

BORNSTEDT & LINDSEY

Dealers in General Merchandise
SANDY, OREGON

We Wish One and All

A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

And Hope to Merit Your Patronage in 1908 as heretofore.

Christmas at Three-Six.

Christmas day dawned very stormy. A fierce gale and a heavy downpour of rain, but the settlers, nothing daunted, did as they had planned and all met at the home of B. A. Beach, where they spent a very merry day. A dinner of all kinds of goodies (that Christmas always brings) was served at one o'clock. Dancing was enjoyed in the afternoon and a sumptuous supper served at seven o'clock. In the evening a Christmas tree for the children was very entertaining and was followed by dancing with music by S. Edgerton's phonograph. The settlers join in thanking George Bornstedt, of Bornstedt & Lindsey, for his kind remembrance to the ladies and gentlemen of Three-Six. The ladies were remembered with an appropriate gift for each and the men with a box of cigars. Mr. Beach's new residence was decorated for the occasion with elk moss and Oregon grape. We now wish ye editor and ye readers a happy New Year.

LUSTEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Smith of Bridal Veil visited L. A. Davies and family three days last week. W. M. Stubbe, agent for several Portland and other papers, is canvassing in this neighborhood this week. Mrs. W. Craswell and son Lawrence visited Ed Hamilton and family Sunday. Ed Andre and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Andre's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cline of Bullrun. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manary called on Mr. Peterson and wife Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamilton spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Davies.

Miss Alma Maybe of Sandy is visiting her cousin, Miss Elva Andre. Earl and Glen Andre recently purchased a new harness for their goats, and are now breaking them.

Miss Zelma Coss and her brother Cecil spent Christmas at home with their mother, Mrs. K. Coss.

W. Carpenter recently purchased a fine horse of Mr. Salstrand.

W. Craswell presented his son Lawrence with a new saddle Christmas.

Mr. Laymen, near Pleasant Home, sold his farm to J. Duncan of Sandy Ridge.

Jim Haves, who has been quite ill, is slowly improving.

Miss Iva Blackburn was the guest of Mrs. H. Lusted and family last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Kessel of Oregon City is spending the Christmas holidays with her friend, Miss Olive Lusted.

DAMASCUS

The Union and Damascus Schools have resumed work after the holidays.

The Misses Pauline and Nina Heacock are spending their Christmas holidays at the "Wayside."

Tommy Basterville, passed away on December 27, and was buried in the Damascus cemetery.

The Damascus grange has reorganized after a brief interval, and will hold an all day meeting on Saturday, Jan. 4th.

The New Year's dance was quite a success.

Mrs. S. Johnson has been very poorly for the past few days.

Ed Siefert is improving.

COTTRELL

The Baptist church is the home of evangelistic effort in the hands of Rev. Leonard of St. Johns.

N. G. Hedlin has moved into his new home.

Dell Hudson paid his Portland friends a visit last week.

Mrs. Ball is improving.

William Smith was a Cottrell visitor last week.

Mr. Donahue has a good force of men clearing land.

Clinton Edwards is out again after his attack of smallpox.

The road meeting at the schoolhouse last week was well attended. A special tax of 5 mills was voted which will bring in about $300. The county will add $300 more to this, the total to be used in grading the road from Paul Dunn's corner to Sandy along the bluff. Judge Dimick of Oregon City gave a talk touching on the proposed boundary change and tax comparison of Multnomah and Clackamas counties.

Chester Shetterly, Clifford Schneider and Warren Ball were visitors at Hedlin's Sunday.

The Millium Quartet sang two songs last Sunday to the delight of all.

Miss Dorcas and Newton Hedlin were Portland visitors Sunday.

Mr. Schneider and Rev. Sherrill attended the ordination services at the White Temple last Sunday.

Read the want ads on last page.

FAIRVIEW

Nineteen carloads of steel rails, belonging to the Mt. Hood company, have been unloaded and piled up here to remain some time.

Fairview has the promise of a waiting room at the Portland Railroad Light & Power Co.'s station before February 1.

Mrs. Bondurant of Vancouver has been visiting Mrs. D. G. Fisher.

A. T. Axtell and family left on Tuesday for LaFayette, Ore., to spend the remainder of the week with Mrs. Axtell's mother, Mrs. C. Billington.

Mrs. Alma Hall of Portland was a visitor in Fairview a few days ago.

H. B. Perkins and wife came down from their homestead in Eastern Washington to spend the holidays with their daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. O. A. Jackson and daughters spent Christmas with Mrs. F. B. Hyatt in Portland.

Miss Jaqueth is a guest of Mrs. L. Moore. Miss Jaqueth is teaching school near Seattle. Miss Margaret Jaqueth will accompany her sister on her return to Seattle.

Raymond Wenger has been very ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. M. J. Littlepage of Gresham has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Heslin.

