

A Prize Puzzle

Find the Hidden Lady and You'll be well rewarded

DIRECTIONS—Find the other lady in this picture and secure a prize. Trace outlines with a heavy lead pencil, cut this out, place in envelope, enclose stamp for reply and mail to address below.

YOU SHOULD KNOW OUR NATIONAL SONGS.

To every person sending correct solution to this puzzle we will give, absolutely free, a music book, nicely bound, containing 50 of the old favorite National songs, only one copy to each person—with the words and music; also many other valuable prizes, FREE. Winners will be promptly notified by mail.

EILERS PIANO HOUSE

"THE HOUSE OF HIGHEST QUALITY"

Leading Piano, Organ and Talking Machine Dealers.
353 WASHINGTON STREET, COR. OF PARK, PORTLAND, ORE.
Stores Everywhere—California to Alaska.

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
Write Plainly (B. S. H.)

The Gate Keeper

"In Faith, In Hope, In Charity, and with Fidelity."

Evening Star Grange will hold a competitive first degree drill at their hall on Washington's birthday, February 22.
Pomona Grange meets with Fairview Grange on the third Wednesday in December, the eighteenth.

The grange has done many good things, but in our opinion, says the National Stockman, none has been greater than its forty years of contentment, declaration and proclamation of the importance and dignity of agriculture. Before it has been a dispensing of that old idea that there is something degrading in cultivating the soil.

Watch the Gates.
The grange is growing by leaps and bounds in many states. Large classes are being initiated. Let them not be too large or so large as to comprise some members who will be better off than in the grange.

In Kentucky the grange has taken a new lease of life. Five hundred new grange halls have been or soon will be completed in that state.

Over 600 entered the corn growing contest instituted by the Michigan state grange.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY

Peter Heia of Orient, a prominent farmer living on the Sandy Bluff road, is among the latest additions to the Herald family. Mr. Heia has made quite a success in the goat and sheep business. He has recently added a full-blooded Angora billy goat and a thoroughbred Shropshire ram to his flocks.

Fritz Stoker and wife of Gresham were in Sandy last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bornstedt were recently attending to business affairs at Bull Run.

Lee Chalker, erstwhile mayor, postmaster and local editor of Cherryville is now settled at Sandy, where he and his wife and young son are enjoying the comforts of a cozy little cottage recently erected for them on the Sandy Land company's addition to Sandy. Mr. Chalker is looking after the interests of A. E. Lindsey of the firm of Bornstedt & Lindsey.

W. V. Rodgers and W. J. Wirtz, who are doing business under the name of the Sandy Furniture company, are putting in a nice line of furniture.

Timothy Brownhill, editor of the Beaver State Herald, accompanied by W. A. Taylor, an expert photographer of Portland, was doing business in Sandy last Friday and Saturday.

W. A. Stone of Cherryville is one of The Herald's recent subscribers.

A large number of invited friends and relatives attended the wedding ceremony in which Thomas Francis McCabe and Miss Amanda Kuhn were made man and wife. The wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Kuhn, near Sandy. The young people are well and favorably known, and are leaders in social circles in this community.

Kern and Wren, lessors of the Welch summer resort, have dissolved partnership, C. W. Kern continuing the business of the concern alone.

Thomas Collinge, the genial stage man, reports the roads to Welches in good condition for this time of the year.

Mr. Pridemore of Three-Six fame was doing business in Sandy last Saturday.

W. W. Davis and his nephew, J. M. Davis, contractors and builders of this place, are kept busy with the erection of new buildings.

W. J. Wirtz delivered a gospel lecture to an appreciative audience at the Bull Run church last Sunday night.

A big Thanksgiving ball will be given in Junker's hall, Wednesday evening, November 27.

Vernon Maulding came down from his ranch above Welches last Saturday to meet his brother, Frisby, and his sister, Miss Erma, and her friend, Miss Nellie Lundine, of Portland, who will spend Thanksgiving at the ranch. The boys report apples 16 inches around and potatoes 13 inches long and 10½ inches around grown on their place, which is on Salmon river just above Welches. Squash and Pumpkins grown on the Stone place in that neighborhood are also record breakers.

