ROCKWOOD

Rockwood school will close on Friday the 31st, with a picnic. Miss Meredith has been engaged for the ensuing term.

Mrs. W. Quesberry has been quite poorly again.

Early strawberries are ripening in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Miller called on Mrs. D. L. Herring Sunday.

G. B. Prettyman, who had his leg broken about two weeks ago, is at home. He has the limb encased in a plaster cast. The doctor thinks it will be three months before he will be able to be around. Mr. Prettyman was badly bruised besides having his leg broken.

Mr. F. Smith and wife of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Minnie Brown.

Mr. Childers and family have moved into their new house near here.

Some repairs are being made along the road running south of the M. E. church at Rockwood.

TROUTDALE

Three horses were killed by eastbound O. R. & N. train, No. 6, at the crossing between here and Fairview Saturday evening. One of them, a fine Belgian mare, lodged on the cowcatcher and was carried to Troutdale, and when removed a live baby mule was taken from the mangled body. The mule was quite an attraction in Troutdale on Sunday and was displaying the mule qualities to such an extent that all kept a respectable distance from her heels. She has been given the name of "Mandi" and is being well cared for by her admirers. The two Belgian mares were valued at $1,000 each and were the property of the Sun Dial Ranch at Fairview. A Portland man owned the other mare. The horses had gotten through the gate on one side of the track and, not being able to get through on the other side, became frightened at the train and were caught.

School closed here last Friday. Dinner was served at the schoolhouse at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and a program was rendered in Fox's hall in the evening.

Troutdale ball team are earning a reputation for themselves. Last Sunday they defeated a Portland team by a large score and are very much elated over their victory.

Dr. B. F. Rowland was here on Monday and held the regular quarterly business meeting. Rev. C. E. Crandall and wife and Mrs. J. P. Heslin of Fairview were present.

Mrs. Bert Hoyt has returned from a visit with friends at Clatskanie. O. R. & N. Operator Taylor of La Grande has moved his family here and in charge of the depot.

Lee Grywolf is moving his family to Pendleton. Mrs. Mary Daniels and son of Fairview were visitors here on Monday.

Miss Laura Fox of Portland was here on Monday giving piano lessons.

Mrs. Fred Fufford of Portland visited with Mrs. Frank Cummings on Sunday. J. Linderman has resigned his position as engineer for the Union Meat Company's plant.

Gilbert and John Vanderhoof of Sandy visited their mother, Mrs. Sarah Vanderhoof, at the home of her son, Henry Vanderhoof on Sunday.

Misses Ida Cole and Grace Meckley were Portland visitors last Saturday.

Miss Elsie Lathrop has returned to her home at Bridal Veil and Miss Ruby Shearer to her home in Sellwood.

H. H. Young, head foreman for the Union Meat Company, has moved his family from Portland into their summer residence here.

The Jewish Library of Portland has presented the library here with a number of new books through the instrumentality of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fox.

Mrs. F. R. Hubbard has been suffering from a severe attack of mumps. A large building is being erected for the use of the Union Meat Company.

Grant Jones was nursing a very sore hand for several days as a result of a car falling on to it. That car will be running over the new road by June 1 now seems an assured fact, as the trolley wire is all in position and the rails are laid within a short distance of here.

FAIRVIEW

The special meeting of the Civic Improvement Club Monday evening was attended by about 70 persons. One of the most interesting topics discussed was the establishing of a concrete block factory. The matter was brought up by Bev. C. E. Crandall who had the sand here tested and it was found to be of excellent quality for this production. Napoleon Davis, A. L. Stone and C. Shepard were appointed delegates to the Oregon Development League. The committee at a previous meeting to see that the Barr road was improved have done their duty well and the road has now been put in good condition and more work is yet to be done. This committee was retained to work for the filling in of the Fairview highway at the old grist mill and at the car line crossing. J. H. Schram, C. Shepard and W. T. Scott compose the committee. A committee was also arranged for a celebration when cars are started over the new road. Selections were rendered by the chorus and ladies' quartet. Miss Clara Quinn and G. G. Jones favored us with solos and Mrs. J. M. Ashcraft with a recitation. A light lunch completed the evening's program.

Miss Josephine Hart of Gilliam county and George R. Flanders were united in marriage at the home of the groom's parents Sunday afternoon, Rev. C. E. Crandall officiating. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Flanders departed for their new home in Gilliam county Monday morning.

Miss Calla Heslin has just closed a term of school at Baker City and returned to her home.

Mrs. A. W. Vincent and daughter have returned to their home in Portland after a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. M. J. Littlepage entertained Mrs. T. J. Crute, Mrs. J. M. Ashcraft and Mrs. H. W. Mathison at dinner last Saturday.

