CROWNING OF QUEEN LUCY, THE FIRST

With the arrival of Her Royal Highness, Queen Lucy, her maids, pages and Grand Chancellor, Hon. Frank Motter, the first annual Multnomah County and Grange Fair and Carnival was formally opened to the public at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday. Amid the hurrahs of the hundreds of people and the music from the band, Queen Lucy and her royal retinue was escorted to the big auditorium, where the beautiful act of crowning Her Majesty Queen Lucy the First took place in true Elizabethan style. Right well did Mr. Motter perform his part, and very royally did Queen Lucy and her chief maid, Miss Jones, accept the honors so nicely accorded them immediately after the ceremony.

President J. J. Johnson delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the fair association.

Dr. J. M. Short, mayor of Gresham, did the honors of the town in a few well chosen words.

Hon. W. W. Cotton in his usual optimistic way told of the progress of the fair from its inception, Aug. 19. Congressman Willis C. Hawley of Salem represented the state in a few well chosen words in which he called attention to the exceedingly fine exhibits of every kind. The fair was then declared formally opened, and the people invited to make themselves at home.
