

For Men

Match Safes
Watches
Locketts
Chains
Fobs
Rings
Emblem Chains
Cuff Links
Seal Rings
Diamond Rings
Diamond Locketts
Diamond Stick Pins
Diamond Cuff Links
Solid Gold Chains
Solid Gold Fobs
Fountain Pens
Emblem Pins
Stick Pins

JEWELRY AS XMAS BARGAINS

Men's 17 Jeweled, adjusted, 12 size
25 year filled watch $18.50

Ladies 20 year Gold filed Elgin or
Waltham watches $13.75

Gents Chains $4.00 values at $2.90

Ladies back combs $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 values at 75c

Sterling Silver Thimbles 23c

1847 Rodgers Bros. Sets, Sugar Shells and Butter Knives $1.50 values $1.15

Signet Hat Pins $1.25 values, engraved free, at $1.00

H. S. BALL & SON

229 Morrison St., PORTLAND, OREGON

Gifts for Ladies

Clocks
Locketts
Broches
Back Combs
Jewel Boxes
Seal Rings
Diamond Rings
Gold Watches
Necklaces
Hat Pins
Thimbles
Fobs
Sterling Silver Souvenir Spoons
Solid Gold Bracelets
Rubby and Opal Rings
Birth Stone Rings
Diamond Broaches
Solid Gold Locketts
Bracelets
Silverware
Thimbles
Hand engraved 14 Karat Gold
Watches

was Eve at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alt of Wood.

BORING

J. E. Seifer is still low with rheumatism.

A road meeting was held in the schoolhouse Saturday at 2 o'clock. A five-mill tax was voted to be applied on six of the main roads. County commissioner Lowellyn attended the meeting and gave a short address.

Books & Co. are laying a few sidewalks and a large platform and approach to their store.

Robt. Tassel is operating his chop mill most every day.

The Christmas entertainment was well attended Christmas Eve, and all had a good time.

Foreman Drill has a gang of men replacing the boilers and stack to the power house.

Bessie Fisher is visiting with friends and relatives.

Billy Tilford, Portland Railway Light and Power agent at Oregon City, spent a few hours in Boring Sunday.

A new baby girl has visited the home of Geo. Partch.

Allan Cooke, breakman on the regular freight, fell while making a switch, and was pretty badly bruised up. He was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. Cooke has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis, for a week.

L. Pitzer is spending the holidays with friends at Estacada.

Our old friend, Owen Martin, will in the future make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Allhouse on Section Line.

A. J. Miller, formerly of the Twelve-Mile house, visited Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bliss lately.

A. H. Bell of Portland was a Rockwood visitor a few days ago.

Miles Grimshaw has taken the contract to rebuild the fence on the school property.

Dr. C. A. Benson of Columbia View recently had a bad runaway, colliding with Mr. Kettering's store.

D. L. Herring leaves for his old home in Missouri.

F. Camp has rented the F. Hamilton place on Sandy road and has moved onto the place.

Mr. Horton will move his family to the Camp place which he has purchased.

Library Report Very Encouraging

The report of the Gresham reading room for the month of December, 1907, is as follows: Attendance, 1253; circulation, 487;—fiction, 244; non-fiction, 243; new members, 50.

A fine collection of books upon the life, art, character etc., of William Shakespeare has been secured at the reading room especially for the benefit of tenth grade pupils.

Additional Gresham Locals

(Continued from page 1.)

Miss Laura Cottrell, who is a student at the O. A. C., is spending her vacation with her grandparents.

Miss Carrie Millspaugh of Montavilla was a guest of Mrs. T. Bronhill over Sunday. She delivered two splendid addresses at the Baptist church Sunday.

Secretary A. Dowsett has sent notices to all stockholders to attend the annual meeting of the Multnomah and Clackamas County Mutual Telephone Company at Gresham (Orange hall, Monday, January 6th, at 2 p. m.

Miss Rena Knapp returned to Gresham Sunday.

Mrs. Etta Hawn, who has been visiting relatives in Seattle, returned home last week.

Major H. W. Love of Clatsop was in Gresham on Monday and made The Herald office a pleasant call.

Miss Harriet Alexander, who is teaching school at Lebanon, spent the holidays with relatives in Gresham.

The Ladies' Home Journal and several new magazines are now received at the reading room.