The Mt. Hood Railway Company sent a steam shovel here last week over the O. R. & N. road and it was switched on to a spur track built for the purpose.

George Bornstedt and wife of Sandy and Miss Nellie and George Rneeg of Cedarville were Sunday guests of Mr.

and Mrs. J. W. Townsend. Mrs. Lewis Stattuck and Mrs. Wm. Byers visited with Mrs. Townsend Saturday.

The school closes today and will hold a picnic in the Stone park. Graduating exercises and a program will be given at 11 o'clock. Miss Alta Wilcox and Blaine Turner are eighth grade graduates.

The Columbia View baseball team played the Rockwood team Sunday afternoon with a score of 5 to 3 in Columbia View's favor.

G. G. Jones returned from a trip to Alberta, Canada, and has been a guest of R. Hunter.

Charles Robbins, who is employed at Eugene, was a recent guest of his family here.

D. O. Dunbar and wife have been guests of D. S. Dunbar and wife. D. O. Dunbar is just recovering from a severe attack of measles. D. S. Dunbar was also quite ill last week.

Mrs. R. W. Wilcox has been quite ill. Her daughter, Miss Daisy, of Portland was here the first of the week.

Dervit Shepard and wife of Portland spent Sunday with his parents, C. Shepard and wife.

Miss Mary Perkins of Portland was a Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. O. A. Jackson.

Mrs. Clara Anderson and daughter, Miss Hope, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of W. Ellison.

Miss Marie Palmer and Miss Gertrude Gassett were guests of Miss Palmer's parents, C. Palmer and wife, Saturday.

Rev. C. E. Crandall and family have gone to Hood River for a several days' stay.

Troutdales and Piedmonts Bat
In an interesting game of baseball, marked with heavy hitting by the Troutdale boys, the Piedmont Stars were defeated Sunday by a score of 13 to 3.

One of the principal features of the game was the pitching of Paggett for the home team. He allowed only three hits.

Furnishing an Opportunity.
A Milwaukee man with a great head and some regard for the tender feelings that the young carry about in their bosoms has built a large apartment house, one side of which will be rented to bachelors and the other to sweet and lovable girls. In the center will be a common meeting place, presided over by a chaperon with not too bright eyes.

That should help some. The reason why more young people do not marry is that they do not have a chance to get acquainted. There is many a bashful young man who would gladly assume matrimonial responsibilities if some one would lead him up to a girl and hold him there until he got acquainted.

We hope the building will prove the boon that its owner intends, but matters will be much facilitated if he will equip it with plenty of fire escapes and have a good fire about once a week.

Poetic Visions.
"Poets have such beautiful fancies."
"Yes, I know one who fancies luscious steaks, but they to him are only beautiful dreams."

A Hint.
"So you are going to the races, my lad?"
"Yes; thought I would just run up for a little while to see the fun."
"You have a pretty good reputation here with the concern, I believe."
"Well, yes, I rather think I have."
"Hadn't you better just check it with the timekeeper as you go out?"

Hard on Bill.
"Papa, what is a not able?"
"Er—um—not able means incapable, Johnnie."
"Well, is Kaiser Wilhelm an incapable?"
"Why?"
"Because it tells about him here in the stories of the notables."

Winner to Him.
If you feel that you would like something that would be a winner. Give to some Meandering Mike A piping hot Thanksgiving dinner.

Billy Figures.
"What is love, Billy?"
"Theater tickets, sociata's bills and boxes of candy."
"Is that all?"
"Well, I believe there is a girl thrown in, too, if you can find her."

PERT PARAGRAPHS.
Don't be afraid of work; it is no better than you are.
The biggest fool doesn't always about the loudest—if his lungs are weak.
To have a high ideal doesn't mean that she is necessarily tall.

It sounds well to say that you are willing to confess your fault, but you are generally the most willing when you are dead sure your are not guilty.

A man doesn't have to be a mechanic in order to make a trail every morning.

You can safely gamble that all the other grafters are on the waiting list for that easy job.

Not a "Thank You."
"I never knew a woman who wasn't bound to have the last word with you." "Unless it was in a street car and you were to say, 'Take my seat, madam!'"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Country Exercise.
I do not like to shovel snow; It nearly breaks my back. At every shoveful I throw I hear the muscles crack. My hands, my ears, my feet are cold; I soon get out of breath. And every now and then I have A fear of sudden death.

And yet I need the exercise To keep from getting fat And drive out gout and rheumatism And other things like that. So I go out and shovel, though It nearly breaks my back. And every shoveful I throw I hear the muscles crack.

How I should like to hire a man Strong, hearty and robust! I do not want to shovel, but The doctor says I must. Alas, this life is full of woe! I hear the muscles crack At every shoveful I throw— It nearly breaks my back! —Somerville Journal.
