

We have just received

A New Line of Dress Gingham

AND OTHER WASH GOODS

New Spring Patterns! Look in Our Show Windows

Graphophone, Free!

One Guess with every $1 Cash Purchase

Much interest is shown in our guessing Contest.

Somebody is going to get that Graphophone!

BORNSTEDT & RUEGG

Sandy, Oregon

LEETE-ROBERTS COMPANY

BULL RUN, OREGON

Have opened a

FIRST-CLASS GENERAL STORE

In connection with the postoffice at Bull Run.

Daily Stage to Gresham

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY

H. Inlow of Cottrell bought a lot in Junker's Addition and expects to build a home in the spring.

All Bell started the foundation for a new house Tuesday. He will build a cottage 15 x 24 with a 14 foot wing.

Casper Junker is having a new barn built. The building will be 50 x 60 and 34 foot high to tip.

H. J. Kortzenoff of St. Lucas, Iowa, has been visiting his father and friends here the past week. He started home Thursday with a sample lot of potatoes.

Public Sale

J. E. Stone's Place

One-half mile east of Anderson Station on O. W. P.—Five miles southeast of Gresham

Thursday, Jan. 30, 1908

Commencing at 10 a. m.

The Following Articles:

Team of Horses 5 Milch Cows 17 Pigs 1 Wagon, 3 1-4 good 1 Heavy Spring Wagon with Cover 1 Simplex Cream Separator 1 Riding Cultivator 1 Plow 1 Steel Harrow, 2 Sections 1 Hallock Weeder 1 Grindstone 1 Set Work Harness 1 Set Single Harness 1 Gravel Bed 1 Wagon Box 1 Hay Rack 1 6-ft. Extension Table 1 Dresser 1 Plush Bed Lounge 1 Cupboard 1 Kitchen Treasure 1 Heating Stove 1 Go-Cart 1 Child's Iron Crib, new Some Carpet Some Sacks 1 8-gal. Barrel Churn About 7 Tons Clover Hay Shovels and other articles too numerous to mention

TERMS

Amounts $10 and under to be cash. Amounts over $10, nine months time with interest at 8 per cent per annum from date. Good security to be given. Two per cent discount for cash on all bills over $10.

C. H. Davis, Owner
H. E. Davis, Auctioneer

WE BUY FURS HIDES

for next cash. 10 to 60% more money for you to ship Raw Furs and Hides to us than to sell at home. Write for Price List, Market Report, Shipping List, and about our HUNTERS & TRAPPERS' GUIDE $10,000 worth of traps, snares, and traps. How and where to trap, and to become a successful trapper. It is a complete Encyclopedia. Price, $1. To our customers, $1.25. Hides from $1.00 per pound. Our Magazine and other articles available to traps, $1.25 per bottle. $10.00 per box. Hides and Furs to be sold at highest prices. Address: Herb, Dept. 71, Minneapolis, Minn.

apples, pears and other fruit. He says there is no use telling them about this country. He will just take the real thing and show them. He is delighted with this country and intends coming back in the fall to stay.

The potato crop here is excellent so far. There is considerable talk of incorporating the town of Sandy. Nearly everyone favors it but think they need more votes.

The new blacksmith shop is nearing completion.

A special meeting of the Elgretta Circle, Women of Woodcraft, was held Saturday night with a good attendance.

Miss Annie Clark, whose parents reside near Sandy, was married in Portland Christmas Day to Harry Murray of Centralia, Wash. We wish the young couple a long and happy life.

CHERRYVILLE

At the shooting match held at Cherryville last week, Luther Ware was the champion shot, winning five hens out of ten.

Mrs. Osburn of Cottrell visited Mrs. Stone last week.

Rev. Wm. Runion and Rev. Exon are holding a series of meetings at the Cherryville schoolhouse.

Mrs. Mary Struckin has moved up on her place formerly owned by Mr. Kopper.

The young men of Cherryville wish to thank the ladies for their free leap year dance, also the excellent supper and fine music and management.

BORING

Foreman Drill has the big stack and balers in place again at the power house.

Palmer's mill has started up again, and will have several months of cutting.

J. M. Davis, formerly of the power plant, has accepted the position of engineer.

Protracted meetings are being held here by Reverends Ingalls, Jean and Miller. The attendance is good.

F. M. Morgan of the firm of Morgan & Donahue has moved to Sandy to look after their lively business.

Messrs. Hosberg, Tacherson and Sobin have erected a telephone line and connected with the Boring central.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacker have moved to Arleta.