G. O. Dolph has again taken up his residence in Fairview and is employed by the Portland Dairy association here. Mr. Dolph's family have moved back to their home here from Portland, where they have spent the past four months.

G. E. Lewellen of Moro, Ore., while on his way to Portland, had a short visit with his cousin, Mrs. W. Ellison.

Mr. Mashburn has moved his family from the Dolph residence to the Sun Dial place.

Mrs. Mary McDaniels and son visited in Portland the first of the week.

Miss Laura Luce spent the holidays with relatives at Forest Grove.

Miss Ruth Jackson has been spending a few days in Portland.

J. A. Dunbar and wife of Portland spent Sunday with D. S. Dunbar and wife.

W. Sebastian, who has been employed on the Portland Dairy ranch here, has gone to Portland to reside.

New Year's Day was observed by the grangers with one of the dinners, for which the grange is famous, it being their regular meeting day.

BULL RUN

Christmas was not forgotten this year at Bull Run, and as the day was very stormy, friends met at different places and enjoyed excellent dinners.

The family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cline was enjoyed by all. Christmas Eve a tree was loaded with presents, numbering 116 in all. None were forgotten and the dinner Christmas Day was one to be remembered by all. The table was loaded with goose and chicken and many kinds of delicious things, which all enjoyed and par-ook of heartily.

The Bull Run bridge is said to be in danger. The approach on the south side rests on an old slide which has settled considerable in the last two weeks.

Miss Gertie Clark came home from her school near Gresham to spend the holidays.

Wesley Bacon and wife and baby spent Christmas with his parents at Pleasant Home, after which they went to Portland to visit relatives.

Frank Bacon and wife spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odelle of Cherryville.

J. Cline delivered his herd of goats to the purchaser at Pleasant Home.

J. H. L. Maybe was seen on Sawdust street Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Inlow were visiting friends in Bull Run last week.

Grandma Thomas was happily surprised Christmas morning when she received a nice range for a Christmas present. Good for old Santa Claus.

SECTION LINE

J. Dollerich is building an addition to his cottage.

Mr. Avise, who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia, was taken to the hospital last week.

EGYPT

The Springfield school held its Christmas exercises last Saturday. Everyone had a very enjoyable time.

Ernest Bates is staying at H. Schnitz' while attending the Brower school.

Chas. Lovestead, who recently returned from the hospital, is convalescing. He is staying with his brother.

V. Bodeen went to Portland last Monday.

TROUTDALE

The remains of Mrs. Martha Barney were interred in Douglass cemetery on last Friday afternoon. Funeral services were held from Union church by Rev. C. B. Ross. Death came to Mrs. Barney at 2 o'clock last Thursday morning after an illness of several weeks from paralysis. Deceased was born in Athan county, Ohio, July 3, 1843. Her maiden name was Martha Humphrey.

On Feb. 9, 1868, she was married to Henry Barney. Mr. and Mrs. Barney came to Oregon in 1887. Mr. Barney passed to the great beyond in Dec., 1899. Two sons and two daughters survive, Channery and Henry Barney, Mrs. Cora Vanderhoof and Mrs. Elizabeth Donelson.

Wm. Cozier and family of Sellwood spent Sunday in Troutdale.

John Erickson and wife and John Hickley and wife of Portland were here to attend Mrs. Barney's funeral.

Mrs. L. Adams and child of Omaha, Neb., have been visiting Mrs. H. E. Surber.

Norris Stone spent Sunday in Portland.

Born to Mrs. Robert Hunter on December 28, an 11-pound boy.

Johnson Buckley of Forest Grove has been visiting H. E. Surber and wife. Mr. Buckley has purchased from M. Steel the old Fred Pelton place of 8 acres situated south of Troutdale, and will move his family here.

Mrs. G. E. White of Portland visited her parents, Wm. Johnson and wife, last week. Mrs. White left with her husband for Butte, Mont., Saturday, where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. James Pelton and children spent Christmas week with her parents, Wm. Johnson and wife.

Mrs. Frank Jette of Champoug, Ore., is spending a few days with her parents, G. N. Reynolds and wife.

Miss Georgia and Edith Reynolds of Portland spent Christmas Day with their parents.

Mrs. W. L. Van Houten passed away at her home here last Sunday night, after an illness of several months with consumption. Funeral services were held from Union church here Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in Douglass cemetery. Mrs. Van Houten's husband and two sons survive her.

COLUMBIA VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larsen spent Christmas with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Adelia Davis of Washington, who has been visiting her brother, A. D. Ogden, of this place, has gone to visit her uncle, H. G. Ogden of Forest Grove, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Belle Robbins and children were in this neighborhood last Thursday and expect to move back on their place soon.

James Richey returned to his home last Tuesday after an absence of ten weeks, and although he is compelled to get around with crutches, he is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. S. Swigert is visiting her mother at Troutdale.

Mrs. Wm. Hurt entertained a number of her young friends on Christmas day.

