SANDY

Readers in this locality think that not a word too much was spoken in The Herald last week in praise of the Sandy country. It is rapidly coming to the from California and will spend the changed hands recently, among them J. R. Duncan's and Charles Krebs'. It is reported that Mr. Krebs has some idea of starting a brickyard near Sandy. This would insure Sandy's being built

WELCHES

We have had quite a number of light snow storms lately, about one inch being the heaviest fall so far. It lasted but a very short time.

The river is very high caused by the recent heavy rais and snow storms. The most damage done so far was the washing out of the upper bridge on the trail, a number of large logs are stranded in the trail above the south fork of the Salmon river which leaves the trail mpassable at present.

Prices that Win

PRICE and QUALITY are the TWO ESSENTIALS

'Money's worth or money back" has always been our motto. We have ceeded in making good. This doubtless accounts for our enormous trade.

The saving of money is always an object; just now it is doubly so. We are in a position to save you money. If you are a customer of ours all the more reason why we should give you the benefit of our experience and capital in buying. If not a customer, the following prices on first-class goods will doubtless set you to tninking that you ought to be one. Until further notice we will sell the following goods at prices herein quoted:

Pearl Oil, per can,	1.08
Bulk Oil, 5 gals	.80
Flour, best, bbl	5.00