S. Edwards and C. Erwin are building a house east of the power house.

WELCHES

Where the rosy-checked kid of Welchies won out Christmas night of course there was mistletoe and of course Mr. Kern was the first to stand under the mistletoe, but for some reason not indicated at the time Mr. Kern received no kisses. Why it was we all wondered, but a recent issue of the Beaver State Herald brings a strong light upon the subject. It is easy to guess why. The rosy checked kid did not have to stand under the mistletoe. Mr. Kern is somewhat indisposed at present, but expects to regain his former assurance in a short time.

DAMASCUS

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were in Portland Saturday and Sunday, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes, who have just returned from California.

Ed. Siefer has sufficiently recovered from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism to make a trip to see his doctor at Oregon City on Saturday.

Mr. Mathews and daughter Nettie went to Portland, Monday on business.

Miss Carrie Henlock is visiting her brother, Mark, in Pendleton.

Miss Nellie Elliott and sister, Burnice have been out of school this last week with the grip.

Mrs. Huddle, daughter of Rev. Mr. Bowerman, died Sunday evening. She leaves a husband and two small children, one a baby of three months. They have the sympathy of many friends.

Ed. Johnson has sold his farm to Will Chilcote.

Mrs. Chandler has returned from eastern Oregon and will spend the winter at home.

BULL RUN

Jim Hays is visiting friends at Bull Run this week.

Mrs. Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jackson spent last week visiting relatives in Sellwood.

Bertie Cline and Miss Iva Jackson were welcome visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haygon of Sellwood last Sunday. The day was spent very merrily with various selections of music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Haygon. A chicken dinner was then served which was immensely enjoyed by all.

C. W. Struthers was seen in Bull Run last Sunday.

EGYPT

Mr. and Mrs. Westlund were visited by the stork. He left them a fine baby boy.

T. Westlund's brother-in-law, C. A. Lindquist, came up on a visit last week.

Wm. Burkholder came home from eastern Oregon last week.

O. Bolden and J. Johnson went to St. Johns last week.

Edward Bates, who has been working for H. Schultz, returned to Portland last Friday.

Grangers should take The Herald.

Cupid!

Meinig Bros., General Merchandise, Sandy, Ore. have just added to their staple lines Hood River Milling Company's Cupid Flour which they will be pleased to show you.

Guaranteed to Exceed all others : : : : Give it a Trial

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. H. Shaw and son George and daughter Ruth returned from Walla Walla, Wash., on Monday where they spent the winter with Mrs. Shaw's daughter, Mrs. H. Dunley.

Miss Ethyl Heslin has been entertaining Miss Lillian Glider of Gresham.

D. S. Dunbar and wife spent Sunday in Portland with their son, J. A. Dunbar.

Miss Della Morrison of Portland is spending several days here, a guest of Mrs. J. M. Ashcraft.

Geo. Dolph of Portland passed Sunday with his parents, G. O. Dolph and wife.

Mrs. W. T. Scott spent last Friday and Saturday in Portland.

Dan O'Shea of Portland was in Fairview on Sunday.

James Davis of Montavilla, son of J. M. Davis of Terry, has moved his family into the Methodist parsonage.

Geo. Dolph of Portland passed Sunday with his parents, G. O. Dolph and wife.

Mrs. W. T. Scott spent last Friday and Saturday in Portland.

Dan O'Shea of Portland was in Fairview on Sunday.

James Davis of Montavilla, son of J. M. Davis of Terry, has moved his family into the Methodist parsonage.

Geo. Dolph of Portland passed Sunday with his parents, G. O. Dolph and wife.

Mrs. W. T. Scott spent last Friday and Saturday in Portland.

Dan O'Shea of Portland was in Fairview on Sunday.

TROUTDALE

Fred Zimmerman, wife and daughter, left on Friday evening for Santa Ana, Cal., where they will reside in the future.

Miss Carrie Oriler of Vancouver has come to Troutdale to spend some time with C. H. Light and wife.

Mrs. Arthur Dowsett of Gresham spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Richardson.

Dr. W. C. Belt will move his family to Sellwood. W. Swain will move into the house vacated by Dr. Belt, and Dan Richardson and family will occupy the Swain house.

Robert Hunter has exchanged the Powell cottage with Geo. Lee for the Osburn cottage.

Lee Campbell is the proud father of a fine boy, born on January 15th.

