

SPRINGTIME IS PAINT TIME

We Handle Heath & Milligan's Prepared Paints, Floor Paints, Stains, Varnishes, Brushes, Etc. Can Furnish You Oil and Lead in Any Quantity and Our Prices Are Right.

NEW—A Full Line of Window Glass. All Sizes—NEW

MEN'S NOBBY HATS

A Lot of New Hats in the Latest Shapes and Fads Now on Hand and Going Fast.

—Our line of—
Dry Goods, Furnishings, Etc.
Is More Complete Than Ever

If You Are Interested in Washing Machines, Why Not Take A "1000 Home and Try It?"

—WHAT WE ADVERTISE WE DO—

BORNSTEDT & RUEGG

SANDY, OREGON

Tawney & Bell

GENERAL HARDWARE
FARM IMPLEMENTS

WAGONS, BUGGIES, HACKS, PLOWS, CULTIVATORS, HARROWS, ETC.
HARNESS and ACCESSORIES.
STOVES, RANGES, WASHING MACHINES, ETC.
COOKING UTENSILS and SHELF HARDWARE.

TAWNEY & BELL

SANDY, OREGON

Sandy Stage and Livery

E. F. DONAHUE, PROPRIETOR

LEAVES
Sandy for Boring	6:30 a. m.
Boring for Sandy	2:30 p. m.
	8:35 a. m.
	5:02 p. m.

At Sandy makes connections with Salmon mail stage. Also makes connections for Aschoff's and meets first car at Boring.

IMPORTED GERMAN COACH ACHILL

WAS FOALED IN 1902. WAS IMPORTED FROM GERMANY TO AMERICA IN 1907 BY A. C. RUBY & CO.

—DESCRIPTION—

JET BLACK, 18 HANDS HIGH, 5 YEARS OLD, WEIGHT, 1650, GIRTH AROUND THE HEART 33 INCHES

Will Make the Season, March 15 to July 1, as follows:

Monday and Saturday at E. F. Donahue's Barn at Boring Tuesday and Wednesday at Donahue's Stage Barn, Sandy Thursday noon to Friday noon, at Jones' Barn, Estacada

TERMS: To Insure, $20; Season, $12; Single Leap, $7.50

CHAS. COX E. DONAHUE
MANAGER SECRETARY

DAMASCUS

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chitwood were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leu Siefert on Sunday.

A carload of potatoes has been shipped from Siefert to Washington for seed in replanting the districts washed out by the recent floods.

Mr. and Mrs. Maple of Molalla spent Sunday with brothers and sisters at Delbert Forbes' before leaving for their new home at Hood River.

Anton Maler of Firwood spent Sunday at the "Wayside."

Frank Teevin, who has been very sick, has been taken to the hospital. Judging from the amount of work being put on the roads, Multnomah will be glad to take the north part of Clackamas county.

Miss Nina Heacock has just closed the winter school at Firwood and has returned home.

The electric storm on Thursday burned out several of the fuses at the telephone Central at Damascus.

Clackamas County GLEANINGS

SANDY

Dr. McElroy was in Portland three days last week on business.

The Sandy river has been 21 feet above low water mark for a few days. Snow melting on Mt. Hood is given as the cause.

The candidates are making their rounds with their usual generosity.

The merchants of Sandy claim their sales of March to be much larger than that of March, 1907, by one-fourth with all mills closed down. The hotel and livery business is nearly double.

There will be three stage lines running between Boring and Welches this summer. There will be two new resorts above Welches and they expect nearly double the amount of people to visit Mt. Hood than any previous year.

Antone Burgard has bought 40 acres of land of the McCormack place and will build a new house as soon as lumber can be had.

The Johnson Lumber company's saw mill closed Monday. They will make some repairs and changes on the mill and will also make a tie drive as soon as there is back water in the Sandy at Troutdale.

The German American society held its first social Saturday evening, March 21st, all claiming a good time. The next meeting will be held the first Sunday in April.

There will be a dance at Junker's hall next Saturday given by the boys of the Sandy stage line.

Casper Junker and family drove out to B. F. Hart's ranch Sunday afternoon.

There is some talk of organizing a band at this place and everyone ought to encourage it. Sandy could have a good band as there are several good musicians in the vicinity.

Gust Dahrens came down from Ains Sunday.

Ben McKee and his little son of Portland visited the Sackow family of Sandy Sunday.

M. Bolzano of Costa Rica was doing business in Sandy last week.

Sandy is one of those cross road towns you read about. We own the commercial center of one of the best farming and fruit sections in the world. Keep your eye on Sandy.