One of the latest acquisitions to the reading room is the beautiful large picture of "The Coliseum of Rome."

James Goshall was a recent caller at The Herald office.

Carroll Underhill of Salem is visiting at the Carlson home.

Mrs. R. R. Carlson invited a few friends in on New Year's Eve to watch the old year out. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kenney.

George Leslie visited his parents on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie entertained fourteen of their family on Christmas Day.

Mrs. Alva Hevel had as guests for New Year's dinner her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Zeek, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westell and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thompson, who were married in Portland on Christmas Eve, visited relatives in Gresham on New Year's Day. Mrs. Thompson is a sister of Mrs. P. Michel and Mrs. J. W. Lawrence.

Roy P. Hulse is confined to his bed on account of a severe cold.

Fleet Fox is visiting his mother, Mrs. Harmon.

Dan Talley, one of Gresham's most progressive young men, has made quite a reputation for himself along the candy making line. The Herald force were treated to some fine penicose of his own make one day this week.

The Third District Quarterly meeting for the conference year will be held in Gresham Thursday night commencing January 2, and lasting over the Sabbath. The Quarterly Conference will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Love Feast will take place at 10 a. m. Sunday morning and preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. District Elder W. M. Coffey will have charge.

The Women's Baptist Missionary Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Gust Larson, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 9 at 2:30 for the purpose of electing officers. All members requested to attend.

E. Boscoe and D. Flarbitz were recently registered at the Central. They were looking for a location.

Gresham postoffice has been raised from a fourth-class office to a third-class office.

August Rion, a Frenchman, who has been employed by Chas. Cleveland, was badly injured Tuesday from the explosion of some giant powder, and died in a few hours.

J. W. Shattuck is circulating in this locality a petition for an amendment to the constitution of the state making it impossible for the legislature to repeal or amend a law which has been enacted by the people by initiative. This should commend itself to every voter.

WANT COLUMN

Wanted, For Sale, Lost, Found, Etc.

The co-partnership heretofore existing between G. W. Howe and H. H. Lane having been dissolved, Mr. Howe has moved to Vancouver, Wash. Hereafter the Watkins goods will be sold only from the house of C. H. Lane, one mile north of Gresham on Base Line road, or from the wagons. C. H. Lane, agent.

PAGE WOVEN WIRE FENCE. Guaranteed. Chas. Cleveland, agent, Gresham, Ore.

WANTED—Plain sewing of any kind to do. Charges reasonable. Mrs. Chas. Johnson, Gresham.

FOR SALE—A second hand box stove. Enquire at Herald office.

FOR SALE—S. C. Brown Leghorn Cockerels, Petaluma stock, at the J. B. Kelley farm, Orient, Ore. Leon Hale. (1)

FOR SALE—Shoats and pigs. J. G. Child, Gresham, Route 2.

NOTICE—As I have gone out of the blacksmith business at Pleasant Home, all those owing me are requested to pay their bills as soon as possible. Orland Zeek. Gresham, Route 3.

WANTED—Fresh milk cows and beef cattle. T. R. Howitt, Gresham, Ore.

FOR SALE—Good sow with eight pigs five weeks old. Price $25. A. H. Gould, Gresham.

FOR SALE—About 20 head of improved Poland China Hogs. H. McGinnis, 1 1/2 mile south of Orient.

FOR SALE OR RENT—A 20-acre improved farm, near in. Enquire at Herald office.

FOR SALE—A new 30-lb. capacity Economy cream separator. Can be seen at farm of J. H. L. Maybee, 2 1/2 miles east of Sandy, or address Sandy, Ore. (2)

FOR SALE—Rhode Island Red cockerels, $1 each. Ball Bros., Gresham, (3)

FOUND—Black scarf. Owner can have same by calling at this office, and paying for this ad.

FOR SALE—Four-horse power chop mill, all complete. John A. Richey, Barton, Ore.

A number of new books were received at the reading room recently. Drop in and look them over, also the holiday numbers of the magazines.

At the communion service of the Hope Presbyterian church last Sabbath, the rite of infant baptism was administered to Dorothy Buhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell of Broad street. At that time also the pastor, Rev. S. S. White, announces that after the first of the year he would be relieved of his work at Eagle Creek, and beginning with January 5th, he will hold an evening service at 7:30 in the chapel, which is located on Eby street one block north of Villa avenue. Everyone is cordially invited to both the morning and evening services.

