Woodman, Spare That Tree

Woodman, spare that tree! Touch not a single bough!
In youth it sheltered me,
And I'll protect it now,
'Twas my forefather's hand
That placed it near his cot:
There, woodman, let it stand,
Thy ax shall harm it not!

That old familiar tree, Whose glory and renown Are spread o'er land and sea,— And wouldst thou hack it down? Woodman, forbear thy stroke! Cut not its earth-bound ties; Oh, spare that aged oak, Now towering to the skies!

When but an idle boy
I sought its grateful shade;
In all their gushing joy,
Here, too, my sisters played My mother kissed me here: My father pressed my hand— Forgive the foolish tear; But let that old oak stand.

My heart-strings round thee cling, Close as thy bark, old friend; Here shall the wild bird sing,

And still thy branches bend. Old tree, the storm still brave! And, woodman, leave the spot; Thy ax shall harm it not .- Morris.