L. G. Holden of the Toll Gate made a business trip to Portland last week. A great number of fishermen from Portland were out Sunday in quest of speckled beauties.

Gust Logas and family of Portland spent Sunday at their homestead on Sandy river.

W. C. Dolson of Portland was a Sandy visitor on Saturday of last week. Voters who have not registered should do so at once. Registration before the primaries closes April 7.

John Maccho who is employed at Johnson Lumber company spent Sunday with his family on the bluff.

H. L. Chalker of Cherryville transacted business in Sandy Saturday.

M. Bolzano of Costa Rica went to Portland Tuesday to visit his sister who is ill.

Mrs. W. R. Allen and Miss Mabel Eriel of Cherryville were Sandy visitors Monday.

Paul Dunn of Cottrell was shaking hands with old friends here Monday.

Redding Russell who has been quite sick at the Johnson mill is improving. He was taken to his home at Corbett Tuesday.

A. C. Braunback has been suffering with rheumatism but we are glad to report that he is improving.

Villard Kiel called on our merchants Monday in the interest of Closset & Devers.

M. McCormick sprayed C. Junker's orchard Monday.

W. Exon preached at Bullrun and Cherryville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bornstedt visited at Cedarville Sunday.

W. E. Burgess who is working at Boring visited his family at Bull Run Sunday.

Sandy has two general stores, one hardware store, one furniture store, one drug store one meat market, one hotel, one saloon, one barber shop, one harness shop, one tin shop, a chop mill, two churches, several lodges, a good school and one doctor. Sandy needs a brass band, a good live young physician and a few more boosters.

Paul Mignola of Dover transacted business here Monday.

Sandy is going to have a race track the coming season.

A party of travelers started to cross the mountains on the Barlow road but had to give up on account of the snow and go back to Troutdale and travel by boat.

AIMS

School opened last week. Miss Florence Bleehring is the teacher.

Fred Newby and family have returned to their home at Hood River.

Albert Riederbusch was seen on the streets of Aims Sunday.

Aims boasts of a dancing school.

Mr. Moore and family left for Hood River Sunday.

Thomas Day has returned from a business trip to Green Point, Oregon.

Everyone had a good time at the dance given at the home of Ona Davenport Saturday night.

Orange blossoms are budding on Cougar Mountain and wedding bells will soon be ringing.

Mr. Oldham and family have gone back to their home at Green Point.

Mrs. John Taylor and daughter Etta visited Mrs. A. L. Martin last week.

Correspondence

PLEASANT HOME

Alva Loderback visited his parents and friends here. He had his camera with him and took some fine views with him to the city.

Fred Hatch and Mr. Burnett have sold their places and will vacate the property soon.

Irene Douglass is on the sick list.

The work is advancing rapidly on the Grange hall being built in Pleasant Home.

Ted Larsen visited his brother R. Larsen recently.

Mrs. E. M. Douglass, who has been at the Portland sanitarium for three weeks with pneumonia, returned home Sunday much improved. Harlow and Irene took up the store work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Collins have been visiting Mr. Collins' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis.

W. E. Markell's father and mother from Portland are spending a few days here.

Theo. Miller has moved from M. E. Carpenter's to Mrs. Cleggett's.

Miss Ila Larsen is ill with the grip.

The Christian Endeavor meeting was not held last Sunday on account of Chas. Hunter not being able to attend. Miss Ellen DeHaven will lead next Sunday evening.

The DeHavens are again living in their old home. They have bought land of Mrs. Johns and will build on it soon.

Miss Veta Bacon of Portland and Miss Mamie Roake of Oregon City were entertained by Miss Zell Gibbons and Winnie Roake of this place.

While Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hunter were driving to Gresham the other day their horse became frightened by a blast near the road and ran away, throwing the occupants out. Fortunately they were not injured, but the horse got away and was somewhat injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan have moved into their new home which they recently purchased from Mr. Layman.

Mrs. Carpenter visited her sister, Mrs. Knighton of Boring, last Saturday.

Mrs. Otis' brother has returned to his home in Kansas City.

The boys of Pleasant Home gave Herbert Simmons a rousing charivari.

CORBETT

L. A. Kincaid was in the city on last Thursday.

Apos Hughes purchased a fine team of horses in Portland this week.

A Sunday school was organized at this place on Sunday with the following officers: Mr. Hicks, superintendent; Mrs. C. E. Smith, assistant superintendent and organist; Mrs. G. H. Chamberlain, secretary and treasurer.

Reverend Soule will preach in the schoolhouse the first and third Sundays in the month.

Mrs. Sarah Kincaid spent several days with friends at Ferndale place.

