

Lots For Sale

in Regner's Addition to Gresham

LARGE LOTS
Level, Well Drained Soil
Finest Location in the Town
Water Easily Obtained
Nothing Better for Home or Profit

The Mt. Hood Railroad is now assured. Lots in Regner's Addition to the town of Gresham are now worth double formerly asked for them. But we are still selling choice lots in GRESHAM'S FINEST RESIDENCE ADDITION at a slight raise on first values. If you want a home or a safe investment—Buy lots in this addition now and take advantage of Lowest Prices. EASY TERMS.

J. D. Regner,
GRESHAM, OREGON

THOMPSON'S ADDITION TO GRESHAM

Is Beautiful for Situation, in the very heart of the city, only a short distance from the O. W. P. Company's Depot.

Finest Residence Addition in the country. Deep fertile soil. No sand or gravel. Fine Drainage.

BUY NOW WHILE LOTS ARE CHEAP!

Special Sale of Lots

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

Dr. Thompson, the owner, has decided to sell direct to the purchaser, giving everyone the benefit of the regular agent's commission. Every lot in this beautiful addition is expected to be sold before Nov. 1st.

The following are some of the bargains in grouped lots:

Six lots, $500; 3 lots, $300; 3 lots, $350; 3 lots, $340; 4 lots, $375; 3 lots, $300; 3 lots for $275; 2 for $175. All good and desirable lots.

Special Price in Single Lots next 30 Days

As follows: 1 lot, $50; 2 lots at $80 each; 8 at $75 each; 4 lots at $100 each; 10 at $125 each; 1 at $135 each, and 13 at $145 each.

TERMS: Half purchase price down, balance in easy monthly payments.

For information concerning this Addition, or if special terms are desired, address

ERNEST B. THOMPSON, Gresham, Ore., Box 127

Additional Gresham Locals

(Continued from page 1.)

near Gates, on the Corvallis & Eastern railway, where he has been for several weeks.

S. A. Knight, the barber, has purchased property in Gresham both business and residence and will begin building a house on Roberts avenue at once.

Harry Huxley is taking a short vacation from painting and is spending the time with his brother at Cazadero.

John Tracy of Estacada has been visiting his nephew, L. P. Manning.

Roy Gibbs has his house east of town nearly ready to occupy and will move into it soon. Dr. H. H. Ott will occupy the Gibbs house in town.

Lewis Shattuck is home from a trip to southern Oregon.

Mrs. J. C. Myers and Miss Ruth Allen of Lebanon were guests of Mrs. J. C. Allen on Sunday.

Chas. P. Lord, a brother of Mrs. W. B. Parsons, has recently come from eastern Oregon to make his home in this locality.

More than 100 persons took advantage of the hay rack ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch, and enjoyed the bountiful supper provided for them. The Gresham brass band favored the company with several of their fine selections. Bright moonlight made the evening ideal for such a gathering, and all voted the supper a success. The amount of money raised was $23.

B. C. Altman and wife, Chas. Sr., Chas. Jr. and Wendell Cleveland and Timothy Brownhill were among those attending the State Fair.

James Goodfellow, one of Gresham's popular blacksmiths, has bought the old Hamlin house near his blacksmith shop, is remodeling the building, and will soon have a very neat and commodious cottage made of it.

E. C. Lindsey was down from Sandy Sunday and Monday.

The many friends of Miss Mary Shattuck of Gresham will regret to hear that she has withdrawn her name from the Queen of the Carnival contest.

D. Cameron of Boring was a welcome caller at the Herald office this week.

John Roberts has just returned from Welches, where he has built a new summer home.

Mrs. C. M. Harvey and Maud are spending a few weeks during the prune drying season at Cazadero with her brother, Mr. Huxley.

A telephone line is being put in on Hood avenue.

Attention is called to the grange ten cent tea at Mrs. Merrill's tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, Sept. 28, instead of Sept. 23, as we said last week.