MONTAVILLA

Mr. Willard, who has been very ill, is improving.

The Women of Woodcraft installed the following officers on January 1st: P. G. N., Mrs. Bowland; G. N., Mrs. Jensen; adviser, Mrs. Hale; magician, Mrs. Eiders; attendant, Mrs. Hayes; clerk, Mrs. Funk; banker, Mrs. Yarnell; captain of the guards, Mrs. Vilas; manager, Mr. Hayworth; inside sentinel, Mr. Vilas; outside sentinel, Mr. Hale. The installing officer was Mrs. Young. After the installation of officers a banquet was served.

Mrs. Young's sister, Mrs. Smith, left for San Francisco December 29th, where she will meet her husband. They will make their future home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley spent Christmas at Vancouver with Mrs. Kelly's parents.

Mr. Dickenson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lundy and family spent Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Grant Matlock, on Grove street.

Mr. Small's aunt and uncle from Sheridan, Ore., spent Christmas with Mr. Small and family.

Mrs. G. W. Smith is very poorly. She has been taken to Victoria, B. C., in hopes she will benefit her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooker's children and grandchildren were all with them Christmas.

Mrs. Shanks of Oregon City and Miss Shanks of Astoria spent Sunday, December 29th, with Mrs. Bosier.

School commences Thursday, January 2.

Miss Maud Miller is able to be out in the Villa now. She is at the home of Mrs. Polson on Misner street, and will be glad to see her friends.

Miss Agnes Matlock visited her cousin, Mrs. Oscar Bellinger, at her home near Silverton during the holidays.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. S. S. White, 196 Misner street, last Friday. Plans were laid for a bazaar to be held at Easter time.

Miss Harriet Thayer spent the Christmas holidays at her home near Rainier.

Mrs. V. B. Archer, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. E. S. Jenne and Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, for the past three months, has returned to her home in Parkersburg, W. Va. Before leaving Portland, Mrs. Archer purchased an acre of land on the Montavilla car line, north of West avenue.

Mrs. Frank Glass, who has suffered a long time from cancer, died Tuesday, Dec. 24, 1907, at her home in Montavilla. Funeral services were held at Dunning undertaking parlors December 27th. Interment was made at Multnomah cemetery.

W. W. Lewis is suffering from lung trouble. He is at the Portland sanitarium and is reported improving.

Miss Ruth Osburn entertained a number of her friends at her home on Wednesday evening, December 25th. The evening was spent in games, and the presentation of small gifts to all present was the cause of much merriment. Refreshments consisting of nuts, candies and popcorn were served. Those present were, Misses Grace Gilman, Lena Gilman, Flora Kreglow, Nora Lambert, Coral Lambert, Rotta Soggan, Emma Kling and Ruth Osburn and Messrs. Arthur Boyle, Eugene Boyle, Frank Barringer, Vernal Herman, Emil Kling, Horton Webb, Fred Kreglow, Paul Osburn and I. Wade Osburn.

Chas. Happersett and family of La Grande visited at the home of Mr. Happersett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Happersett, during the holidays.

Dick Strand left Monday, December 30th for a week's visit with friends at Lado, Wash.

Mrs. Ollas Carlson, who has been ill for some time, is reported some better.

Lambert, Coral Lambert, Rotta Soggan, Emma Kling and Ruth Osburn and Messrs. Arthur Boyle, Eugene Boyle, Frank Barringer, Vernal Herman, Emil Kling, Horton Webb, Fred Kreglow, Paul Osburn and I. Wade Osburn.

Chas. Happersett and family of La Grande visited at the home of Mr. Happersett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Happersett, during the holidays.

Dick Strand left Monday, December 30th for a week's visit with friends at Lado, Wash.

Mrs. Ollas Carlson, who has been ill for some time, is reported some better.

ford of Portland, who were recently visiting Miss Myrtle Halson, returned home Sunday.

J. Kniroim is pasturing several head of horses.

An entertainment was given at the Upper Latourell schoolhouse last week. Louis Benfield was Santa Claus.