M. V. Thomas, a noted socialistic leader of the Bull Run community, recently handed in his subscription to the editor of The Herald. Mr. Thomas, by the way, is an enthusiastic debater and seldom fails to interject a few of his socialistic ideas into his remarks when on the floor.

County Superintendent, T. J. Gary, visited the Sandy school Friday.

M. McCormick has bought out the interest of Ben Hart in the Sandy meat market. His nephew, James Enright, will take charge.

Rev. Father Berchtol of Mt. Angel has been appointed pastor of St. Michael's church.

Dan Herlihy's new house is about finished. We expect him to soon become a resident of Sandy.

Cutting cordwood has become one of the principal industries here now since a number of the sawmills have shut down.

Paul Meinig made a business trip to Portland recently.

The Cascade debating society have organized, and we expect some interesting debates this winter.

James Bell, chief of the Sandy debating society, is to be congratulated upon the successful outcome of his persistent effort to establish a place of intelligent amusement for the young people of Sandy and community. Witty, humorously sarcastic, and yet good natured, he holds the entire attention of the audience and interests them in those things that are at once helpful and elevating. We hope the young people of Sandy will rally to his support.

AIMS

Clarke Hardin was recently a business visitor in Troutdale.

Mrs. J. N. Masterton and son Lawrence called on the "Cougar" family recently, spending a pleasant evening.

Miss Etta Taylor visited the Aims school on Monday.

Wm. Hardin has bought several herds of goats this fall. He now has about 174 goats.

Several children from Kelly's sawmill are attending school at Aims this term.

Dan Hardin was presented with a fine pony and new saddle, the gift of his stepfather.

KELSO

There was a large attendance at the sale in the Lutheran church last Saturday evening. The proceeds amounted to thirty-five dollars.

C. A. Lindell, wife and daughters, of Portland, spent Sunday with R. Jonstad and family.

ESTACADA

R. C. Herring has been marketing his apples recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Bates have been spending a few days in Portland this week.

H. Tracy and E. Heiple have just shipped some fine hogs to Portland.

Bert Millard has returned to his home at Wasco after a visit with relatives here.

The Oregon City salmon question was brought up for discussion at the Eagle Creek grange meeting last Saturday.

BULL RUN

The Bull Run sawmill has shut down for a short time to enable the donkey engine to get logs ahead.

Mrs. Bacon of Orient visited her sons, Wesley and Frank, here the past week.

Grandpa Hyatt of Orient is visiting relatives at Bull Run this week.

Mrs. Leete has returned home from Portland where she visited friends and relatives.

Ace Smith has found his stray horses at last.

Miss Gertrude Maupin has returned from Portland much improved in health.

Many have lately moved from the Bull Run sawmill down to camp three.

The railroad is making rapid progress with the new railroad bridge at Bull Run.

BORING

Last Friday at Palmer's mill, a string er caught in the carriage and was dragged back into the saws breaking them into pieces. The stringer then flew around and hit Oscar McClung, laying him up for a few days. The mill had to be shut down for repairs.

Several of the school children have the chickenpox.

A. J. McClung is still at the hospital at Portland, and it is reported that he is getting along nicely.

J. P. Smith's baby has been quite sick the past week.

Grandma Hickey is back to Boring again staying with Roots.

J. Shultz is now in charge of the power plant.

Boring now has a barber shop and a shoe shop.

Mrs. Coates has been very sick this week.

WELCHES

Mr. Kern has installed gas lamps in the hotel that rival electricity.

The hills were covered with snow this morning, the second time for this year.

There are three government range inspectors cruising the timber on the proposed route of the Mt. Hood railway.

Chas. Merrill Jr. and Mr. Adams are at work on the Copper Queen mine again and expect to rush things until the lead is struck, by running a cross cut to intersect the main lead.

Mr. Kern having bought the interest of Mr. Wren is perfecting plans to run the Resort on a larger scale than ever and is getting things in shape to build a large kitchen and dining room with a seating capacity of 150 people at a time.

