloop has finished setting out his 10 acres of hops.

Enmet and Harry Ellsworth has just finished their contract of cutting wood for Walter Sin Clair.

Arthur Rich has purchased a fine team.

Victor Johnson made a business trip to Portland last week.

Miss Mary Hughes and Mrs. Blanch Flemming of Centralia, Washington, Miss Alice Stephens of Portland, Mrs. G. W. Lee, Harry Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lee of Clarks, Ore., attended the funeral of their relative, Mrs. Clarence Stephens.

Miss Edith Mumpower of Stone, Ore., has returned home after visiting with her friend, Miss Aarlieha Cannon.

Mrs. Chase's baby has the whooping cough.

THREE-SIX

Three-Six is still alive and the gardens are all booming.

The people of Three-Six miss the sweet presence of Mrs. F. T. Ramsey, who has returned to her home in Greeley, Colorado.

Mrs. L. J. Ramsey has returned from a week's visit in Portland and other points.

B. A. Beach and C. Coffman have gone out to work a couple of months.

Mrs. L. L. Beaudette, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. F. Pridmore, is on her way to Los Angeles to visit her son.

POWELL VALLEY

A team of horses belonging to R. M. Mc Bride, cream collector for Vetch, ran away down the Tacherson hill. Some cream was spilled, but no serious damage occurred.

The Herald will help you in buying what you want and in selling what you have to sell.

thinks now that he will be able to save the leg.

Homer Johnson and wife of the Golden West Hotel of Portland visited relatives here for a few days last week.

GAGE ITEMS

James Pounder was down here last Sunday evening on business relative to the W. O. W. order.

Our mail carrier, A. S. Kinkaid, is on the sick list, but we hope to see his smiling countenance among us again soon.

Mrs. E. T. Preston is recovering after a very serious illness.

Sven Magnusson of Powell Valley was seen in this neighborhood Sunday.

John Bilberg is building a new and very convenient addition to his large barn.

EAST SECTION LINE

Mrs. E. Mueller and son from George, Oregon, formerly of Gresham, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allshouse last week.

Mrs. B. Dahlhammer made a purchase of a riding cultivator and expects to attend to his potatoes in proper shape.

Mrs. James Dickson has been on the sick list the past few days.

Mrs. J. H. Dickson has been ill for some time past.

Mr. and Mrs. Level were out last Sunday improving their farm.

P. Broly called on Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Sunday.

Willie McKeown spent Sunday at home with his parents.

The young boys of this section are organizing a baseball team.

WELCH'S

W. L. Edwards has accepted a position as head cook for Hanson's upper camp. He takes the position of Mr. Marquis who is filling a place in the engineering crew.

S. E. Price is at present registered at Hotel Welch's.

P. S. Hanson has moved his engineering crew to Welch's camp where he will stay indefinitely.

C. W. Kern and wife accompanied by Miss Gladys Welch recently made a trip to Portland.

Mr. Bell has sold his farm to Mr. Sigfried who intends to make improvements on same.

R. V. Sifton, formerly in the employ of the Portland Seed Co., accompanied by his dog "Skeels," has moved to his homestead on "Zig Zag," where he intends making extensive improvements.

Miss Mae Strange is contemplating teaching another month of school.

August Horneker leaves for his mines up Big Sherry tomorrow.

Chas. Kief of Portland was registered at Hotel Welch's for a few days, but left for the city again this morning.

Quite a crowd of our young people attended the dance at Sandy Saturday night. All report a good time.

Mr. Donahue of Boring made us a flying trip this week.

The P. S. Hansen engineering crew are breaking the record for swift work, doing more Saturday than they have any day previous.

Wm. Welch is building a new road on top of the hill.

P. S. Hansen has returned from Portland accompanied by his wife and daughter, who will remain at Hotel Welch's for a short outing. Miss Hansen has been quite ill and is here for her health.