W. Mathews and family have moved to Pleasant Home.

WELCHES

Welches and vicinity has been deluged with snow and rain of late and at present the streams are out of their bounds and a veritable torrent has been flowing down through the camp ground, but no serious damage has been done.

Stock owners are doing well this winter and if no heavy snow falls the farmer will not have to feed much.

A short time ago a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Faribon.

Mr. Ferguson, a Sunday school missionary, was here some time ago, and as a result were enjoying a Sunday school. R. V. Seltou was elected superintendent; Mrs. Ferguson, vice-superintendent; and E. Maulding, secretary and treasurer. Great interest has been shown and so it is hoped the good work will go on.

The roads between here and Portland are very bad at present and it is almost impossible to get goods needed. The mail carrier, Mr. Callings, gets through with the mail, but steadfastly refuses to take any freight in or out.

The school children got up a neighborhood Christmas tree, which was well attended. There was considerable laughter over the fact that every one received a small doll, and some of the young bachelors were quite embarrassed. The evening was voted a grand success.

The school has been closed during the week.

Mr. Faulson is moving into the Bell house until he finishes his new dwelling near Bear Creek. Mrs. Ferguson is exchanging houses with him, having leased the place for a year.

Vin Murphy is visiting with his father and mother and sister, Ruth Murphy, and seems to enjoy himself immensely.

Tom Brown of Salmon is visiting at Oregon City. He is just as full of fun as ever.

Alfred Reynolds, wife and daughter and brother, Frank Reynolds, are staying with Mr. Brown. They expect to remain until spring opens.

Mrs. McIntyre still holds the championship for the most successful angler in these parts.

A very pleasant evening was spent at Mr. Faulson's on Christmas Eve. The young folks of Welches District prepared a Christmas tree to which everyone in the neighborhood was invited, and nearly all responded to the invitations. The most exquisite presents were given to C. W. Kern, Wm. Welch and L. A. Wrenn in the way of baby dolls. Everyone received one or more presents, very pretty or most useful.

L. A. Wrenn spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kern at Hotel Welch.

Wm. Welch visited in Sandy Monday.

There is about two inches of snow on the ground which promises to stay with us.

SANDY

Henry Gerard of Portland has moved out to his cozy little home at Sandy ridge.

A surprise party was given to Mrs. John Boehm Christmas Eve. All had a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vetsch of Boring called on Mr. and Mrs. Albin Meinig Sunday.

The members of the German Lutheran church enjoyed a very pleasant Christmas Eve and a Christmas tree.

Mrs. Peter Vetsch is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Welver, for a few days.

Paul Meinig attended the funeral of Fan Beck in Portland last Friday.

Miss Eda Helms of Portland passed through Sandy last Saturday on her way home to see her father, who is very ill.

Wm. E. Welch of Welches was in Sandy Monday and Tuesday. Billie's got the same old smile.

John McIntyre is in Sandy attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Nelson spent Christmas

PLEASANT VALLEY

E. B. Holcomb and wife celebrated their golden wedding on the 29th of December. They were married at Jefferson, Ohio.

Mrs. J. W. Frost is suffering from a sprained ankle.

M. Baxter's brothers from the Cowitz river spent Sunday in the valley.

Mrs. John Olsson is spending the holidays with his sister at Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas entertained a number of relatives and friends at dinner last Sunday at their beautiful residence in Pleasant Valley in honor of their nephew, Autone Paulsen, and bride, who were married in The Dalles last week.

H. W. Shasshall of Pleasant Valley was a welcome caller at The Herald office Monday. He reports a splendid meeting of Pleasant Valley grange last Saturday.

Gas Richey is suffering from a gathering in the head.

Miss Mattie Baumann is spending a short vacation in Portland.

F. A. Baumann has so far recovered from his injuries of last summer as to be able to attend Grange last Saturday.

The Misses Cecil and Gertrude Rockwell of Portland, and Dalles Simonsen of Gresham, were visitors at J. Thomas' last Sunday.

Pleasant Valley is experiencing a real estate and development boom these days.

The sawmills in this vicinity report a good business.

HURBURT

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins of McKinley, Wash., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. Evans. Mr. Perkins resided in this district for years, having been among the early settlers in this part of the country.

A number of persons from this district attended the basket social and watch party given at Columbia grange.