There are quite a number of guests stopping at the hotel at present.

Mr. Chas. Pashel continues to exhibit finer specimens of ore from his claim every time he comes after his mail. All pieces shown us lately are very rich in gold and copper.

The genial William Welch is just as full of fun as ever and is looking rosier and more hearty every day.

"THE HERALD," 57 WEEKS, or till Jan. 1, 1909, for $1.50. Subscribe now!

DOVER

J. W. Exon was in Portland last week attending the Church Extension and Home Missionary meeting.

Mrs. A. J. Kitzmiller and son Walter visited at Bull Run for a few days recently.

There was a very interesting road meeting at Dover Saturday night.

Mrs. McClure of University Park is visiting in Dover for a few days.

COTTRELL

Frank Beers has erected a small cottage, to be occupied by potato diggers. Mr. Beers has 18 acres in potatoes this year.

Clifford Snieder has engaged a party of Japs to dig his four and one-half acres of potatoes.

A sociable will be held at No. 2 hall, Saturday, November 23.

The Cottrell Sunday school is preparing a Christmas program, and intend having a Christmas tree also this year.

A large audience was present at the Young People's meeting at the Cottrell Baptist church last Sunday evening. The meeting was followed by a stirring sermon by the pastor.

The regular business and covenant meeting of the Pleasant Home Baptist church was well attended on the afternoon of Saturday, November 16.

Rev. B. C. Cook of Portland and Rev. S. C. Sherrill of Cottrell visited the prisoners at Oregon City, who await trial for the Hindu murder. Their trial is set for March.

Mrs. Matthews, principal of the Cottrell school, visited her home folks in Portland last Saturday.

Mrs. Killin, who has been under the doctor's care in Portland, intends returning to her home this week.

The primary grades of the Cottrell school held a writing contest last Wednesday afternoon. Some of the smaller children did some extra good writing. Madge Bowen was the happy winner.

Mrs. Richard Ralford and son Floyd visited friends and relatives at Bridal Veil last week.

Lacie Swank has returned home from the Good Samaritan hospital much improved.

Mrs. B. F. Hart of Sandy visited the school last Friday.

There was a good attendance at the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening, after which Rev. S. G. Sherrill gave a very interesting talk.

The Pulfer & Shay mill has shut down for a few days.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup

Mrs. S. Rosenthal of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all druggists.

TROUTDALE

Mrs. A. T. Tiller's new building is completed. The upper floor will be used as a hall.

A sidewalk that is a credit to the town has been laid from Harlow's store to the P. R. L. & P. Co. station. A good, solid filling, with a covering of sand was put in.

The O. R. & N. Co. is installing a new block system to replace the one destroyed when the depot was burned.

Miss Harriet Harlow is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Moore, at Moore Hotel, Seaside.

Henry Surber and wife have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Butler, of Forest Grove. The Butlers expect to dispose of their property at the Grove and locate in Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Macintosh are the proud parents of a baby boy born November 14.

Grandma Barney was stricken with paralysis last Saturday, her entire left side being affected. She is slowly improving.

Mrs. M. Allard Metcalf and son Hedden came out from Portland last Sunday. Hedden has about recovered from a severe illness and will remain with his grandmother.

Mrs. James Pelton and children, of Kern Park, have been visiting her parents, Wm. and Mrs. Johnson.

Presiding Elder Valentine will preach here next Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Heslin visited her son John Heslin last Monday.

Miss Sadie Wright, of Portland, is visiting with her mother. Miss Wright is recovering from the effects of an operation.

Mrs. A. Dowsett and Florence Stafford have been visiting their sister, Mrs. H. A. Richardson.

AARON FOX

TROUTDALE, - ORE.

Phone Farmers 281

Common Sense Tells

Even in selecting Groceries
We aim to supply the best for the money, and
MONEY BACK

If not satisfactory
is our motto

FINEST COFFEES, BEST TEAS

STANDARD BRANDS

Groceries and Provisions,
Dry Goods, Shoes,
Hardware, Etc.