Robert and Annie Benfield were recent callers on Mrs. A. Richey.

Miss Alma Miller of Portland spent Christmas with Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

Miss Edna Wood is visiting with Miss Ritter at the latter's home in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Word were visitors at the Reynolds ranch Sunday. Mr. Word, Mr. Reynolds and Ross Lovelace were over to the Columbia river fishing and caught some fine Salmon trout.

Harve Fisher has the piling driven for his new bridge, and is now laying the stringers. Peter Antonson is helping him do the work.

Mr. Swank of Portland bought two carloads of potatoes from our neighborhood Sunday.

Cal. Powell was a visitor at the Reynolds ranch Friday.

Misses Olive and Mabel Zimmerman are home for the holidays.

ESTACADA

The people of the Garfield grade district met at the Garfield grade hall and voted a special road tax of five mills.

A shadow social was given in the M. E. church at Currinsville recently. The proceeds, which were $27, going towards purchasing song books.

Miss Cora Yocum, who is attending the O. A. C. is spending the holidays at her home here.

Ed Bates and wife of Portland are visiting friends and relatives here.

Messrs. Kaney, Don and Dexter, and Miss Laurena Crawford spent Christ-

Prices that Win

PRICE and QUALITY are the TWO ESSENTIALS

"Money's worth or money back" has always been our motto. We have succeeded in making good. This doubtless accounts for our enormous trade.

The saving of money is always an object just now it is doubly so. We are in a position to save you money. If you are a customer of ours all the more reason why we should give you the benefit of our experience and capital in buying. If not a customer, the following prices on first-class goods will doubtless set you to thinking that you ought to be one. Until further notice we will sell the following goods at prices herein quoted:

Pearl Oil, per can.....	$ 1.08
Bulk Oil, 5 gals.....	.80
Flour, best, bbl.....	5.00
Star Soap, 7 bars.....	.25
KC Bak'g Powder, 25oz.....	.20
Star Tobacco, Pkg.....	.45
Oysters, 3 cans.....	.25
Pork & Beans, 3 cans.....	.25
Canned Corn, 3 cans.....	.25
Hams, best, lb.....	.15 1/2
Raisins & Currants, 16oz.....	.12
Bran, 60-lb. Sack.....	.65
Shorts, 80-lb. Sack.....	.95
Salt, 50 lbs. half ground.....	.35
Small White Beans, lb.....	.06
Export Cigars, 3 for.....	.10
Bulk Coffee, good.....	.18
Extract Vanilla, 2 oz.....	.08
" Lemon, ".....	.08
O N T Thread.....	.06

Just compare these prices with others and we are satisfied that you will sit up and take notice, the same as others, that you get your "money's worth or money back" when you trade with Fox. Will you do it? We believe you will. All mail orders receive prompt attention.

The name of Fox has been a household word in this district for years. The name is synonymous with good goods at lowest prices. Some of our customers have said it is "like trading dollars in dealing at Fox's."

With Best Wishes to everyone for a Happy New Year

AARON FOX,

"Pioneer Merchant" TROUTDALE, ORE.
Phone Farmers 281

Correspondence

MELROSE

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wood and their two daughters were down from Bridal Veil to spend Christmas with Rev. and Mrs. Wood.

Arthur Evans spent Christmas at home.

There was a tree for the Sunday school children Christmas Eve at the church, with plenty of nuts and candy for everybody.

Mrs. Wood is still quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad and little Ada returned home Saturday evening. During their absence a family of twelve fine young pigs arrived at their place.

Miss Bertha Evans visited with Mrs. McBride recently.

Mrs. Grant and infant of Portland are visiting Mrs. Mackay at the Glenelder farm.

Mrs. Alder is suffering from a cold this week.

Miss Pearl Alder is spending her vacation at home.

We were glad when our faithful mail-carrier made his round on Christmas Day, bringing tokens and remembrances from absent friends, adding his own cheery greetings of "Merry Christmas" and keeping a cheerful countenance in spite of the disagreeable weather he was obliged to be out in. Truly, there are times when a nod and a smile does us a bushel of good. Let us not be so stingy with them.

Besides the regular morning and evening services at the chapel, there were German services at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Miss Frantz spent her vacation in Portland, visiting her sister.

Mrs. Sam Strebin has relatives from Michigan visiting her.

John Wintemute was visiting friends here and making himself useful by assisting in decorating the Christmas tree and church last week.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

There are now between 30 and 40 Greek laborers camped in our midst, clearing land, and judging from the whistling and snatches of song we hear coming from their camp, they seem to like their new quarters very well indeed. Under their united efforts, stumps and waste wood are steadily disappearing, and another choice bit of land will soon be ready for the plow.

LEETE-ROBERTS COMPANY

BULL RUN, OREGON

Have opened a

FIRST-CLASS

GENERAL STORE

In connection with the postoffice at Bull Run.

Daily Stage to Gresham

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.