Mrs. Aaron Fox and daughter Salina left on Sunday evening for San Francisco, where they will remain for some time for the benefit of Mrs. Fox's health.

An addition is being made on the Troutdale library and reading room. The library will be in charge of the Portland Library association in the future.

Mrs. McKeefer and granddaughter, Ruth Young, visited Troutdale friends last week.

Miss Laura Fox of Portland spent Monday in Troutdale.

S. Steele is moving his family to Roseburg, Ore.

S. S. Logan has been laid up for several days with rheumatism.

Aaron Fox's new building on Main street will be ready for occupation in a few days. The painters and paper hangers are now at work on the interior.

Contractors have begun work on the excavation for the three-story brick building to be erected by Wineheart, where Latonell Bros.' saloon formerly stood.

Jack Stafford of Portland has been spending a few days with relatives here.

G. R. Goetsch of Portland spent Sunday with friends at the home of H. A. Richardson.

Mr. Scharf has just received word of the death of his mother in Germany.

Miss Laura Menzies of Portland was a Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Hoyt.

Mrs. E. A. Stafford of Melrose visited her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Richardson, on Wednesday.

Jay Moore of Portland is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. A. T. Tiller, and nursing an attack of the mumps.

F. A. Harlow has gone to Oakland, Cal., where he will join Mrs. Harlow, who went down a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Harlow will spend some time in California in pursuit of their health.

Read the want ads on last page.

A Correction

In the report of the council meeting at Troutdale in last week's issue of The Herald, it should have stated that the council was opposed to the amendment to the saloon ordinance making the license fee payable semi-annually instead of annually as at present, that the councilmen voted it down not even giving Mayor Fox a chance to veto it.

PLEASANT HOME

Mrs. Markell entertained several at dinner last Sunday.

The Methodist Episcopal church has a new stove and intend to have a new carpet in a short time. Everyone is cordially invited to come and hear the new minister.

The little Haworth boy is slowly improving.

Mrs. Smith was staying with her daughter, Mrs. Hutchins, for a few days recently. Mrs. Hutchins is not much better.

Rev. Mr. Reese and family have moved to Pleasant Home.

Mrs. Kennedy is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter and children were visiting Mrs. Carpenter's sister, Mrs. Knighton of Boring, last Sunday.

Morris Wheeler has a cousin from Michigan who is making him a visit.

OUR GRAND Clearance Sale

Is Now on in Full Blast

During the past year we have carried large stocks of goods in all lines. Our sales have been very heavy but we naturally have many broken lines left that we must dispose of to make room for our new stock. Hence we will make it a special object for you to buy at this time.

OUR STORE IS A VERITABLE

EMPORIUM OF BARGAINS

Come and See —

—What we have to offer you in—

Dry Goods, Shoes, Notions, Dishes, Groceries, Feed, Hardware, etc.

At a great reduction during our Grand

Clearance Sale

AARON FOX,

"Pioneer Merchant" TROUTDALE, ORE.
Phone Farmers 281

BORING ROLLER MILL

Will Run Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will deliver feed on these days only.

FLOUR and FEED at Portland Prices.

ROBERT TASSELL

Cottrell and Boring. - Oregon

Sandy Harness Shop

Has on hand a Full Line of Saddles, Harness, Collars, Whips, Bits, Spurs and everything else usually carried by a First-class Harness Shop

SADDLES MADE TO ORDER

Prices reasonable, First-class work and guaranteed.

All kinds of harness and shoe repairing neatly and promptly done.

V. E. FOSBERG, Prop.
Sandy Oregon

Sandy Stage and Livery

MORGAN & DONAHUE Proprietors

LEAVES

Sandy for Boring.....8:30 a. m.

Boring for Sandy.....2:30 p. m.

Boring for Sandy.....8:35 a. m.

Sandy for Boring.....4:42 p. m.

At Sandy makes connections with Salmon mail stage. Also makes connections for Aschoff's and meets first car at Boring.

The Sandy Hotel

First-class accommodations. Commercial trade solicited. Clean beds and good meals.

Feed Stable in Connection

CASPER JUNKER, Prop.
Sandy, Oregon

Our Mill is Running Steadily

Sawing a first-class quality of Rough and Dressed lumber. All sizes now ready for delivery at the new mill, three-fourths of a mile east of Kelso.

Straus Lumber Co.

Phone rnh orders after six o'clock to Farmer 198 Orient, Ore.

Harlow, Blaser & Harlow

General Merchandise

TROUTDALE, OREGON