Miss Catharine Cox spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Laura Burkholder took up her studies at Gresham high school this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gantenbein of Portland, Floyd Perkins of Portland and Miss Emma Gantenbein of Portland were guests of Miss Jessie Francis during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie returned last week from Seaside, where they spent the summer in their cottage. Although they had the best kind of a time, Mrs. Leslie says, "There is no place like Gresham, after all."

C. W. Doane returned Wednesday from eastern Oregon, where he has had charge of a threshing outfit. Mr. Doane says threshing is not near completed out there and in some instances farmers have not been able to head their grain yet.

Walter Burch and family have returned from the hop fields.

Miss Rena Knapp of Latourell is a student at Gresham high school.

Emory Roberts left yesterday for Corvallis, where he will enter the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. D. W. Metzger and daughter, Miss Lucy, were Portland visitors last Wednesday.

William Harrison of Seattle visited his uncle, S. T. Crow, recently.

Fay Tombling is renewing old acquaintances in Gresham.

Lee Merrill has returned from Bull Run to enter school here.

Will Smith of Forest Grove visited Mrs. S. T. Crow Tuesday.

F. E. Clark of Bull Run, who has just returned from Grass Valley called on the editor last Saturday.

H. L. Ball showed his appreciation of the home paper this week by handing in the price of a year's subscription.

Ed. Price has gone to Rainier where he is engaged as night watchman in a box factory. Ed. has been working in the hop yards recently and is much improved in health.

It is reported that John and Charles Duly have bought out Wm. Byers' livery barn.

T. P. Buoy will sell out his personal property and move to McKinley, Wash. where he will spend the winter with his daughter and three sons.

Mrs. Laura Sunderland and children and Lester Hamilton of Woodlawn, where guests of J. T. McCulloch Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. H. L. St. Clair is attending the Lay Electoral conference on Taylor street church today as a delegate from Gresham charges.

Mrs. B. W. Emery and Mrs. Gertrude Metzger were chosen at the Quarterly conference recently as delegates from Gresham to the Laymen's association which will meet tomorrow in Taylor street church.

Mrs. E. C. Rossman and her father, Wm. McCulloch, of Portland called on Mrs. F. B. Stuart and other friends on Tuesday.

Miss Mildred Carlson has entered school at Willamette University, at Salem.

H. A. Darnell of Portland was a very pleasant caller recently.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from George Reynolds last Saturday. While here George took advantage of time and renewed his subscription to the Herald by paying to Jan. 1, '09, before the raise in price goes into effect, Nov. 1, 1907.

H. T. Cummins, president of the Electric Mining and Smelting Co., which has large holdings near Elkhorn, Oregon, was a Herald caller on Friday. He was on his way to his farm at Lusted.

W. H. Raymond, special agent for the Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance company, was doing business in Gresham Thursday.

Miss Nellie Ruegg was visiting friends and relatives in the "Fair City" Thursday.

Mrs. E. A. Stites of Greeley, Colo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Ginder, also a daughter at The Dalles and relatives in Portland.

J. M. Shaw of St. Johns was in this vicinity on Friday looking for a location.

We acknowledge receipt of the annual calendar of the Oregon Conservatory of Music, 10th year, 1907-8. Mrs. L. H. Hurlbut Edwards, director, in which the names of Miss Bessie Dailey and Miss Lucy Metzger both appear as students.

Leslie Crow of Portland is visiting his father and mother at the Gresham hotel.

J. T. McCulloch wishes his son, A. H. McCulloch of Centerville, Ind., to keep well informed concerning his former home and therefore makes sure he will get the Popular Home Weekly.

Miss Grace Lawrence is the latest acquisition to the Herald force. She is assisting with the office duties.

DAMASCUS

Mrs. Johnson of Damascus was so much improved that she was able to be brought home from Oregon City Sunday.

Arthur Heacock and Victorine Wilson attended the State Fair, and report quite a good fair and a large attendance.

In the Damascus news of last week the number of bushels of oats to the acre, raised by A. L. Heacock, should have been 70.