FEED BY THE SACK, TON OR CARLOAD

If you want to save money on large quantities see me

WE ALSO BUY YOUR BUTTER, EGGS, ETC.

Phone Farmers 281

Mrs. L. Helming and daughter spent part of last week in Portland.
Miss Eva Bristol has been visiting at the home of her grandfather, D. F. Buxton.
Mrs. Fritz Moritz entertained the Ladies Aid Society at her home on last Wednesday afternoon.
Dr. J. H. Hickman, of Portland, was in town this week attending to professional duties.
James Latham, Troutdale's popular blacksmith has returned from a jaunt up the valley spending a few days with relatives at Eugene. He is glad to be home again.

FAIRVIEW

The funeral services of Francis Tegar were held at the residence of his daughter Mrs. A. Kronenberg at 10 o'clock last Sunday. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery on Sandy road. Deceased was born in County Cavin, Ireland, in 1819. He came to America in 1863.

He spent the last few months of his life at the Patton Home in Portland until two weeks ago when he was taken to the home of his daughter where his death occurred. He leaves two sons and two daughters, Mrs. A. Kronenberg and William Tegar of Fairview, Richard Tegar, of Rockwood and Mrs. Eliza Cummings, of Portland.

Mrs. J. W. Townsend has as a guest Mrs. Newland, of Mayville, Oregon.

George Wadsworth and wife entertained their daughter Helen and Miss Ruby Baker of Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Clark and daughter, of Spokane, Wash., will visit with relatives here. Mrs. Clark is a sister of Mrs. D. S. Dunbar, of Fairview and Mrs. E. A. Stafford, of Metrose.

Mrs. McKinley, of Aberdeen, Wash., is spending a few days with her sisters, Mrs. W. T. Scott and Miss Lucy Higgins. Miss Higgins is recovering from the effects of an operation and expects to return home in a few days.

C. Shepard and wife have been entertaining Mrs. Stull and children who have gone to join Mr. Stull who is employed as steam shovel foreman on the North Bank Road.

Mrs. O. A. Jackson and children returned last Thursday from several days' visit with her parents in eastern Washington.
Mrs. Alma Hall and daughter Susie have returned from several weeks stay at Joseph and Baker City and expect to spend the winter in Portland.
The Home hotel is about to change hands again. Mrs. Clark will be the landlady.
Fairview Grange gave a box social in the hall Tuesday evening and realized a nice sum from the sale of baskets.

LINGERING COULD

Withstood Other Treatment, but was Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best that I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

LEETE-ROBERTS COMPANY

BULL RUN, OREGON

Have opened a

FIRST-CLASS GENERAL STORE

In connection with the postoffice at Bull Run.

Daily Stage to Gresham

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m. Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

A. E. LINDSEY A. G. BORNSTEDT

BORNSTEDT & LINDSEY

Dealers in

General Merchandise

Carry a Complete Line of Everything you want to eat or wear. Also Furnish your Home.

FOR THE LONG WINTER EVENINGS

There is nothing better than a COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH

We have them in all sizes. Also a Great Variety of Records, at Lowest Prices.

MADE FOR US BY PETERS SHOE CO. St. Louis

Stop That Back-Ache On Wash day

Get your wife a 1900 WASHER

Every purchaser is a living testimonial to the worth of these washers.

THE EASY WAY

A Full Line of PETERS SHOES "The Kind that Wear" For Men, Women and Children

Our Christmas Goods

Are daily arriving. The Largest assortment ever in Sandy now on hand. Come early and take your choice.

OUR NEW LINE OF MEN'S AND BOYS' SUITS AND OTHER CLOTHING IS THE LARGEST and Best carried by any store east of Portland. We Guarantee a Fit in Size, Style and Price.

WHEN IN WANT OF ANYTHING, COME OR SEND TO "THE STORE THAT MADE SANDY FAMOUS"

Harlow, Blaser & Harlow

General Merchandise

TROUTDALE,

OREGON