Mrs. Rand visited at Bridal Veil on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bragsdon, Floyd and F. W. Reed attended the St. Patrick's day dance at Washougl.

Mrs. Lucy Kincaid and Miss Simmons were Portland visitors Saturday.

EGYPT

There are squatters on railroad land here which they hope will be opened by the government.

Mr. Smith of Brower was badly bitten in the hand by a dog recently.

Rev. W. T. Scott has purchased lumber at Bridal Veil for the new church.

O. Westlund went to Portland last week on business.

COTTRELL

Much land is being cleared in this locality. M. C. Donahue has two men clearing for him. Daggett Bros. & company are clearing land for Mr. Jones, who bought the Dogg farm. Mr. Jones is having 10 acres cleared and will plant all of his farm to fruit trees.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dixon have been visiting Mrs. Dixon's parents for a week. They have sold their place at Firland and are now living in Portland.

W. L. Daggett and Miss Nora Gilbert spent Sunday evening at the home of Paul Dunn.

LEETE-ROBERTS COMPANY

BULL RUN, OREGON

Have opened a

FIRST-CLASS GENERAL STORE

In connection with the postoffice at Bull Run.

Daily Stage to Gresham

Leaving Bull Run at 7 a. m.

Leaving Gresham at 1 p. m.

TROUTDALE

L. A. Harlow of Troutdale, one of the old time people of this portion of the county, has come out as a candidate for the legislature.

About 25 members of the Troutdale Chapter, O. E. S., visited the Washington Chapter in Portland on Monday evening and were royally entertained.

The new O. R. & N. depot is rapidly nearing completion.

Harry Hubbard is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Violet Stevens and Chester, Claud and Eva Stevens have all been ill with the grip.

Mrs. Frank Brannigan and son have returned from a trip to California.

Mrs. Peter Peterson, Mrs. Dan Mickley and Alvah Coupland visited Mrs. Ralph Coupland at Fairview.

Dan Strebin brought down a fine herd of horses from Eastern Oregon last week.

Mrs. Holman of Portland has moved here to remain a short time before going South for the summer.

Mr. Winchester of California has been staying with Peter Owens.

Mrs. Harry Wood and Grandmother Wood visited relatives in Gresham on Sunday and Monday.

Chester Stevens spent Sunday with his uncle, L. Stevens, at Oregon City.

Wm. Koenigzant has returned from Molalla where he has been on his farm for the past few months and has gone to work at the Union Meat company's plant again.

S. S. Logan is able to be up again.

J. H. Hudson spent Monday in Portland. Mr. Hudson is running for justice of the peace for this district.

John Logan and Miss Susie Dedrick were visitors in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. A. T. Tiller and children visited Mrs. Tiller's daughter, Mrs. C. Judd at Haley Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Latonrell expects to move back to Troutdale and make her home here.

Mrs. J. Jennings visited relatives in Gresham Monday. Mr. Jennings is ill with the grip.

The concrete workers are now at work on the basement of Wineland's building, and if the weather permits will complete their work in a few days.

FAIRVIEW

The regular meeting of Fairview Civic Improvement club was held on Monday evening. Napoleon Davis reported the petition for incorporation had been accepted by the county court. The following were nominated for city officers: Mayor, G. E. Shaver; recorder, Wm. Butler; treasurer, A. T. Axtell; marshal, J. H. Schrau; alderman, W. E. Elison, D. S. Dunbar, C. E. Cree, C. Shepard, E. A. Whitney and J. Luscher.

H. C. Campbell is having a wire fence built and other improvements made on his 80 acres recently purchased located between the O. R. & N. road and Sandy road between Fairview and Troutdale.

Harry Donley, division foreman of the bridge and building department of Washington division, was here on Monday to visit Mrs. H. S. Shaw. Mrs. Donley and children who have been here with Mrs. Donley's mother the past month went with Mr. Donley to their new home at Spokane.

The Portland Dairy association have again begun the manufacture of cheese at their factory here. For the past year the milk has been sent to the Portland factory after being separated, but the supply of milk has become too great for the facilities of that factory, thus the need of again starting the factory here.

Two carloads of cement have just been unloaded here, the largest one containing 100,000 pounds. One belonged to J. M. Davis of Terry and the other to Lewis Shattuck of Gresham. Both came from Nethli.

Lloyd Axtell returned home Sunday from Cliffs, Wash., where he has been with his uncle the past few months.

Mrs. G. O. Dulph will entertain the members of the Y. P. S. C. E. on Friday evening of this week.

W. H. Osburn of Portland visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. O. A. Jackson has had a new fence built around her yard.