LUSTEDS

B. J. Goff of the Dalles spent a few days at the home of George Lusted last week.

Frank Wostell and family of Gresham spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Lusted of Lusted.

L. A. Davies attended his brother's wedding at Gresham Monday.

John Sleret went to La Grande last Monday.

A surprise party was given to Miss

Correspondence

SANDY

George Oakes, O. Shidler and Joe Wall of Salmon River were Sandy visitors Saturday.

Chas. Oleson's mill crew went on a strike about a week ago. The trouble was settled, however, so work was postponed only two days.

A large crowd was present at the dance given in Junker's hall Saturday.

J. W. Orr, the popular proprietor of the Sandy stage and livery business, has invested in a four-horse stage-coach. It has a comfortable seating capacity for twelve passengers and is as up-to-date a vehicle as ever was put on the road and indicates Mr. Orr's knowledge of his business. He bought the Sandy stage business about two years ago and by strict attention to business, has built up a good livery business in connection with the stage line.

A difference arose between some cowboys and loggers here Saturday evening. It was proven beyond a doubt that the logger is king in this vicinity.

A jolly crowd from Bullrun attended the dance here Saturday evening.

Miss Alice Haley visited at her home here Sunday, returning to Portland Monday.

Mrs. J. Boshelm and daughters made a trip to Portland last week.

John Macleo had the misfortune of fracturing a bone in his forearm while employed at the Strauss mill last week.

Aims was well represented in Sandy Saturday evening, about twenty-five people being here from that locality.

John Maroney, Sr., who was taken seriously ill Wednesday of last week, is improving.

George Kitzmiller of Dover got a severe cut on his hand while working at Fox & Masterton's logging camp at Aims last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robertson of Dover transacted business in Sandy last week.

George Wolf and Joseph DeShazer of Dover are improving their property by building large barns.

Mr. Mowry of Portland was raising timber in Three-Six last week.

Chaney Coffman of Three-Six transacted business in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen went to Salmon River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kern drove to Portland Thursday of last week.

WANTED—A mail carrier for Casper Junker, Bornstoltz & Sons and J. B. Towney, the former carrier having resigned.

HURLBURT

Miss Olive Doech of Terry spent last Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Fitzgerald.

Mr. Fitzgerald and family spent Sunday with his father, on the Sandy road, west of Cleone.

Mrs. Mand Graham and children, Guy and Erna, were callers on Mrs. Kate Rickert Sunday afternoon.

F. F. Floss of Egypt was in this vicinity last Sunday calling on friends. Mr. Floss is going to purchase a phonograph to cheer up his lonely cabin.

It is reported that Jim Pounder has rented the Linderman place for the summer and is going to plant part of it to potatoes.

M. Rickert made a business trip to Cleone last Monday.

Joe Neely has quit the sawmill business and is working by the day. It is reported that he has taken a homestead.

Rev. George Houghton of Rooster Rock called on friends here Saturday and Sunday.

E. G. Rickert made a business trip to Troutdale last Saturday.

Mrs. Udey and daughter of Egypt called on Mrs. Kate Rickert last week.

Sig Knighton, who broke his leg recently, is improving and the doctor

ORLAND ZEEK, the Pleasant Home Blacksmith

Wagons, John Deere Buggies, Farm Tools and Machinery Heavy and Light Harness, Harness Extras, Horse Brushes and Whips

Best quality. Lowest prices. Hercules blasting powder, delivered any day. PUBLIC SCALE FOR WEIGHING.

MILLINERY.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Spring and Summer Hats Children's Embroidery Hats, Babies' Hoods

NEW AND UP-TO-DATE LINES

We give every baby in the community its first pair of shoes, free.

THE DOUGLASS STORE, PLASANT HOME, ORE.

The Sandy Hotel

First-class accommodations Commercial trade solicited Clean beds and good meals

Feed Stable in Connection

CASPER JUNKER, Prop. Sandy, Oregon

Sandy Stage and Livery

NEWTON ORR, Proprietor

Sandy for Boring.....6:30 a. m. Boring for Sandy.....8:30 a. m.