E. G. Rickett's children have been sick with the mumps.

Dolph Vandever has returned to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. F. Emilly. Dolph has been away a year with his aunt, Mrs. Gill, at McKinley, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Elise, also Mr. and Mrs. Ray Emley spent Christmas Day at the home of F. Ough.

E. G. Rickett, and Mr. and Mrs. Parsons were in Gresham on business Friday.

S. M. Davis and family spent Wednesday at the home of F. Lasley.

Constance Emily of Portland visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. Emilly, Friday.

Mrs. M. Graham and children were callers at the home of J. Fitzgerald Wednesday.

A meeting of the taxpayers was called at the schoolhouse Monday to vote a special tax for the purpose of repairing the schoolhouse.

POWELL VALLEY

The Sunday school exercises at the Swedish Mission church were held December 26. A large number were present. The tree stood in the corner with a large cedar bow in the middle and behind it was an old time fireplace. The children rendered songs and recitations which were very good. They all received gifts in the way of books, nuts, candy, etc.

On December 27, the Christmas entertainment was held in the Lutheran church. The decorations, consisting of a large beautifully decorated tree and five bows of fur around the alter were very attractive. The songs and recitations by the children and young people, and the music and song on the violin and guitar by the Lundeen brothers received much praise. No Santa Claus appeared, because we don't believe in him, but the children all received generous gifts of oranges, candy and nuts. A large number were present, and all were well pleased with the entertainment, although the church was so crowded that a large part of the audience had to stand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bottelson entertained relatives and friends at a Christmas party on Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Johnson entertained C. A. Lindgren and family and A. C. Sward and family for dinner last Sunday.

The grip is visiting in this vicinity. Some are very ill at present, while others are convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson of Eugene have moved to Powell Valley and will occupy a house owned by Rev. Jonas Johnson.

OBITUARY OF BERTIE HILLYARD.

Bertie A. Hillyard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hillyard, died at Orient, Oregon, Dec. 23, 1907, and was interred in Gresham cemetery, Dec. 25, the funeral sermon being preached by S. C. Sherrill pastor of the Pleasant Home Baptist church, at the Gresham Baptist church. The church furnished the music. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

She was 14 years, 8 months and 21 days old at her death. She leaves to mourn her loss, her father and mother, one sister and three brothers also other relatives and numerous friends.

She joined the Baptist church about five years ago, being baptized by Rev. Natley, who was pastor at that time. She lived and died in the triumph of a living faith in Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillyard wish to thank friends and relatives for all kindness shown them in the hour of death.

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death
And with his sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

Subscribe for The Herald.

Services at Gresham Baptist Church

- Sunday School, every Sunday, 10 a. m.
- Prayer meeting, every Sunday, 7:30 p. m.
- Confession meeting, Thursday night
- All cordially invited to attend any or all of these services.

REV. T. B. ANTHONY, Pastor

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

GRESHAM, OREGON

Sunday School at 10 a. m. H. I. St. Clair, superintendent.

Praying services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday evenings, at 7:30 o'clock.

Everybody invited.

Dr. A. Thompson, Pastor.

THEO. ROY

340 Hibbard Street

Would like to figure on your PLUMBING AND GAS FITTING

Everybody Enjoys Home Cooking

The place to find it is at

Montavilla's New Hotel

Meals and rooms by day, week or month. A. E. HERMAN, Prop.

End of car line, Hibbard St., Montavilla

Don't Miss That Great Sale of Clothing at Welch's

SEE WINDOWS FOR DETAILS

IF NOT RIGHT, WELCH MAKES IT RIGHT

WELCH

The American Clothier

221-223 Morrison Corner first

283-285 Washington Near Fourth

Mr. Frank Glass, who has suffered a long time from cancer, died Tuesday, Dec. 24, 1907, at her home in Montavilla. Funeral services were held at Dunning undertaking parlors December 27th. Interment was made at Multnomah cemetery.