Jack Lischer is putting in tiling on his wet land.

J. W. Townsend has been building new fence on his farm and has made a neat wire fence around his lawn.

Mrs. M. C. Cornett and daughter, Miss Ivy, went to Springwater last Friday returning on Monday. They visited old friends and relatives and looked after interests there.

Mrs. O. A. Jackson, Mrs. Cora Anderson, E. G. McGaw and wife, A. L. Stone, Rev. W. T. Scott, J. M. Martindale, A. T. Axtell and Mrs. J. W. Townsend were recent Portland visitors.

Mrs. Ralph Coupland has been ill with tonsillitis.

H. C. Campbell, president of the Sun Dial Ranch company, has been here looking after interests.

W. Grant has returned here to look after Mr. Campbell's horses.

G. R. Wilcox has gone to Hood River for a few days' stay.

J. A. Brown of Portland has been here on business.

Job Printing Neatly Done at The Herald Office.

To the Public:

TALK IS CHEAP, Hence we don't say much about ourselves.

We sell the goods and others talk for us. We are too busy at this time of year even to write a big ad., but what you read in this ad. you can bank on—and there's a lot more to tell. . . .

Reliable Goods and Satisfied Customers are our best ads. and they are bringing us good returns. Nuf Sed

Our Specialties

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES
DRY GOODS AND SHOES
HARDWARE, DISHES, ETC.
FARMING IMPLEMENTS
BUILDER'S MATERIAL
HOUSEHOLD NECESSITIES

Patent Medicines

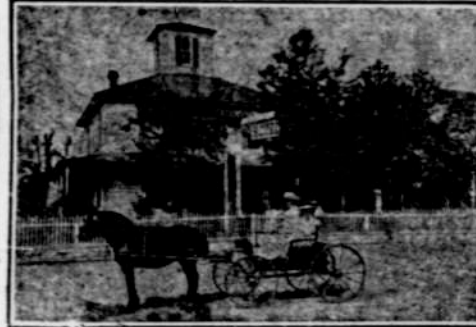

JUST WHAT YOU NEED

Phone for Prices. Phone Your Orders.

AARON FOX

PHONE FARMERS 281

Troutdale Oregon

The Sandy Hotel

First-class accommodations Commercial trade solicited Clean beds and good meals

Feed Stable in Connection

CASPER JUNKER, Prop.
Sandy, Oregon

CHERRYVILLE

Rev. J. W. Exon preached at the Cherryville schoolhouse Sunday evening.

Bennie Hart has built a hog-tight wire fence along the road. It improves the looks of the place very much.

Several parties have been looking for land here of late. There is some government land left and good deal of railroad land.

Wm. S. Runyon is circulating a petition in the cause of temperance.

Geo. Eden went to Portland on business recently.

W. Odell, who has had a severe attack of the grip, is slowly improving.

J. J. Costellie has rented the Collings ranch for this year.

T. T. Freal, Jr., is fencing his property at Cherryville.

Dode Copper and Vincent Friel are working for Mr. Holman near the toll-gate. He is building a summer resort.

H. Biedenstein has the earliest garden of anyone in this vicinity, turnips, cabbage, beans, peas and lettuce up.

ROCKWOOD

Mrs. H. A. Woods of Columbia View died at her residence on Tuesday evening, March 17th. Mrs. Woods leaves a husband, three sons and a daughter to mourn her loss beside a host of other friends and neighbors.

Rev. C. R. Reece preached a very forceful sermon here Sunday afternoon. His subject was, "Who is my Neighbor?"

Mrs. Moore of Oregon City spent a few days last week visiting her niece, Mrs. May Richmond.

Rockwood school will close a few weeks earlier this year in order to give plenty of time for the erection of the new school building.

A baseball team was organized here last Sunday with James Taylor as Captain and W. A. Herring, manager.

BORING ROLLER MILL

Will Run Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will deliver feed on these days only.

Several parties have been looking for land here of late. There is some government land left and good deal of railroad land.

Wm. S. Runyon is circulating a petition in the cause of temperance.

Geo. Eden went to Portland on business recently.

W. Odell, who has had a severe attack of the grip, is slowly improving.

J. J. Costellie has rented the Collings ranch for this year.

T. T. Freal, Jr., is fencing his property at Cherryville.

Dode Copper and Vincent Friel are working for Mr. Holman near the toll-gate. He is building a summer resort.

H. Biedenstein has the earliest garden of anyone in this vicinity, turnips, cabbage, beans, peas and lettuce up.

Mrs. H. A. Woods of Columbia View died at her residence on Tuesday evening, March 17th. Mrs. Woods leaves