At Sandy makes connections with Salmon mail stage. Also makes connections for Aechoff's and meets first car at Boring.

DECIDE

The Thoroughbred Percheron Stallion

Owned by the Gresham Percheron Horse Association, can be found at W. F. McKinney's barn, Pleasant Home, Wednesdays; Boring, Thursdays; Thos. Brigger's barn, Gresham, Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

DECIDE is five years old, a jet black, sleek finished, very quiet in disposition, active and handsome as a picture, weighs nearly 2000 pounds, and is a carnival weight.

For further particulars write to THEO. BRUGGER, Sec'y, Gresham, Ore.

belonging to C. Knieriem and L. Reed will convey the children to that place.

The young people gave Miss Anna Benfield a surprise on her nineteenth birthday. A jolly time was reported by all who participated.

Miss Stella Anderson has been on the sick list the past week, but is convalescent.

J. Deaver made a trip to Portland one day last week.

SPRINGFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Neely were Portland visitors last week.

Mr. Huff who has been living at the mill, recently moved to Portland.

John Rayburn has returned home from Everett, where he has been visiting his brother.

S. L. Taylor was a visitor of Portland one day last week.

Mr. Miller is building a new barn.

Mrs. Izman has been very sick.

EGYPT

Mr. Wilson accidentally ran over one of his little boys a few days ago, with a wagon load of feed.

Mr. Gebhardt has returned from Eastern Oregon where he has taken up a claim.

Gus Arndt, Mrs. Vail and Mr. Burk-

Mrs. Vail and Mrs. Gebhardt made a flying trip to Troutdale last Thursday.

holder were guests at the home of Mrs. Gebhardt Sunday evening.

Mrs. Isermen is quite sick.

Death of Mrs. Florence Stephens

Mrs. Florence E. Stephens, wife of C. W. Stephens of Pleasant Home, died suddenly last Saturday, leaving her husband and four little children, a mother and two brothers to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Stephens was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lee of Clarks, Oregon, where she was born November, 21, 1880. On April 26, 1900, she was married to Clarence W. Stephens, residing at Clarks until December, 1901, when the family removed to Pleasant Home, where she made herself a devoted wife and mother. A host of friends sympathize with the family in their untimely loss.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank the kind friends and neighbors who so lovingly extended to us their sympathy in this our hour of sad bereavement in the loss of a loving wife and sister realizing more than ever that "a touch of sorrow makes the whole world kin."

MRS. S. M. LEE AND FAMILY

MRS. BLANCH FLEMING

MRS. AMY ALTMAN

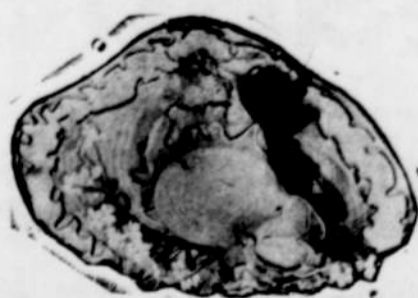

MRS. J. S. JOHNS

ALICE STEPHENS

C. W. STEPHENS

BORNSTEDT'S SANDY, OREGON

Just Arrived . . . Try Acme Chop for Cow Feed

Nice Line Ladies', Misses' & Children's HATS

Trimmed and Untrimmed. Straw hats in endless variety.

We expect to get a few more "1900" Washers this week. Be on hand if you want one. People are getting to know what they are. Ask anyone who has one.

"1900" Washer

WHY GO TO PORTLAND

When you can save money by buying of

J. B. TAWNEY

Sandy, Oregon

We handle anything in the line of Wagons, Buggies, Farming Implements, Harness Moline and Peter Schutler Wagons, Acme Harvesting Machinery, etc.

Give us a call and be convinced.