The east wind of the last few days seems to be an unlucky one, as it has caused considerable sickness.

The accidental death of Mr. Lahman was very sad, and the bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Rev. Mr. Johnson has submitted the plan for his new house to Len Seifer. It is to be a commodious structure, and will add much to his well located farm.

CORBETT

Mrs. Sarah Kincaid visited Mrs. Myrta Reed last Friday and Saturday.

Miss Ethelyn Smith was a Portland visitor Friday.

Miss Eva Reed was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Thursday, where she underwent a slight operation. At this writing she is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen returned from the State Fair Friday.

Miss Alice Rasmussen went to Monmouth Monday, where she will attend State Normal.

MONTAVILLA

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Nettie L. Leppner, lately of Rochester, Minnesota, is occupying the cottage recently erected by Miss Caples at 242 Ebeby street.

Mrs. Bart and her sister, Miss Perkins, returned from Andrew Kan's hop yard last week.

Floyd Perkins of Montavilla and Miss Emma Gantenbein and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gantenbein of Portland visited Miss Jessie Francis of Gresham last week.

Mrs. Flowers, who has been traveling in England, is now at Castle Rock, and is expected to be in Montavilla in a few days. She makes her home with her son, Ernest Wright, on Grove street.

Miss Ada Rider was a visitor at the State Fair on Saturday.

The members of the Artisan Lodge enjoyed one of the most pleasant winter parties of the season at the L. O. O. F. hall last Tuesday evening.

Mesdames Meyers, Worden and Kirchbaum of Sunnyside called on Mrs. Wm. Lancaster last Monday.

Mr. Perrin of Spokane has moved into the Winters house in Mansfield.

Miss Ethel Royal, a professor at Willamette university, Salem, visited at the home of Rev. Mr. Oberg last Friday and Saturday.

There will be no preaching service in the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Hecht spent four days at the State Fair, and brought home a fine apple weighing 15 ounces that was grown in Columbia county.

The quarterly communion service will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday at 11 a. m. The subject of Rev. White's sermon will be, "Reasons for Church Going and Reasons for Staying at Home."

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church of Mrs. Kinn's home at 242 Ebeby street on Friday, and spent the afternoon sewing for her.

Wm. Lancaster, who sold his place on Ebeby street to C. E. Howitt, and purchased the Deano property, 201 Wabash avenue, is putting everything into fine shape. This is one of Montavilla's beautiful residences.

The Baptist Young Peoples Union held their regular monthly business meeting and social last Friday at the church. About twenty young people disposed of the business, and later enjoyed simple games and readings by Mrs. Smith and Miss Thayer. Ice cream and cake were served by the social committee.

Miss Isom, Portland librarian, and Miss Nellie Fox, head of the county department, visited the Montavilla reading room and public reading room, last Friday afternoon. They expressed themselves as much pleased with the work done here, and promise any assistance in their power to make the winter's work entirely successful.

Mrs. C. B. La Follette and family returned from the hop yards at Chehalis last Monday.

Bert Gilman won third prize in the aster contest recently held in the city hall. This was the only prize awarded to a child living inside the city limits.

Mrs. Bennett, formerly a resident of Montavilla, has been visiting Mrs. A. Parent.

C. Lovridge has moved his family from Villa avenue to 248 Ebeby street.

A serious accident was narrowly averted last Sunday afternoon, when the horse driven by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barringer stepped into a deep ditch, caused by a leak in the 12-inch water main on Broad street. Mrs. Barringer was thrown from her seat, and sustained painful injuries of the left arm and shoulder.

On account of the illness of Mrs. Parker, Rev. Gilman Parker was absent from his pulpit both morning and evening of last Sabbath. Rev. Herbert Ryer of Idaho preached in the evening.

Frank Vogt was thrown from his bicycle Monday and badly shaken up.

Among those who attended the State Fair were Mr. Bartlett, Grandma Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Bryson and Fred Daniels, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Dodge and Jas. Kelly.