W. W. Lewis is suffering from lung trouble. He is at the Portland sanitarium and is reported improving.

Miss Ruth Osburn entertained a number of her friends at her home on Wednesday evening, December 25th. The evening was spent in games, and the presentation of small gifts to all present was the cause of much merriment. Refreshments consisting of nuts, candies and popcorn were served. Those present were, Misses Grace Gilman, Lena Gilman, Flora Kreglow, Nora Lambert, Coral Lambert, Rotta Soggan, Emma Kling and Ruth Osburn and Messrs. Arthur Boyle, Eugene Boyle, Frank Barringer, Vernal Herman, Emil Kling, Horton Webb, Fred Kreglow, Paul Osburn and I. Wade Osburn.

Chas. Happersett and family of La Grande visited at the home of Mr. Happersett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Happersett, during the holidays.

Dick Strand left Monday, December 30th for a week's visit with friends at Lado, Wash.

Mrs. Ollas Carlson, who has been ill for some time, is reported some better.

Lambert, Coral Lambert, Rotta Soggan, Emma Kling and Ruth Osburn and Messrs. Arthur Boyle, Eugene Boyle, Frank Barringer, Vernal Herman, Emil Kling, Horton Webb, Fred Kreglow, Paul Osburn and I. Wade Osburn.

Chas. Happersett and family of La Grande visited at the home of Mr. Happersett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Happersett, during the holidays.

Dick Strand left Monday, December 30th for a week's visit with friends at Lado, Wash.

Mrs. Ollas Carlson, who has been ill for some time, is reported some better.

ford of Portland, who were recently visiting Miss Myrtle Halson, returned home Sunday.

J. Kniroim is pasturing several head of horses.

An entertainment was given at the Upper Latourell schoolhouse last week. Louis Benfield was Santa Claus.

W. Mathews and family have moved to Pleasant Home.

WELCHES

Welches and vicinity has been deluged with snow and rain of late and at present the streams are out of their bounds and a veritable torrent has been flowing down through the camp ground, but no serious damage has been done.

Stock owners are doing well this winter and if no heavy snow falls the farmer will not have to feed much.

A short time ago a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Faribon.

Mr. Ferguson, a Sunday school missionary, was here some time ago, and as a result were enjoying a Sunday school. R. V. Seltou was elected superintendent; Mrs. Ferguson, vice-superintendent; and E. Maulding, secretary and treasurer. Great interest has been shown and so it is hoped the good work will go on.

The roads between here and Portland are very bad at present and it is almost impossible to get goods needed. The mail carrier, Mr. Callings, gets through with the mail, but steadfastly refuses to take any freight in or out.

The school children got up a neighborhood Christmas tree, which was well attended. There was considerable laughter over the fact that every one received a small doll, and some of the young bachelors were quite embarrassed. The evening was voted a grand success.

The school has been closed during the week.

Mr. Faulson is moving into the Bell house until he finishes his new dwelling near Bear Creek. Mrs. Ferguson is exchanging houses with him, having leased the place for a year.

Vin Murphy is visiting with his father and mother and sister, Ruth Murphy, and seems to enjoy himself immensely.

Tom Brown of Salmon is visiting at Oregon City. He is just as full of fun as ever.

Alfred Reynolds, wife and daughter and brother, Frank Reynolds, are staying with Mr. Brown. They expect to remain until spring opens.

Mrs. McIntyre still holds the championship for the most successful angler in these parts.

A very pleasant evening was spent at Mr. Faulson's on Christmas Eve. The young folks of Welches District prepared a Christmas tree to which everyone in the neighborhood was invited, and nearly all responded to the invitations. The most exquisite presents were given to C. W. Kern, Wm. Welch and L. A. Wrenn in the way of baby dolls. Everyone received one or more presents, very pretty or most useful.

L. A. Wrenn spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kern at Hotel Welch.

Wm. Welch visited in Sandy Monday.

There is about two inches of snow on the ground which promises to stay with us.

SANDY

Henry Gerard of Portland has moved out to his cozy little home at Sandy ridge.

A surprise party was given to Mrs. John Boehm Christmas Eve. All had a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vetsch of Boring called on Mr. and Mrs. Albin Meinig Sunday.

The members of the German Lutheran church enjoyed a very pleasant Christmas Eve and a Christmas tree.

Mrs. Peter Vetsch is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Welver, for a few days.

Paul Meinig attended the funeral of Fan Beck in Portland last Friday.

Miss Eda Helms of Portland passed through Sandy last Saturday on her way home to see her father, who is very ill.

Wm. E. Welch of Welches was in Sandy Monday and Tuesday. Billie's got the same old smile.

