The supply of shoes, etc., will keep, however, and Mr. W. cannot surprise them at any future time.
The first automobile party to reach Mt. Hood consisted of the following baby, Mrs. Riley, Leslie Pirshin and party made the ascent of the mountain Tuesday, the 5th inst.

The Mountain View hotel has a large number of guests and more are continually coming.
There are many changes in the snow fields of Mt. Hood, and from appearances there is going to be a new crevasse open on the opposite side of the crater from the present one, thus making the ascent more dangerous. Old timers about the mountain say that it is only a question of a few years till the top will be inaccessible from this side, so all wishing to climb it had better take advantage of the first opportunity.
A large party left Welch's Tuesday, the 15th inst., to ascend the mountain, and expected to return here on the following Saturday.
Three small boys walked from Portland to Mountain View hotel, where they intend staying for a few days.
They expect to climb the peak this week. They are only twelve and thirteen years of age, so their grit is worthy of praise.

railway company has changed its name pany.

a bottle of the twenty-five cent size of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by all dealers.