Mrs. Jemima, who has been quite ill, is reported as greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rider and Mrs. King have returned from the hop fields, greatly improved in health, and much pleased with their outing.

Pupils and teachers of the public school were busy preparing for the completion of the new building. The enrollment on the second Monday morning was 200, and not all the hop pickers have returned. The new hot-air furnace is in operation. This system of heating and ventilating does away with drafts caused by open windows.

There will be dancing at Warren's Hall on Wednesday evening Sept. 25, and every Wednesday thereafter. Mr. Marshall and Mr. Burr are managers.

Rev. Mr. Farmer, former pastor of the Methodist church, was in Montavilla on business Monday.

Dick Strand and his sister Etta returned home from a trip of three weeks to Tacoma and Seattle, and report a joyful trip.

J. D. Ehler, Montavilla's heavy expressman, left last Thursday morning for the Arkansas country. He expects to be gone about a month. Ehler will oversee his express work during his absence.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. White, Sept. 20, an 11-pound boy; to Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Frank, Sept. 21, a 9-pound boy and to Paul Zelwick, a 10-pound boy. All are doing well.

Mr. Carlson is erecting a cottage in Mansfield.

Several buildings are being built in Mansfield and South Montavilla, which will be used for meat markets.

John Barne, who was seized with paralysis about eight weeks ago and taken to Portland hospital last week, where he died Friday. He was a good, honest citizen, and although he has no relatives here, he leaves many friends to mourn his loss.

Geo. Barringer, C. L. Ellemann, G. K. Howitt and the Osburn brothers were at the State Fair grange day.

Russellville Doings

Mrs. E. C. Howitt of East Portland and Mrs. W. W. Howitt of Russellville visited relatives near Hillsboro three days last week.

The Gill brothers invited the young people of the grange over to their farm recently to help themselves to all the musk and watermelon that they could eat. They found out that the Gill brothers could raise just as good melons as cabbage.

MONTAVILLA'S CANDIDATE

MISS MIGNON MARTIN

One of the most popular candidates for Queen of the Multnomah County and Grange Fair and Carnival is Miss Mignon Martin of 218 Vine street, Montavilla. Miss Martin is a typical southern girl, handsome as a picture and as graceful and popular as a queen. If elected, she certainly will do credit to the occasion.

Miss Mabel Mickelson and Arthur Hager of Russellville are attending the Portland business college. Clayton Lewis attends the Portland academy.

Mrs. Covert, Mr. Kretzer and Mr. Hagerman have returned from the hop fields.

Alec Barrill will soon move into the new residence being erected on Mr. West's farm on the Base Line road.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Farrier of Montavilla visited at W. W. Howitt's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy were out this way Sunday. They think of building here in the near future.

The Pitts boys, who have spent the past two weeks at the hop fields, arrived home last Monday night.

L. D. Thomas is quite sick.

Mrs. Phillips and little Erlean of Montavilla visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Howitt, Sunday.

T. T. Phillips and family intend moving to East Portland as soon as they can find a house.

Russellville grange gave an oyster supper Saturday evening, the 21st. There was a large attendance of young people. The proceeds will go to the hall fund.

Correspondence in Brief

John McAllister is assistant agent at Boring.

Ed. Barker is laid up in the hospital with a bad hand.

Miss Clara Gunderson is visiting her parents at Kelso.

School opened in district 28, with Miss Powell of Portland as teacher.

Mrs. E. Ball of Pleasant Valley attended church in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. C. Lambert returned to Pleasant View from Portland Wednesday.

Miss Ella Bittelson of Portland visited home folks in Powell Valley Sunday.

Miss Annie Jarl of Kelso has resumed her studies in the Portland high school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Brandberg entertained friends last Sunday in Powell Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Storms have moved into the Hicklin house at Pleasant View.

Mr. Sablin of Boring received a carload of goats, which he is pasturing on his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Morand of Boring spent Friday visiting relatives and friends at Dayton.