John McIntyre is in Sandy attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Nelson spent Christmas

PLEASANT VALLEY

E. B. Holcomb and wife celebrated their golden wedding on the 29th of December. They were married at Jefferson, Ohio.

Mrs. J. W. Frost is suffering from a sprained ankle.

M. Baxter's brothers from the Cowitz river spent Sunday in the valley.

Mrs. John Olsson is spending the holidays with his sister at Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas entertained a number of relatives and friends at dinner last Sunday at their beautiful residence in Pleasant Valley in honor of their nephew, Autone Paulsen, and bride, who were married in The Dalles last week.

H. W. Shasshall of Pleasant Valley was a welcome caller at The Herald office Monday. He reports a splendid meeting of Pleasant Valley grange last Saturday.

Gas Richey is suffering from a gathering in the head.

Miss Mattie Baumann is spending a short vacation in Portland.

F. A. Baumann has so far recovered from his injuries of last summer as to be able to attend Grange last Saturday.

The Misses Cecil and Gertrude Rockwell of Portland, and Dalles Simonsen of Gresham, were visitors at J. Thomas' last Sunday.

Pleasant Valley is experiencing a real estate and development boom these days.

The sawmills in this vicinity report a good business.

HURBURT

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins of McKinley, Wash., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. Evans. Mr. Perkins resided in this district for years, having been among the early settlers in this part of the country.

A number of persons from this district attended the basket social and watch party given at Columbia grange.

E. G. Rickett's children have been sick with the mumps.

Dolph Vandever has returned to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. F. Emilly. Dolph has been away a year with his aunt, Mrs. Gill, at McKinley, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Elise, also Mr. and Mrs. Ray Emley spent Christmas Day at the home of F. Ough.

E. G. Rickett, and Mr. and Mrs. Parsons were in Gresham on business Friday.

S. M. Davis and family spent Wednesday at the home of F. Lasley.

Constance Emily of Portland visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. Emilly, Friday.

Mrs. M. Graham and children were callers at the home of J. Fitzgerald Wednesday.

A meeting of the taxpayers was called at the schoolhouse Monday to vote a special tax for the purpose of repairing the schoolhouse.

POWELL VALLEY

The Sunday school exercises at the Swedish Mission church were held December 26. A large number were present. The tree stood in the corner with a large cedar bow in the middle and behind it was an old time fireplace. The children rendered songs and recitations which were very good. They all received gifts in the way of books, nuts, candy, etc.

On December 27, the Christmas entertainment was held in the Lutheran church. The decorations, consisting of a large beautifully decorated tree and five bows of fur around the alter were very attractive. The songs and recitations by the children and young people, and the music and song on the violin and guitar by the Lundeen brothers received much praise. No Santa Claus appeared, because we don't believe in him, but the children all received generous gifts of oranges, candy and nuts. A large number were present, and all were well pleased with the entertainment, although the church was so crowded that a large part of the audience had to stand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bottelson entertained relatives and friends at a Christmas party on Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Johnson entertained C. A. Lindgren and family and A. C. Sward and family for dinner last Sunday.

The grip is visiting in this vicinity. Some are very ill at present, while others are convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson of Eugene have moved to Powell Valley and will occupy a house owned by Rev. Jonas Johnson.

OBITUARY OF BERTIE HILLYARD.

Bertie A. Hillyard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hillyard, died at Orient, Oregon, Dec. 23, 1907, and was interred in Gresham cemetery, Dec. 25, the funeral sermon being preached by S. C. Sherrill pastor of the Pleasant Home Baptist church, at the Gresham Baptist church. The church furnished the music. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

She was 14 years, 8 months and 21 days old at her death. She leaves to mourn her loss, her father and mother, one sister and three brothers also other relatives and numerous friends.

She joined the Baptist church about five years ago, being baptized by Rev. Natley, who was pastor at that time. She lived and died in the triumph of a living faith in Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillyard wish to thank friends and relatives for all kindness shown them in the hour of death.

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death
And with his sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

The Russellville Nursery Company

H. A. LEWIS, Proprietor

Montavilla Station, - PORTLAND, OREGON

Offers a good variety of fruit trees, ornamental shrubs and berry plants.

Write for particulars and price list.