SANDY

The butcher shop recently established in Tawney's hardware store, by Larsen Bell and Tawney, is enjoying a splendid patronage.

V. E. Fosberg, the Sandy harness and saddle maker, finds it hard to keep new saddles on hand. He sells them faster then he makes them.

Mrs. Casper Junker and daughters were guests of Mrs. Wm. Wirtz at Gresham last Saturday.

Timothy Brownhill, accompanied by C. A. Heath, of Grass Valley, Oregon, were guests of mine host Caspar Junker, of Sandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Bull Run, last Tuesday.

J. B. Tawney, the popular hardware and vehicle man, is putting out numerous signs announcing his new business.

Mr. and Mrs. Albon Meinig are making numerous improvements on the grounds of their pretty home, east of Sandy.

Mrs. Frank Skinner was a Portland visitor this week. Frank looked lonesome and unhappy.

Wm. Wirtz delivered two lectures to an appreciative audience at Cherryville last Sunday.

The editorial page of the Herald has been the cause of much favorable comment in Sandy recently.

Davis & Davis are doing the carpenter work on Junker's big livery barn.

Dr. McElroy has remodeled the drug store adjoining his property, and will soon move his stock of drugs there.

Lire Coleman and force have completed the roof on the new Odd Fellows hall, and will soon have the building ready for occupancy.

Under the aggressive and wide-awake methods pursued by Messrs. Wirtz and Coleman, the Sandy Valley is soon to have a fruit growers' organization.

Quite a number of new buildings are in course of construction, some new buildings are finished and are occupied as business houses and private residences. In fact, Sandy is taking on something of a metropolitan air.

BULL RUN

We are having lovely weather now, and the farmers are very busy plowing and putting in their crops.

Mr. Glover is planting his potatoes this week.

Mr. Woodcock has just finished having his orchard pruned and sprayed.

Frank Bacon is on the sick list again.

Miss Mamie Baley is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Cocklereas for a few weeks.

Wesley Bacon is building a house on his place near Bull Run where he expects to move soon and improve his place.

Miss Gertie Clark is expected home in a few days as she has finished her school.

Mr. Craig is moving on the Orby place. He has rented it for a while. Mrs. Craig is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

There was a very pleasant surprise party at J. Clines' Saturday night, on the occasion of their moving away from their old home at Bull Run, where they have lived for many years. There were between forty and fifty people, old and young, and all had a very pleasant time. Every one brought baskets well filled with lots of good things of which all partook heartily, and the time was spent with pleasant conversation, music, singing and dancing and a merry good time until a late hour.