School opened in district No. 48 on Monday with Miss Simmons as teacher and an attendance of 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Atan and Mr. Buck of Colby, Kansas, are visiting with McCulloughs and Wilmarths.

Mrs. Hallack and Mrs. Dayton of Hepper are visitors at the Reynolds ranch, Columbia View.

The Ladies Aid society of the Kelso Lutheran church met with Mrs. T. G. Jonsrud next Wednesday.

Chancy Sager of Pleasant Valley has sold his farm to Wilbert Chilcote and the latter has moved on to it.

Miss Nora Lambert and Volte Shushall of Montavilla visited the latter's parents at Pleasant Valley Sunday.

Mr. Sonieshen, late with Mr. Tawney at Sandy, is blacksmithing at Boring and also building a residence.

Mrs. Wilson of Boring is visiting at Wenatchee, Wash., and Glen Allison has gone to Spokane to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kesterson and son Keith visited relatives in Portland Sunday. Their home is Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Alice Richey and Miss Alice Carson returned Wednesday to Pleasant View after a visit at Forest Grove. The basket social at Boring Saturday evening given by the Ladies Aid society was a grand success, about $50 being realized.

Vote for the Queen!

The Queen of the Carnival for the Coming County and Grange Fair

Is to be elected by popular vote. We believe in helping along a good thing, so will give one (5c) vote (except on school books) on every dollar's worth purchased at our store. A full line of everything in Groceries, Feed, Hardware, Tinware, Paints, etc.

SCHOOL BOOKS AND SUPPLIES

J. E. McCASLIN,
"The Central Store"
End of car line, MONTAVILLA, OREGON

O. P. POTTS & CO.

REAL ESTATE

Large and Small Tracts of Land, Houses and Lots for Sale, Rent or Trade

Phone Tabor 528
One door West of Postoffice.
Montavilla, Oregon

THE RUSSELLVILLE NURSERY CO.

H. A. LEWIS, Proprietor
Montavilla Station, PORTLAND, OREGON

Offers a good variety of fruit trees, ornamental shrubs and berry plants.

Write for particulars and price list.

WANT COLUMN

ESTRAYS—Three head of horses, two greys, one chestnut sorrel, came to my place. Owner can have same by paying costs. Elsie Malar, Sandy, Or.

WANTED—Fresh milk cows. T. R. Howitt, Gresham, Ore.

If you have any fat stock to sell, write or see T. R. Howitt at Gresham, Ore., who will come and examine them at your ranch.

GILES BROTHERS, at Montavilla, for choicest meats. That's all.

GEO. F. HARRINGER, Notary Public, Buys and sells Real Estate, Loans Money, etc. 131 Base Line Road, Montavilla, Ore.

PAGE WOVEN WIRE FENCE. Guaranteed. Chas. Cleveland, agent, Gresham, Ore.

WANTED—One hundred tons of timothy and oat hay, one hundred tons of oats, one hundred tons of barley, highest market price paid. R. T. Herald office, Gresham, Oregon.

FOR SALE—20-acre farm in Gage, Ore. House and barn. Enquire John Biberg, block 7, Stewart's Park, Arleta, Ore.

WANTED—Oats and other grain. Carl Shattuck, Gresham, Ore.

FOR SALE—Young pigs. Call on or address T. C. Townsend, Phone Farmers 167.

WANTED—Girl to do dining room and chamber work. Apply Mrs. Maggie Crow, Gresham hotel.

WANTED—A good fresh cow, half or more Jersey. L. P. Manning, Gresham.

FOR SALE—Two mares, one colt. Enquire H. R. Kane, two miles east of Gresham.

FOR SALE—Team of good true horses, weight 2700. Very cheap at $250. Nearly new wagon; nearly new harness; plow; two cultivators; two sets old harness. Dr. A. Thompson, Gresham.

LOST—Red cow, no marks, gone since June. Communicate with C. A. Forsberg, Barton, Ore.

FOR SALE—A fresh cow, four years old. Enquire I. Scott, Kelso, Or.